Bresnahan, 2024-12-10 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Over the past few decades scholars have traced how Indian Ocean merchants forged transregional networks into a world of global connections East Africa s crucial role in this Indian Ocean world has primarily been understood through the influence of coastal trading centers like Mombasa In Inland from Mombasa David P Bresnahan looks anew at this Swahili port city from the vantage point of the communities that lived on its rural edges By reconstructing the deep history of these Mijikenda speaking societies over the past two millennia he shows how profoundly they influenced global trade even as they rejected many of the cosmopolitan practices that historians have claimed are critical to creating global connections choosing smaller communities over urbanism local ritual practices over Islam and inland trade over maritime commerce Inland from Mombasa makes the compelling case that the seemingly isolating alternative social pursuits engaged in by Mijikenda speakers were in fact key to their active role in global commerce and politics

Killing Neighbors Lee Ann Fujii, 2011-07-07 In the horrific events of the mid 1990s in Rwanda tens of thousands of Hutu killed their Tutsi friends neighbors even family members That ghastly violence has overshadowed a fact almost as noteworthy that hundreds of thousands of Hutu killed no one In a transformative revisiting of the motives behind and specific contexts surrounding the Rwandan genocide Lee Ann Fujii focuses on individual actions rather than sweeping categories Fujii argues that ethnic hatred and fear do not satisfactorily explain the mobilization of Rwandans one against another Fujii's extensive interviews in Rwandan prisons and two rural communities form the basis for her claim that mass participation in the genocide was not the result of ethnic antagonisms Rather the social context of action was critical Strong group dynamics and established local ties shaped patterns of recruitment for and participation in the genocide This web of social interactions bound people to power holders and killing groups People joined and continued to participate in the genocide over time Fujii shows because killing in large groups conferred identity on those who acted destructively The perpetrators of the genocide produced new groups centered on destroying prior bonds by killing kith and kin

as Orikonso Damian Onwuegbuchulam Eze,2008 In this book the author relying on the research he carried out in Igboland Nigeria leads us to see the action of God s grace already active in the Igbo religious culture called Omenala Ndigbo before the coming of Christian missionaries and how these cultural values have prepared the people to receive the Gospel But as he points out these cultural values on which the Christian message ought to have been built from the beginning were grossly misunderstood and neglected The Igbo people are now mainly Christians But because the Gospel has not yet become their culture some of them have double allegiance to the doctrines of the Church and to the practices of Omenala Ndigbo The author opines that to build the Catholic Church in Igboland on a solid foundation the Eucharist must take the central place since the Eucharist makes the Church and is the source and summit of the life of the Church Thus the work which uses the analytical and hermeneutical method known as inculturation is on Eucharistic Ecclesiology from an Igbo perspective and will be useful for the Church both at the local and universal levels for self understanding and renewal ecumenism dialogue and mission
