A Certain Woman:

A Certain Woman Hala El Badry, 2006-09-01 In this prize winning novel Nahid is a woman determined to go on a journey of self discovery and understanding As we accompany her in her sometimes delirious sometimes lucid journey we are given rare glimpses of the inner thoughts and feelings of a woman confronting questions of love and intimacy within and outside of marriage It is a story of one woman s quest for liberation not from a repressive society or a male dominated world that is easy and has been done many times before but from self imposed taboos that inhibit a woman s ability to find fulfillment and to confront the many imponderables surrounding sexuality desire and love Stuck by conscious choice to keep up the genteel appearances of her middle class family in a loveless marriage to Mustafa the forty something Nahid finds love and sex with novelist and journalist Omar himself trapped in a loveless but not sexless marriage to Maggie Although their love story is at the very heart of the novel we are given broad glimpses of the larger picture of the world outside through Nahid s work as an archaeologist and Omar s as a journalist The novel was well received by women readers critics and reviewers and by a majority of the male audience while a vociferous minority of male critics felt scandalized by it finding it unseemly that such issues should be raised by a woman Now English readers can judge for themselves A Certain Woman Sharon
