Art Of Longing:

The Art Of Longing Pulovi I Choppy, 2025-07-10 Hello dear readers this poetry book of mine is based on how beautiful can longing be and how interesting that it is also a part of art that life creates Longing an art that we often forget about or maybe ignore it but when we think about it it is beautiful to long for something I hope you will find this book interesting When you go through the poems I hope you will be able to relate with something that you long for I hope my poems bring a smile to your face And I hope it finds you in right time Thank you

The Art of Longing Meliora Spero, 2020-10-25 A short and sweet collection of cautionary poems about the dangers of unrequited love from firsthand experience

The Art of Longing Kaley Lucas, 2017-10-24 A collection of poetry to put the feeling of being homesick for a place you have never known into words There is no perfect way of longing it is an art you create yourself

The Art of Longing Robert A. Neimeyer, 2009-10-03 The Art of Longing represents a creative collaboration between poet and psychologist Robert A. Neimeyer and an international group of artists whose painting collage photography and sculpture resonate with the verse to evoke a deep meditation on the human condition Exploring our connection to the natural world and to one another propitious pairings of poetry and imagery lay bare the irony of yearning for permanent attachment in an impermanent world along with the possibilities for tragedy and occasional transcendence that this implies The result is a scintillating mix of verbal and visual media that spark fresh insight and appreciation of the nuances of loss and grief while hinting at the role of memory and meaning making in sustaining us along the way

Art Music Matthew Del Nevo, 2017-07-28 Listening to music is not merely something one does but something central to a way of living Listening has the power to transport one into another way of being It is a mode of feeling and forms the bedrock of deep emotion Written from the viewpoint of a philosophy of sensibility Matthew Del Nevo notes that this perspective may not be in fashion but it follows a long tradition Del Nevo emphasizes the aesthetic experience of listening to art music as it has developed and disintegrated in Western civilization He recognizes a deep psychological element to what he calls soul or more accurately sensibility He addresses music in a non technical way taking up the powerful art theory of Charles Baudelaire the music philosophy of Schopenhauer and Richard Wagner and takes a strong critical stand against modernist intellectual art music The importance of this book for the musically literate reader is its insight into the metaphysics of nostalgia This comprehension is missing from nearly all musical instruction because we have lost sight of it Del Nevo asserts that this understanding must be brought back into our culture And since this is a book about listening to art music it is no less about sensibility and its cultivation which in its object form we call culture An engaging book Art Music will appeal to those interested in music culture and philosophy

Art of Longing Cooper Edens, 1991-04 Explores the notion that longing is a meaningful and even desirable state of being

The Art of Modernism Sandro Bocola, 1999 A fascinating interdisciplinary study explaining the development of modern art from the 1790s until today

The Art of Longing Emma Stace Darling, 2023-03-07 The Art of Longing is the seventh poetry collection by Emma Stace Darling comes after The Swerve Trapped in Heaven Inappropriate Contrition The Sin of the Siren Jzabagodighee and her successful first collection Girl On Fire which has been widely appraised and is now being set to music as part of a new original contemporary classical performance work This anthology of ongoing observations and musings was set both in the dream world and the reality of XXI century life still with the recurring theme of the sea and the feeling of being on fire both literally and figuratively The Unmaking of Home in Contemporary Art Claudette Lauzon, 2017-04-24 In a world where the notion of home is more traumatizing than it is comforting artists are using this literal and figurative space to reframe human responses to trauma Building on the scholarship of key art historians and theorists such as Judith Butler and Mieke Bal Claudette Lauzon embarks upon a transnational analysis of contemporary artists who challenge the assumption that home is a stable site of belonging Lauzon's boundary breaking discussion of artists including Krzysztof Wodiczko Santiago Sierra Doris Salcedo and Yto Barrada posits that contemporary art offers a unique set of responses to questions of home and belonging in an increasingly unwelcoming world From the legacies of Colombia's dirty war to migrant North African workers crossing the Mediterranean The Unmaking of Home in Contemporary Art bears witness to the suffering of others whose overriding notion of home reveals the universality of human vulnerability and the limits of empathy

The Music in the Ice Stephen Watson, 2012-09-27 In this collection of essays Stephen Watson turns to the writers who have endured for him to the places that have formed him and always to the nature of writing and literature itself The range is remarkable he moves from Leonard Cohen to Dante from Albert Camus to Allen Ginsberg not excepting Czeslaw Milosz and T S Eliot Closer to home there are essays on Robben Island and the meaning of the Cedarberg More personally movingly a final section of the book returns to the site of a love affair the birth of a daughter and what it is that defines his native city Cape Town Whatever Watson touches on he gives substance to the line from Pasternak that provides this collection with its title the music in the ice In Watson's hands the essay form itself becomes an instance of that music Here is a book that demonstrates again why Justin Cartwright has called Stephen Watson South Africa's foremost essayist The Tears of Things Peter Schwenger, 2006 We surround ourselves with material things that are invested with memories but can only stand for what we have lost Physical objects such as one's own body situate and define us yet at the same time they are fundamentally indifferent to us The melancholy of this rift is a rich source of inspiration for artists Peter Schwenger deftly weaves together philosophical and psychoanalytical theory with artistic practice Concerned in part with the act of collecting The Tears of Things is itself a collection of exemplary art objects literary and cultural attempts to control and possess things including paintings by Georgia O'Keeffe and Ren Magritte sculpture by Louise Bourgeois and Marcel Duchamp Joseph Cornell's boxes Edward Gorey's graphic art fiction by Virginia Woolf Georges Perec and Louise Erdrich the hallucinatory encyclopedias of Jorge Luis Borges and Luigi Serafini and the corpse photographs of Joel Peter Witkin However these representations of objects perpetually fall short of our aspirations Schwenger examines what is left over debris and waste and asks what art can make of these What emerges is not an art that reassembles but one that questions what it means to assemble in the first place Contained in this catalog of waste is that ultimate still life the cadaver where the subject object dichotomy receives its final ironic reconciliation Peter Schwenger is professor of English at Mount St Vincent University in Halifax Nova Scotia He is the author of Fantasm and Fiction On Textual Envisioning Letter Bomb Nuclear Holocaust and the Exploding Word and Phallic Critiques Masculinity and Twentieth Century Literature Desiring China Lisa

Nine Chains to the Moon R. Buckminster Fuller, 2000-01-01 The title derives from a statistical cartoon If all of the people of the world were to stand upon one another's shoulders they would make nine complete chains between the earth and the moon If it is not so far to the moon then it is not so far to the limits whatever whenever or wherever they may be This is Fuller's first book and one of the few he wrote as a book and not as a composite of articles transcripts or letters Many of his original and lifelong metaphors and strategies were introduced in this volume A projected final chapter From Bibble to Bible to Babble was rejected by the publishers because its concrete poetry format was deemed too radical for inclusion in a trade book The end papers anticipate the Dymaxion airocean world map There are five appendices documenting Fuller's virtuosity in large patterns 1 on the chronology of scientific events from the ancient world to 1936 2 coincidence of U S population centers with isotherm of 32 F 3 U S to become world's greatest exporter 4 world copper production and consumption and 5 growth of U S industry correlated with inventions Description by Ed Applewhite courtesy of The Estate of Buckminster Fuller
