deserves to be better known than he is Many of his lyrics are so finely crafted they can rank with the best verses of his time and some are touchstones a delicate scent of Keats in The Silver Birch a gentle reminder of Villon in New Saints for Old He spoke highly of Emily Dickinson before she was fashionable and he brushed shoulders with important poets hosting William Butler Yeats at the University of Notre Dame spending days with good friend Joyce Kilmer Some of his finest moments were reserved for tributes to the dead and musing on natural beauty He celebrates the great and the not so great He chronicles war and he muses on triumphs Everywhere O'Donnell surprises a reader with fresh images and phrases sandaled with violets snowed over with the moonlight These are the words of a significant voice who apprehends the world with new energy and can translate experience into language with easeful art Some of his poems stun with such metaphysical splendor that a reader is forced to consider the lines repeatedly Suspending disbelief will bring readers hours of joy feeling the world as O'Donnell felt it a century ago

Modern Jeweler's Consumer Guide to Colored Gemstones David Federman, 2012-12-06 Since early 1989 a gem dealer I've known for years has been calling me every few weeks to brief me on mounting mayhem in Colombia's lucrative emerald market The troubling gist of these calls is always this There is a full fledged turf war going on between that South American country's bustling drug and gem trades for control of its emerald export business According to this dealer and several others anywhere from two to four thousand emerald industry people mostly miners and dealers have been murdered since 1980 No doubt the gem sector itself never gun shy has retaliated in full and in kind After all the two groups have banded together in an intermittent alliance against a common enemy Communist guerillas with results the CIA would envy I mention this bloodshed because of something the gem dealer once said to me I bet you never think of what a gem has to go through to get to a jewelry store He's right I tend to think of colored stones as things of beauty not objects of gruesome power struggles between mining kingpins and drug lords Can you blame me or anyone with insider knowledge if a gem sheds any connection with its past once sculpted by a cutter into the glittering marvel we see in a jeweler's showcase Like Odysseus listening to the sirens song we become victims of an aesthetics induced amnesia
