Blue And White Retreats:

The Masters and Their Retreats Marl L. Prophet, Elizabeth Clare Prophet, 2020-08-28 The great lights who have come out of all the world's spiritual traditions and graduated from earth's schoolroom have become widely known as masters. They demonstrate that in the world of Spirit there is no division of race, religion, or philosophy; there is simply oneness, ineffable sweetness, and love. What is not so widely known is that these great masters have retreats, temples, and cities of light in the heaven world where we can go in spiritual meditation and while our bodies sleep at night. In this comprehensive work, Mark and Elizabeth Prophet talk about these great masters, the stories of their lives, and their magnificent spiritual retreats.

accounts Napoleon's invasion of Russia was one of history's most disastrous military campaigns. Historian Paul Austin vividly captures the entire campaign in his magisterial 1812 trilogy. His previous books brought the Grand Armée to the empty victory over an abandoned Moscow and on to the Battle of Maloyaroslavets where Napoleon was forced to order a retreat for the first time in his entire career. 1812: The Great Retreat follows the army's withdrawal through 800 miles of devastated countryside, crossing the relics of the Borodino battlefield, fighting its way through the Russian General Kutusov's successive attempts to cut it off, and winning against overwhelming odds the battle of the Berezina crossing. First-hand narratives, many published in English for the first time, describe Marshal Ney's astounding achievement in holding together the rear guard until he himself, musket in hand, was the last man to recross the Niemen into Poland. Using the words of the participants themselves, Austin brings unparalleled authenticity and immediacy to his unique account of the closing stages of Napoleon's tragic 1812 campaign.

Teachings from the Medicine Buddha Retreat Lama Zopa Rinpoche, 2009-01-01. Kyabje Lama Zopa Rinpoche gave these teachings during a Medicine Buddha retreat held at Land of Medicine Buddha in Soquel, California, from October 26 to November 17, 2001. Edited by Ailsa Cameron, this book covers an amazing range of topics. From a review in BuddhaDharma magazine: Teachings from the Medicine Buddha Retreat is a nearly complete record of the teachings given by Lama Zopa Rinpoche during a twenty-five day Medicine Buddha retreat in the fall of 2001. The sections are short on topics such as making offerings to the Buddhas and the nature of mind. The retreat was held less than two months after the 9/11 attacks, and Lama Zopa's teachings are full of references to terrorism, war, Iraq, and Afghanistan. The book is not meant as a coherent presentation on any particular topic; however, one is rewarded by just opening it and reading anywhere. Lama Zopa is a clear and effective teacher, and his stories are endlessly entertaining and inspiring. This book is made possible by kind supporters of the Archive who, like you, appreciate how we make these teachings freely available in so many ways, including in our website for instant reading, listening, or downloading, and as printed and electronic books. Our website offers immediate access to thousands of pages of teachings and hundreds of audio recordings by some of the greatest lamas of our time. Our photo gallery and our ever-popular books are also freely accessible there. Please help us increase our efforts to spread the Dharma for the happiness and benefit of all beings.
