A Black Political Theology:

A Black Political Theology James Deotis Roberts, 2005-01-01 Originally published Philadelphia Westminster Press 1974

The Prophethood of Black Believers James Deotis Roberts, 1994-01-01 This valuable resource from one of the founding fathers of the black theology movement discusses how to minister to the black community Using an interdisciplinary approach J Deotis Roberts shows how theological concepts can be applied to education pastoral care and political and economic issues

Liberation and Reconciliation James Deotis Roberts, 2005-01-01 First released in 1971 Liberation and Reconciliation presents a constructive statement that argues for a balance between the quest for liberation and the need for reconciliation in black white relations Examining biblical and theological themes from the perspectives of black experience the book focuses on enlisting all humans of goodwill black or white in the cause of racial justice Roberts concludes that nonviolent reconciliation is the best response to racial oppression This groundbreaking work now a classic in the field is recognized as one of the first texts to move conversations within black theology beyond what black theologians were against toward what the movement sought to affirm

Dread and Pentecostal Robert Beckford, 2011-07-01 In this authoritative and passionately argued book Robert Beckford explores the future of Black British Pentecostalism in a society where the notion of White supremacy even in faith is all too evident Drawing on Black womanist and post colonial theologies of liberation he urges the Black Church to regain its traditional prophetic role as part of its ministry He suggests that the Caribbean's first liberation theology Rastafari has much to offer all Christians concerned with speaking prophetically into social and political life in Britain Reflecting on aspects of Rastafari Black Pentecostalism and the meaning of Jesus in the world today he develops a new model for a Black political faith a Dread Pentecostal theology

The Blackwell Companion to Political Theology Peter Manley Scott, William T. Cavanaugh, 2008-04-15 Written by a team of international experts drawn from various traditions of political theology this outstanding resource brings together 35 newly commissioned essays in the field Demonstrates that Christian theology is inherently political and shows how theology impacts on present day political issues Considers the interface of theology with political ideologies including the contribution of theology to feminist ecological black and pacifist movements Assesses the contribution of the major political theologians and theological movements Explores the political aspects of Christian sources such as scripture and liturgy

Black Theology USA and South Africa Dwight N. Hopkins, 2005-12-01 Black theology continually poses a challenge to Christian witness and faith Through a critical analysis of leading religious thinkers Dwight N Hopkins explores the fundamental differences and similarities between black theology in the United States and black theology in South Africa and asks What is the common denominator between the two Part I examines the historical political cultural and theological background of contemporary black theology in both countries Hopkins delves into the distinctive situation of each country focusing on civil rights black power and related political cultural and theological themes in the United States and on civil disobedience black consciousness the unity of politics and culture and political cultural theological themes in South Africa Through interviews with leading black religious scholars Part II explores these theologies in depth Contrasting the cultural theological trend with the political theological trend in the USA Hopkins explores the ideas of theologians Albert B Cleage James H Cone J Deotis Roberts William R Jones Gayraud S Wilmore Charles H Long Cecil W Cone and Vincent Harding In Part III Hopkins examines the same two trends cultural theological and political theological in South Africa Here the focus is on the impact of black consciousness and Soweto and the works of Manas Buthelezi Allan Boesak Simon S Maimela Frank Chikane Bonganjalo C Goba Itumeleng J Mosala Takatso A Mofokeng and Desmond M Tutu Part IV brings black theology USA and black theology South Africa into dialogue Hopkins locates the common denominator between the two theologies that they both claim the Christian gospel as the gospel of liberation for black people struggling against racism and for a holistic humanity physically and spiritually politically and culturally He concludes by looking toward future areas of development and collaboration arguing that an effective black theology of liberation must integrate politics and culture insuring that the two are equal and complementary two tributaries within the same current

In the Days of Caesar Amos Yong, 2010-09-14 In the Days of Caesar is a constructive political theology formulated in sustained dialogue with the Pentecostal and charismatic renewal one of the most vibrant religious movements at the beginning of the twenty first century Amos Yong here argues that the many tongues practices and gifts of renewal Christianity offer up new resources for thinking about how Christian community can engage and transform the social political and economic structures of the world Yong has three goals here First he seeks to correct stereotypes of Pentecostalism both political and theological Secondly he aims to provoke Pentecostals to reflect theologically from out of the depths of their own Pentecostalism rather than merely to adopt some framework for theological or political self understanding Finally Yong shows that a distinctively Pentecostal form of theological reflection is not a parochial activity but has constructive potential to illuminate Christian belief and practice This book's engagement with political theology from a Pentecostal perspective is the first of its kind

Black Theology in Dialogue James Deotis Roberts, 1987-01-01 Challenging all who are concerned about religion in today's world J Deotis Roberts outlines a new way of looking at the essential questions Roberts proposes a theology concerned with concrete and specific situations that also retains a universal vision In discussing the relationship of American black thought to African liberation feminist Asian and Euro American theologies he covers significant religious issues such as love justice power and evil

Existential Theology Hue Woodson, 2020-09-29 Existential Theology An Introduction offers a formalized and comprehensive examination of the field of existential theology in order to distinguish it as a unique field of study and view it as a measured synthesis of the concerns of Christian existentialism Christian humanism and Christian philosophy with the preoccupations of proper existentialism and a series of unfolding themes from Augustine to Kierkegaard To do this Existential Theology attends to the field through the exploration of genres the European traditions in French Russian and German schools of thought counter traditions in liberation feminist and womanist approaches and postmodern traditions located in anthropological political and ethical approaches While the cultural contexts inform how each of the selected philosopher theologians present genres of existential theology other unique genres are examined in theoretical and philosophical contexts particularly through a selected set of theologians philosophers thinkers and theorists that are not generally categorized theologically By assessing existential theology through how it manifests itself in genres this book brings together lesser known figures well known thinkers and figures that are not generally viewed as existential theologians to form a focused understanding of the question of the meaning of existential theology and what existential theology looks like in its varying forms

Political Theology of International Order William Bain, 2020 Is contemporary international order truly a secular arrangement William Bain challenges this narrative by arguing that modern theories of international order reflect ideas that originate in medieval theology The Making of American Liberal Theology Gary J. Dorrien, 2006-01-01 In this first of three volumes Dorrien identifies the indigenous roots of American liberal theology and demonstrates a wider longer running tradition than has been thought The tradition took shape in the nineteenth century motivated by a desire to map a modernist third way between orthodoxy and rationalistic deism atheism It is defined by its openness to modern intellectual inquiry its commitment to the authority of individual reason and experience its conception of Christianity as an ethical way of life and its commitment to make Christianity credible and socially relevant to modern people Dorrien takes a narrative approach and provides a biographical reading of important religious thinkers of the time including William E Channing Ralph Waldo Emerson Horace Bushnell Henry Ward Beecher Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Charles Briggs Dorrien notes that although liberal theology moved into elite academic institutions its conceptual foundations were laid in the pulpit rather than the classroom

Kierkegaard and Political Theology Roberto Sirvent, Silas Morgan, 2018-03-06 The nature of Kierkegaard's political legacy is complicated by the religious character of his writings Exploring Kierkegaard's relevancy for this political theological moment this volume offers trans disciplinary and multi religious perspectives on Kierkegaard studies and political theology Privileging contemporary philosophical and political theological work that is based on Kierkegaard this volume is an indispensable resource for Kierkegaard scholars theologians philosophers of religion ethicists and critical researchers in religion looking to make sense of current debates in the field While this volume shows that Kierkegaard's theological legacy is a thoroughly political one we are left with a series of open questions as to what a Kierkegaardian interjection into contemporary political theology might look like And so like Kierkegaard's writings this collection of essays is an argument with itself and as such will leave readers both edified and scratching their heads for all the right reasons A Radical Political Theology for the Anthropocene Era Ryan LaMothe, 2021-11-18 Given the fierce urgency of now this important book confronts and addresses key problems and questions of political theology with the aim of proposing a radical political theology for the Anthropocene Age LaMothe invites readers to think and be otherwise in living lives in common with all other human beings and other than human beings that dwell on this one earth Freedom's Distant Shores R. Drew Smith, 2006 This volume examines relations between U S Protestants and Africa since the end of colonial rule It draws attention to shifting ecclesiastical and socio political priorities especially the decreased momentum of social justice advocacy and the growing missionary influence of churches emphasizing spiritual revival and personal prosperity The book provides a thought provoking assessment of U S Protestant involvements with Africa and it proposes forms of engagement that build upon ecclesiastical dynamism within American and African contexts Examining J. Deotis Roberts', 'A Black Political Theology', as an Approach to Address the Complexity of the Present Future Frederick L. Smith, 2021 Exploring the works of J Deotis Roberts this paper analyzes his relevancy and contribution to the theological discourse on black theology The paper further examines the framework of black political theology as defined by J Deotis Roberts and how the theological method merges with full spectrum thinking and Marxist theory to address the socio economic and political dilemmas The paper seeks to articulate a vision for the church and society utilization of black political theology accompanied by progressive Marxist theory as a social analysis tool to critique capitalism and envision a just and equitable future Swing Low, volume 1 Walter R. Strickland,2024-10-29 The dynamic witness of the Black church is an essential part of Christian history In this groundbreaking two volume work Walter R Strickland II presents a theological intellectual history of African American Christianity Volume 1 a narrative history explores five theological anchors of Black Christianity from the 1600s to the present

A Darkly Radiant Vision Gary Dorrien,2023-01-01 The third and final volume in the first comprehensive history of Black social Christianity by the greatest theological ethicist of the twenty first century Michael Eric Dyson The Black social gospel is a tradition of unsurpassed and ongoing importance in American life argues Gary Dorrien in his groundbreaking trilogy on the history of Black social Christianity This concluding volume an interpretation of the tradition since the early 1970s follows Dorrien s award winning The New Abolition W E B Du Bois and the Black Social Gospel and Breaking White Supremacy Martin Luther King Jr and the Black Social Gospel Beginning in the shadow of Martin Luther King Jr Dorrien examines the past fifty years of this intellectual and activist tradition interpreting its politics theology ethics social criticism and social justice organizing He argues that Black social Christianity is today an intersectional tradition of discourse and activist religion that interrelates liberation theology womanist theology antiracist politics LGBTQ theory cultural criticism progressive religion broad based interfaith organizing and global solidarity politics A Darkly Radiant Vision features in depth discussions of Andrew Young Jesse Jackson Samuel DeWitt Proctor Gayraud Wilmore James Cone Cornel West Katie Geneva Cannon Stacey Floyd Thomas Traci Blackmon William J Barber II Raphael G Warnock and many others African American Religious Studies Gayraud S.
