A Child's History Of Placentia:

A Child's History of Placentia Virginia L. Carpenter, 1969 Vaquero Turned Vintner Barbara Booth Keiller, 2020-02-27
Keiller's quest for stories and images that both animate and illuminate the U S Mexico border landscape leads the author to California's Santa Maria Valley. Border writer Keiller follows her intuition to the genius loci of the Santa Maria River Valley. She reads about an old adobe located at the Bien Nacido Vineyard and intuitively the location matches the landscape that calls to her. She meets vintner James Ontiveros and the story of early Californios begins to emerge. James Ontiveros, a ninth generation Californio, introduces Keiller to the story of his ancestors traveling north into Alta California with the 1781 Pobladores Expedition to establish Los Angeles and the Santa Barbara Presidio. Images of disused ranchos, horses, longhorned cattle, reata trails, missions, and wine embellish the tapestry of relationships interwoven throughout Vaquero Turned Vintner. The Ontiveros Border Story. The author's love of the Mexico United States border landscape energizes her experiences exploring the story. Barbara delves into the layers of the story using her skills as a therapist, listening to storytellers, asking questions, and researching the archives. Lures, cues, dreams, and intuitions lead the way. Keiller describes her evolving relationships with people, the landscapes, and the wildlife throughout her odyssey that covers more than a decade from California, Baja California, Mexico, Arizona, Spain, France, Argentina, and Chile. She reports details in the form of a diary, much like the early explorers reported the day to day experiences on their expeditions into Alta California. A Child's History of Rome John Bonner, 1868 Memoirs from Away Helen M. Buss, 2006-01-01
How does the imagination entwine the shreds of memory of family, place, and culture to root a self in the fluid experience of the present? Daughter, wife, mother, teacher, writer, and feminist academic Helen M. Buss. Margaret Clarke has lived in many parts of Canada and writes from a life of multiple perspectives, full of contradictory loyalties and obligations of opposing histories and identities. For this woman, whose sense of a unified identity is so tenuous that she even writes under two names, writing memoirs becomes the way to bring together the diverse strands of her life. A Newfoundland girl who awakened to the public world just at the moment her homeland joined Canada, she writes of her childhood, the effects of war, technology, the politics of nation and gender, and of the private world of several generations of her close-knit family. From the perspective of a woman from away, she discovers a New Found Land of girlhood that weaves past and present in a narrative that delights in questioning its own making.
