The Long Shadow: The Legacies of the Great War in the Twentieth Century David Reynolds, 2014-05-12 Winner of the 2014 PEN Hessell Tiltman Prize for the Best Work of History If you only read one book about the First World War in this anniversary year read The Long Shadow David Reynolds writes superbly and his analysis is compelling and original Anne Chisolm Chair of the PEN Hessell Tiltman Prize Committee and Chair of the Royal Society of Literature One of the most violent conflicts in the history of civilization World War I has been strangely forgotten in American culture It has become a ghostly war fought in a haze of memory often seen merely as a distant preamble to World War II In The Long Shadow critically acclaimed historian David Reynolds seeks to broaden our vision by assessing the impact of the Great War across the twentieth century He shows how events in that turbulent century particularly World War II the Cold War and the collapse of Communism shaped and reshaped attitudes to 1914-18 By exploring big themes such as democracy and empire nationalism and capitalism as well as art and poetry The Long Shadow is stunningly broad in its historical perspective Reynolds throws light on the vast expanse of the last century and explains why 1914-18 is a conflict that America is still struggling to comprehend Forging connections between people places and ideas The Long Shadow ventures across the traditional subcultures of historical scholarship to offer a rich and layered examination not only of politics diplomacy and security but also of economics art and literature The result is a

magisterial reinterpretation of the place of the Great War in modern history Infantry ,1992 On the Battlefield of Memory Steven Trout,2010-09-02 This work is a detailed study of how Americans in the 1920s and 1930s interpreted and remembered the First World War Steven Trout asserts that from the beginning American memory of the war was fractured and unsettled more a matter of competing sets of collective memories each set with its own spokespeople than a unified body of myth The members of the American Legion remembered the war as a time of assimilation and national harmony However African Americans and radicalized whites recalled a very different war And so did many of the nation s writers filmmakers and painters Trout studies a wide range of cultural products for their implications concerning the legacy of the war John Dos Passos s novels Three Soldiers and 1919 Willa Cather s One of Ours William March s Company K and Laurence Stallings s Plumes paintings by Harvey Dunn Horace Pippin and John Steuart Curry portrayals of the war in The American Legion Weekly and The American Legion Monthly war memorials and public monuments like the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and commemorative products such as the twelve inch tall Spirit of the American Doughboy statue Trout argues that American memory of World War I was not only confused and contradictory during the 20s and 30s but confused and contradictory in ways that accommodated affirmative interpretations of modern warfare and military service Somewhat in the face of conventional wisdom Trout shows that World War I did not destroy the glamour of war for all or even most Americans and enhanced it for many A Companion to Women's Military History ,2012-08-17 Military institutions have everywhere and always shaped the course of history but women s near universal participation in them has largely gone unnoticed This volume addresses the changing relationships between women and armed forces from antiquity to the present The eight chapters in Part I present broad scholarly reviews of the existing literature to provide a clear understanding of where we stand An extended picture essay documents visually women s military work since the sixteenth century The book s second part comprises eight exemplary articles more narrowly focused than the survey articles but illustrating some of their major themes Military history will benefit from acknowledging women s participation as will women s history from recognizing military institutions as major factors in molding women s lives Contributors include Jorit Wintjes Mary Elizabeth Ailes John A Lynn Barton C Hacker Kimberly Jensen Margaret Vining D Ann M Campbell Carol B Stevens Jan Noel Elizabeth Prelinger Donna Alvah Karen Hagemann Yehudit Kol Inbar Dorotea Gucciardo and Megan Howatt and Judith Hicks Stiehm
