Blue Pencil Magazine, 1900      Americans in a World at War Brooke L. Blower, 2023 Americans in a World at War tells the panoramic and often surprising story of seven worldly Americans their personal histories their politics and the paths that led them to board a Pan American Airways seaplane bound for Lisbon in February 1943 When the Yankee Clipper crashed in the Tagus River it took numerous lives but left a paper trail that leads to a richer deeper understanding of Americans diverse global commitments during the first half of the twentieth century as well as how the Second World War would transform those engagements      A Military History of Australia Jeffrey Grey, 1999-06-28 This book represents an expanded edition of one of the most acclaimed overviews of Australian military history available A Military History of Australia covers the major theatres of war in which Australia was engaged from Gallipoli to the Gulf War with particular attention to the Second World War and the war in the Pacific Yet the author extends the story back to the Australian colonies when the military were not only sent overseas to assist Britain in colonial wars but when armed conflict took place on Australian soil between indigenous Australians and the European settlers In addition the book discusses the evolution of defence policy in peace and war and the impact of war and the military on civilian society It maps the development of the Australian armed forces as institutions and the relationship of military policy to civil government The author considers the role war played in the development of Australian society and the Australian ethos      Somewhere in Asia Prue Torney-Parlicki, 2000 From 1941 to 1975 as a series of military conflicts gripped Asia and the Pacific Australian journalism was dominated by war reporting from the region Torney Parlicki history U of Melbourne argues that the reporting went beyond the usual discussion of military strategy and in an important way      Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies      Norman Haire and the Study of Sex Diana Wyndham, 2012 A star debater at school Norman Haire had always wanted to be an actor Forced to study medicine he followed his other passion saving the world from sexual misery When he arrived in London in 1919 he was a poor Jewish outsider from Australia By 1930 he had a flourishing gynaecology practice in Harley Street a chauffeur driven Rolls Royce and a country house His parties were attended by the medical intellectual and cultural elite As a prominent sexologist and a campaigner for birth control Haire took a leading role in the world's first international conference on birth control in 1922 and organised with Dora Russell the World League for Sexual Reform's highly successful 1929 Congress in London He lectured in America Germany France and

Spain and wrote and edited many accessible books on sex education In 1940 Haire returned to Australia where he attracted a loyal following but was also hounded by the security service The ABC Board was censured in parliament for choosing him as the key speaker in a population debate and his weekly advice column in the magazine Woman was strongly opposed by the Catholic Church Peter Coleman called Haire one of Australia's most famous freethinkers and sex reformers This biography pays a tribute to this tenacious humane witty innovative and brave man's contribution to birth control sexology and human rights history Blue Pencil Warriors John Hilvert, 1984

Information Systems Security and Privacy Paolo Mori, Steven Furnell, Olivier Camp, 2020-06-27 This book constitutes the revised selected papers of the 5th International Conference on Information Systems Security and Privacy ICISSP 2019 held in Prague Czech Republic in February 2019 The 19 full papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from a total of 100 submissions The papers presented in this volume address various topical research including new approaches for attack modelling and prevention incident management and response and user authentication and access control as well as business and human oriented aspects such as data protection and privacy and security awareness Australian Book Review, 1985 Professional Journal of the United States Army, 1985

Reporting from the Wars 1850 – 2015 Barry Turner, Daniel Barredo Ibáñez, Steven James Grattan, 2019-07-05 From the foundations of the world's first great empires to the empires of today war has preoccupied human civilisation for as many as 4000 years It has fascinated horrified thrilled confused inspired and disgusted mankind since records began Provoking such a huge range of emotions and reactions and fulfilling all the elements of newsworthiness it is hardly surprising that war makes good news Modern technological advancements such as the camera and television brought the brutality of war into the homes and daily lives of the public No longer a far away and out of sight affair the public's ability to see what was happening on the frontline changed not only how wars were fought but why they were fought Even when a war is considered popular the involvement of the press and the weight of public opinion has led to criticisms that have transformed modern warfare almost in equal measure to the changes brought about by weapon technology War reporting seeks to look beyond the official story to understand the very nature of conflict whilst acknowledging that it is no longer simply good versus evil This edited volume presents a unique insight into the work of the war correspondent and battlefield photographer from the earliest days of modern war reporting to the present It reveals how influenced by the changing face of modern warfare the work of the war correspondent has been significantly altered in style method and practice By combining historical analysis with experiences of modern day war reporting this book provides an important contribution to the understanding of this complicated profession which will be of interest to journalists academics and students alike The Visual Politics of War Volume Two Ibrahim Saleh, 2018-11-12 This second issue of the book series Visual Politics of War focuses on the implications and uncertainties associated with the visual politics of the current media hostile environment Over the years academics journalists and individuals have produced a body of work connected directly if in complex and varied ways to contemporary ideological beliefs This volume draws together various scholars from different parts of the world examining facets of the new visualization of wars and crisis in a range of innovative ways All the contributors here pose questions concerned with the significance of visual political works today and ask how images and personas have developed and been appropriated by others with their own distinct political agendas

Military Review, 1985 Notebooks and Unpublished Prose Manuscripts Walt Whitman, 2007-06 General Series Editors Gay Wilson Allen and Sculley Bradley Originally published between 1961 and 1984 and now available in paperback for the first time the critically acclaimed Collected Writings of Walt Whitman captures every facet of one of America's most important poets Notebooks and Unpublished Prose Manuscripts gathers Whitman's autobiographical notes his views on contemporary politics and the writings he made as he educated himself in ancient history religion and mythology health including phrenology and word study Included is material on his Civil War experiences his love of Abraham Lincoln his descriptions of various trips to the West and South and of the cities in which he resided his generally pessimistic view of America's prospects in the Reconstruction and the Gilded Age and his reminiscences during his final years and his preoccupation with the increasing ailments that came with old age Many of these notes served as sources for his poetry first drafts of some of the poems are included as they appear in the notes and as the basis for his lectures

British Propaganda in the Twentieth Century Philip M. Taylor, 2019-08-08 Philip M Taylor analyses the period from World War One to the present day and demonstrates how Britain has established a model for the dissemination of democratic propaganda world wide His writing covers films radio television and the press

Paper Emperors Sally Young, 2019-03-01 A tour de force Professor Rodney Tiffen Before newspapers were ravaged by the digital age they were a powerful force especially in Australia a country of newspaper giants and kingmakers This magisterial book reveals who owned Australia's newspapers and how they used them to wield political power A corporate and political history of Australian newspapers spanning 140 years it explains how Australia's media system came to be dominated by a handful of empires and powerful family dynasties Many are household names even now Murdoch Fairfax Syme Packer Written with verve and insight and showing unparalleled command of a vast range of sources Sally Young shows how newspaper owners influenced policy making lobbied and bullied politicians and shaped internal party politics The book begins in 1803 with Australia's first newspaper owner a convict who became a wealthy bank owner giving the industry a blend of notoriety power and wealth from the start Throughout the twentieth century Australians were unaware that they were reading newspapers owned by secret bankrupts and failed land boomers powerful mining magnates Underbelly style gangsters bankers and corporate titans It ends with the downfall of Menzies in 1941 and his conviction that a handful of press barons brought him down The intervening years are packed with political drama business machinations and a struggle for readers all while the newspaper barons are peddling power and influence

Australia's Boldest Experiment Stuart Macintyre, 2015-06-01 In this landmark book Stuart Macintyre explains how a country traumatised by

World War I hammered by the Depression and overstretched by World War II became a prosperous successful and growing society by the 1950s An extraordinary group of individuals notably John Curtin Ben Chifley Nugget Coombs John Dedman and Robert Menzies re made the country planning its reconstruction against a background of wartime sacrifice and austerity The other part of this triumphant story shows Australia on the world stage seeking to fashion a new world order that would bring peace and prosperity This book shows the 1940s to be a pivotal decade in Australia At the height of his powers Macintyre reminds us that key components of the society we take for granted work welfare health education immigration housing are not the result of military endeavour but policy planning politics and popular resolve

I Will Tell of My War Story Scott M. Thompson, 2000 Thompson reproduces describes and discusses a remarkable series of drawings by an anonymous Indian artist who fought with Chief Joseph and later reached Canada The drawings in red blue and black pencil include portraits of principal participants in the war battle scenes and views of Nez Perce camp life 60 color illustrations

Larrikins, Rebels and Journalistic Freedom in Australia Josie Vine, 2021-03-01 Larrikins Rebels and Journalistic Freedom is a cultural history of Australian journalism In a democratic nation where a free news media is not guaranteed Australian journalism has inherited what could be described as a Larrikin tradition to protect its independence This book mines Australian journalism s rebelliousness humor and distinct disrespect for authority in various socio historical contexts to explore its determination to maintain professional independence Beginning with a Larrikin analysis of Australian journalism s inherited Enlightenment tradition Dr Josie Vine takes the reader through the Colonial era s hardships Federation two World Wars the Cold War s fear and suspicion the swinging sixties a Prime Minister s dismissal 1980 s neo liberalism post 9 11 and finally provides a conclusive synthesis of current Australian journalism culture Throughout the book highlights the audacious iconoclastic and determined figure of the Larrikin journalist forever pushing boundaries to protect democracy s cornerstone freedom of the news media Book length histories of Australian journalism are still relatively rare but what makes this new arrival particularly welcome is the way in which it is structured around an exploration of the Larrikin paradox This refers to the fact that although Australian journalism may profess to be professional and reputable it can also be raucous unruly and disrespectful in pursuit of what it sees as its democratic purposes The Larrikin may be a uniquely Australian figure but the paradox is far from confined to Australian journalism not least because of the influence of erstwhile Australian Rupert Murdoch on journalism in the Anglosphere and this book should be of considerable interest to those concerned with the means whereby journalism performs its democratic Fourth Estate role in modern democracies This is an extremely very well informed and highly insightful work which ought to appeal equally to those interested in journalism and in Australian politics Julian Petley Professor Brunel University London UK

Historical Origins of International Criminal Law Morten Bergsmo, CHEAH Wui Ling, YI Ping, 2014-12-12 The historical origins of international criminal law go beyond the key trials of Nuremberg and Tokyo but remain a topic that has not received comprehensive and systematic treatment This anthology aims to address this lacuna by examining trials proceedings legal instruments and publications that may be said to be the building blocks of contemporary international criminal law It aspires to generate new knowledge broaden the common hinterland to international criminal law and further develop this relatively young discipline of international law The anthology and research project also seek to question our fundamental assumptions of international criminal law by going beyond the geographical cultural and temporal limits set by the traditional narratives of its history and by questioning the roots of its substance process and institutions Ultimately we hope to raise awareness and generate further discussion about the historical and intellectual origins of international criminal law and its social function The contributions to the three volumes of this study bring together experts with different professional and disciplinary expertise from diverse continents and legal traditions Volume 2 comprises contributions by prominent international lawyers and researchers including Professor LING Yan Professor Neil Boister Professor Nina H B J rgensen Professor Ditlev Tamm and Professor Mark Drumbl
