German Cinema David Clarke,2006-06-07 Edited book offering a survey of recent German cinema Aftermath Susan J. Brison,2023-01-03 A powerful personal narrative of recovery and an illuminating philosophical exploration of trauma On July 4 1990 while on a morning walk in southern France Susan Brison was attacked from behind severely beaten sexually assaulted strangled to unconsciousness and left for dead She survived but her world was destroyed Her training as a philosopher could not help her make sense of things and many of her fundamental assumptions about the nature of the self and the world it inhabits were shattered At once a personal narrative of recovery and a philosophical exploration of trauma

this bravely and beautifully written book examines the undoing and remaking of a self in the aftermath of violence It explores from an interdisciplinary perspective memory and truth identity and self autonomy and community It offers imaginative access to the experience of a rape survivor as well as a reflective critique of a society in which women routinely fear and suffer sexual violence As Brison observes trauma disrupts memory severs past from present and incapacitates the ability to envision a future Yet the act of bearing witness she argues facilitates recovery by integrating the experience into the survivor s life s story She also argues for the importance as well as the hazards of using first person narratives in understanding not only trauma but also larger philosophical questions about what we can know and how we should live Violation Richard Matthews, 2008 State torture has found an increasing number of defenders in law philosophy and public policy Their defences often ignore the empirical literature on torture and thus misunderstand its nature and the damage it does as well as accepting the illusory benefits it promises Richard Matthews challenges the increasing acceptability of state sponsored torture interrogation repudiating any possible justifications. He confronts its various supporters ticking time bomb and tragic choice theorists utilitarians legal scholars and draws from philosophy medicine psychiatry survivor and torturer narratives history feminism the experience of working intelligence officials anthropology and game theory to illustrate that no moral justification for torture can be supported The Absolute Violation is essential reading for philosophers lawyers judges human rights activists military police and intelligence officers medical professionals and anyone who is interested in forcefully countering the recent trend towards moral justification of torture Retelling Dostoyevsky Gary Adelman, 2001 It identifies motives particular to each novelist for his creative reuse of Dostoyevsky and explores theoretic approaches to the problem of influence through Mikhail Bakhtin and Harold Bloom Jacket Peril, Perseverance, and Perversion Ryan LaMothe, 2025-02-04 This book explores the varied ways men respond to the precarities of life Using novels and autobiographies LaMothe surveys depictions of masculinities gone awry as well as portrayals of courageous resilient men who find ways to adopt more life enriching forms of relating to other men women and more than human species Life After Leaving Sophie Tamas, 2011-07 Both personal and theoretical autoethnographic and analytical this book offers a performative arts based narrative about the aftermath of abusive marriages using the stories drawings songs of other women to compare with Tamas s own lived experience A Study Guide for Nelly Sachs's "But Perhaps God Needs the Longing" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016 A Study Guide for Nelly Sachs s But Perhaps God Needs the Longing excerpted from Gale s acclaimed Poetry for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Poetry for Students for all of your research needs Trespassing Through Shadows Andrea Liss, 1998 Art historian Andrea Liss examines the inherent difficulties and productive possibilities of using photographs to bear witness initiating a critical dialogue about the ways the post Auschwitz generation has employed these documents to represent Holocaust memory and history 12 color photos 28

Landscape Critical Essays surveys ecopoetry from a global perspective across different historical epochs Its comparative approach foregrounds the importance of ecopoetics within the context of distinct national literatures and cultures to reveal the ubiquitous intersection of poetry with ecocriticism The collection analyzes environmental problems resulting from the legacies of colonialism and focuses on issues of environmental justice and indigenous issues as well as on the intersection of genocide studies and environmentalism It also examines ecologically informed modes of relating to the world In particular it engages with interactions between the human and nonhuman as well as mind and matter Finally it broadens the scope of place to include both the absent land of exiled peoples and the urban built environment The Eagle Unbowed Halik Kochanski, 2012-11-13 World War II gripped Poland as it did no other country Invaded by Germany and the USSR it was occupied from the first day of war to the last and then endured 44 years behind the Iron Curtain while its wartime partners celebrated their freedom The Eagle Unbowed tells for the first time the story of Poland s war in its entirety and complexity
