Blue in Chicago Bette Howland, 1978 Chicago a partitioned city walled and wired is the place and Bette Howland s blue collar working class Jewish family are the people In a city torn by racial tensions poverty and decay they represent the less glamorous but more enduring aspects of urban life There is the Bobbe the fiercely independent grandmother and proud family matriarch who watches the world go by from the lobby of her apartment building and who in an intensely moving finale surmounts the indignity of dying And Uncle Rudy an obstinate and unpredictable force out of the mainstream a Jewish cop alienated from the rest of his family In a Chicago as blue as distances Bette Howland introduces us to the other victims the tired the old the counted out Unacknowledged frustrated battered these are the people who are silent but not necessarily a majority Above all they are the survivors in a world where love and reproach are inextricably connected It is impossible to remain unmoved by the people Bette Howland knows and describes in this chronicle Blue in Chicago captures not only the pulse of a city in the midst of change but more importantly the pulse of the human heartbeat
