Art Of Living And Other Stories:

The Art of Dying and Other Stories Githa Hariharan, 1993 Twenty stories of contemporary Indian life by an astonishingly original writer This striking collection of stories demonstrates the remarkable range of one of India's most accomplished writers Sometimes comic yet tinged with sadness as in The Remains of the Feast where an old woman near the end of her life suddenly feels the urge to sample all the food she has been forbidden sometimes with a twist as in Gajar Halwa where Chellamma a servant girl from a small town finally understands what makes a big city work sometimes moving as in The Reprieve and always executed with a precision of style and magical imagery these stories never fail to surprise and delight

The Art of the Future: And Other Stories of Myrcia J.S. Mawdsley, 2023-08-13 These stories are about hopes and dreams and wishes They're about characters realizing they've wanted the wrong things all along They're about characters getting their fondest dream and finding it's not what they expected They're about wishes that can never be fulfilled They're about people who achieve their deepest desires without understanding that it's all slipping away from them We've got Morwyn Byrne beautiful and intelligent daughter of a proud noblewoman who discovers a higher calling There's Molly Coburn running out of money and ready to do anything to change her fortune There's Timothy Woolrich a promising young man who doesn't yet understand how far down the social ladder he is There's Penny Ostensen who only wants to find a school to match her intellect but instead gets a front row seat to her parents' collapsing marriage And there's Lawrence Swithin Earl of Hyrne who's started a relationship with a woman out of his league but she's got plans for him that he never sees coming
