Williams, 2004-11-30 While Kamau Brathwaite is renown for his achievements as a world literary historical and cultural critic his Anglophone Caribbean poetry is the cornerstone of his legacy His critically acclaimed trilogy The Arrivants which is composed of the individual volumes Rights of Passage Masks and Islands is analyzed along with many other poetic works Also discussed within are his innovative and highly original literary techniques which have evolved during over forty years as a poet This book is a collection of selected critical responses to volumes of Brathwaite's poetry written from the 1960s to 2000s Organized by decades it includes book reviews articles essays and personal reflections Also included is a recent interview with Brathwaite conducted by Williams in 2002 In this interview Brathwaite has the opportunity to address his critics as he responds to his work holistically as well as specific volumes of his poetry and stylistic innovations Anyone interested in Brathwaite's poetry will truly enjoy this work The Oxford Encyclopedia of African Thought Abiola Irele, 2010 From St Augustine and early Ethiopian philosophers to the anti colonialist movements of Pan Africanism and Negritude this encyclopedia offers a comprehensive view of African thought covering the intellectual tradition both on the continent in its entirety and throughout the African Diaspora in the Americas and in Europe The term African thought has been interpreted in the broadest sense to embrace all those forms of discourse philosophy political thought religion literature important social movements that contribute to the formulation of a distinctive vision of the world determined by or derived from the African experience The Encyclopedia is a large scale work of 350 entries covering major topics involved in the development of African Thought including historical figures and important social movements producing a collection that is an essential resource for teaching an invaluable companion to independent research and a solid guide for further study Mongrel Nation Ashley Dawson, 2007-07-13 The first cultural history of African Asian and Caribbean immigrants to the United Kingdom from 1948 to The Facts on File Companion to World Poetry R. Victoria Arana, 2008 The Facts On File Companion to World Poetry 1900 to the Present is a comprehensive introduction to 20th and 21st century world poets and their most famous most distinctive and most influential poems Caribbean Literature in English Louis James, 2014-07-30 Caribbean Literature in English places its subject in its precise regional context The Caribbean generally considered as one area is highly discrete in its topography race and languages including mainland Guyana the Atlantic island of Barbados the Lesser Antilles Trinidad and Jamaica whose size and history gave it an early sense of separate nationhood Beginning with Raleigh s Discoverie of Guiana 1596 this innovative study traces the sometimes surprising evolution of cultures which shared a common experience of slavery but were intimately related to individual local areas The approach is interdisciplinary examining the heritage of the plantation era and the issues of language and racial identity it created From this base Louis James reassesses the phenomenal expansion of writing in the contemporary period He traces the influence of pan Caribbean movements and the creation of an expatriate Caribbean identity in Britain and America Brit n is considered as a West Indian island created by colonization in reverse Further sections treat the development of a Caribbean aesthetic and the repossession of cultural roots from Africa and Asia Balancing an awareness of the regional identity of Caribbean literature with an exploration of its place in world and postcolonial literatures this study offers a panoramic view that has become one of the most vital of the new literatures in English This accessible overview of Caribbean writing will appeal to the general reader and student alike and particularly to all who are interested in or studying Caribbean literatures and culture postcolonial studies Commonwealth new literatures and contemporary literature and drama The Routledge Companion to African Diaspora Art History Eddie Chambers, 2024-10-31 This is an authoritative companion that is global in scope recognizing the presence of African Diaspora artists across the world It is a bold and broad reframing of this neglected branch of art history challenging dominant presumptions about the field Diaspora pertains to the global scattering or dispersal of in this instance African peoples as well as their patterns of movement from the mid twentieth century onwards Chapters in this book emphasize the importance of cross fertilization interconnectedness and intersectionality in the framing of African Diaspora art history The book stresses the complexities of artists born within or living and working within the African continent alongside the complexities of Africa born artists who have migrated to other parts of the world The group of international contributors emphasizes and accentuates the interplay between for example Caribbean art and African Diaspora art or Latin American art and African Diaspora art or Black British art and African Diaspora art The book will be of interest to scholars and students working in art history the various branches of African studies African American studies African Diaspora studies Caribbean studies and Latin American studies The Routledge Companion to Anglophone Caribbean Literature Michael A. Bucknor, Alison Donnell, 2011-06-14 This Companion is divided into six sections that provide an introduction to and critical history of the field discussions of key texts and a critical debate on major topics such as the nation race gender and migration In the final section contributors examine the material dissemination of Caribbean literature and point towards the new directions that Caribbean literature and criticism are taking intellectuals in Britain Bill Schwarz, 2013-07-19 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license The first comprehensive discussion of the major Caribbean thinkers who came to Britain Written in an accessible lively style with a range of wonderful and distinguished authors Key book for thinking about the future of multicultural Britain study thus far has concentrated on Caribbean literature and how authors write back to Britain this book is the first to consider how they think back to Britain A book of the moment nothing comparable on the Carribean influence on Britain Discusses the influence amongst others of C L R James Una Marson George Lamming Jean Rhys Claude McKay and V S Naipaul Art in Theory Paul Wood, Leon Wainwright, Charles Harrison, 2021-01-19 A ground breaking new anthology in the Art in Theory series offering an examination of the changing relationships between the West and the wider world in the field of art and material culture Art in Theory The West in the World is a ground breaking anthology that comprehensively examines the relationship of Western art to the art and material culture of the wider world Editors Paul Wood and Leon Wainwright have included 370 texts some of which appear in English for the first time The anthologized texts are presented in eight chronological parts which are then subdivided into key themes appropriate to each historical era The majority of the texts are representations of changing ideas about the cultures of the world by European artists and intellectuals but increasingly as the modern period develops and especially as colonialism is challenged a variety of dissenting voices begin to claim their space and a counter narrative to western hegemony develops Over half the book is devoted to 20th and 21st century materials though the book s unique selling point is the way it relates the modern globalization of art to much longer cultural histories As well as the anthologized material Art in Theory The West in the World contains A general introduction discussing the scope of the collection Introductory essays to each of the eight parts outlining the main themes in their historical contexts Individual introductions to each text explaining how they relate to the wider theoretical and political currents of their time Intended for a wide audience the book is essential reading for students on courses in art and art history It will also be useful to specialists in the field of art history and readers with a general interest in the culture and politics of the modern world Poetic Community Stephen Voyce, 2013-01-01 Poetic Community examines the relationship between poetry and community formation in the decades after the Second World War In four detailed case studies of Black Mountain College in North Carolina the Caribbean Artists Movement in London the Women's Liberation Movement at sites throughout the US and the Toronto Research Group in Canada the book documents and compares a diverse group of social models small press networks and cultural coalitions informing literary practice during the Cold War era Drawing on a wealth of unpublished archival materials Stephen Voyce offers new and insightful comparative analysis of poets such as John Cage Charles Olson Adrienne Rich Kamau Brathwaite and bpNichol In contrast with prevailing critical tendencies that read mid century poetry in terms of expressive modes of individualism Poetic Community demonstrates that the most important literary innovations of the post war period were the results of intensive collaboration and social action opposing the Cold War s ideological enclosures English Literature in Context Paul Poplawski, 2017-05-18 From Anglo Saxon runes to postcolonial rap this undergraduate textbook covers the social and historical contexts of the whole of the English literature Encyclopedia of Latin American and Caribbean Literature, 1900-2003 Daniel Balderston, Mike Gonzalez, 2004 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Latin American and Caribbean Literature 1900 2003 draws together entries on all aspects of literature including authors critics major works magazines genres schools and movements in these regions from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present day With more than 200 entries written by a team of international contributors this Encyclopedia successfully covers the popular to the esoteric The Encyclopedia is an invaluable reference resource for those studying Latin American and or Caribbean literature as well as being of huge interest to those following Spanish or Portuguese language courses Dictionary of African Biography Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong, Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr., 2012-02-02 From the Pharaohs to Fanon Dictionary of African Biography provides a comprehensive overview of the lives of the men and women who shaped Africa's history Unprecedented in scale DAB covers the whole continent from Tunisia to South Africa from Sierra Leone to Somalia It also encompasses the full scope of history from Queen Hatsheput of Egypt 1490 1468 BC and Hannibal the military commander and strategist of Carthage 243 183 BC to Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana 1909 1972 Miriam Makeba and Nelson Mandela of South Africa 1918 Landscapes Stephanie Lewthwaite, 2025-09-30 Scarred Landscapes is a groundbreaking exploration of the rich and complex works of Caribbean Latinx artists Scholar Stephanie Lewthwaite documents the work of ten influential artists of Cuban Dominican and Puerto Rican descent based in New York City from the 1970s to the present Through their diverse practices including painting printmaking photography sculpture installation video and performance art these artists confront the legacies of colonial trauma and their own experiences of diasporic unbelonging and artworld marginality. The book combines formal analysis with artist testimony exhibition histories and theoretical frameworks from trauma memory and archipelagic studies to offer a multifaceted examination of Caribbean Latinx art Lewthwaite explores how these artists practice archipelagic memory a generative decolonial and coalitional form of memory work that envisions alternative modes of belonging in difference and solidarity with others By connecting different people pasts and places Caribbean Latinx artists expose the reverberations of trauma while imagining other worlds beyond it This work puts Caribbean Latinx artists at the center of debates about the exclusions of dominant memory narratives and contemporary art worlds highlighting their contributions to a wider decolonial project of remembrance By revealing the interconnectedness of traumatic histories and the potential for art to foster empathy and justice Lewthwaite's work underscores the importance of relational and decolonial thought for imagining a better society Archaeopoetics Mandy Bloomfield, 2016-05-10 Explores poetry as historical investigation examining works by five contemporary poets whose creations represent new materially emphatic methods of engaging with the past and producing new kinds of historical knowledge Archaeopoetics explores archaeological poetry ground breaking and experimental writing by innovative poets whose work opens up broad new avenues by which contemporary readers may approach the past illuminating the dense web of interconnections often lost in traditional historiography Critic Mandy Bloomfield traces the emergence of a significant historicist orientation in recent poetry exemplified by the work of five writers American poet Susan Howe Korean American artist Theresa Hak Kyung Cha British poet Maggie O Sullivan and diasporic African Caribbean writers Kamau Brathwaite and M NourbeSe Philip Bloomfield sets the work of these five authors within a vigorous tradition including earlier work by Ezra Pound and Walter Benjamin and then shows how these five poets create poems that engender new encounters with pivotal episodes in history such as the English regicide or Korea's traumatized twentieth century Exploring our shared but imperfectly understood history as well as omissions and blind spots in historiography Bloomfield outlines the tension between the irretrievability of effaced historical evidence and the hope that poetry may reconstitute such unrecoverable histories. She posits that this tension is fertile engendering a form of aesthetically enacted epistemological enquiry Fascinating and seminal Archaeopoetics pays special attention to the sensuous materiality of texts and most especially to the visual manifestations of poetry The poems in this volume employ the visual imagery of the word itself or incorporate imagery into the poetry to propose persuasive alternatives to narrative or discursive frameworks of historical knowledge Tempest in the Caribbean Jonathan Goldberg, 2004 Shakespeare's The Tempest has long been claimed by colonials and postcolonial thinkers alike as the dramatic work that most enables them to confront their entangled history recognized as early modernity s most extensive engagement with the vexing issues of colonialism race dispossession language European displacement and occupation disregard for native culture Tempest in the Caribbean reads some of the classic anticolonial texts by Aime Cesaire Roberto Fernandez Retamar George Lamming and Frantz Fanon for instance through the lens of feminist and queer analysis exemplified by the theoretical essays of Sylvia Wynter and the work of Michelle Cliff Extending the Tempest plot Goldberg considers recent works by Caribbean authors and social theorists among them Patricia Powell Jamaica Kincaid and Hilton Als These rewritings he suggests and the lived conditions to which they testify present alternatives to the masculinist and heterosexual bias of the legacy that has been derived from The Tempest By placing gender and sexuality at the center of the debate about the uses of Shakespeare for anticolonial purposes Goldberg s work points to new possibilities that might be articulated through the nexus of race and sexuality Place sexuality at the center of Caribbean responses to Shakespeare s play Die Romische Republik EPUB 2-3,2015-04-22 Provides a comprehensive introduction to 20th and 21st century world poets and their most famous most distinctive and most influential poems
