Rockefeller Vision: Arts of Africa, Oceania, and the Americas Alisa LaGamma, Joanne Pillsbury, Eric Kjellgren, Yaëlle Biro, 2014-08-01 This Bulletin and the exhibition it accompanies The Nelson A Rockefeller Vision In Pursuit of the Best in Arts of Africa Oceania and the Americas reflect on an extraordinary act of philanthropy that was also a catalyst for momentous change in the art world In establishing the Museum of Primitive Art MPA in 1956 the precursor to what is today the Department of the Arts of Africa Oceania and the Americas AAOA at the Metropolitan Museum Nelson Rockefeller was a true pioneer assembling what remains the greatest collection of fine art from these disparate fields Perhaps even more important than this singular achievement however was Rockefeller's long campaign to place his collection at the Metropolitan Museum as a gift to the city and to the world which he finally achieved in 1969 after nearly forty years of effort Rockefeller's gift carried the unequivocal message that artists from Africa Oceania and the Americas are equal in every respect to those of their peers across the globe and throughout history Yet until that time there was famously skepticism in the Western art world on this point as well as resistance from earlier generations of Metropolitan directors in viewing non Western art as part of the institution's mission. Relying on his formidable powers of persuasion, Rockefeller eventually brokered an agreement to transfer the collections staff and library of the MPA to the Metropolitan, an astounding triumph that fundamentally changed the character of the museum, making the collections truly encyclopedic. Hispanic & Latino Heritage in Virginia Christine Stoddard, 2016. Long before the adventures of John Rolfe and Pocahontas, Spanish ships reached Virginia's shore. In the centuries that followed, Hispanics and Latinos settled in Virginia to seek new opportunities away from home. The 1980s saw the beginnings of el Nuevo Sur or the New South as Virginia's Latin American population surged. Since then, the now defunct Virginia Center for Latin American Art briefly showcased Virginia's Latino and Hispanic evolving arts heritage. Restaurants like Pollo Campero and La Tasca have joined the local culinary scene, and schools and churches have forged plans for their changing communities. Join author Christine Stoddard as she traces the vibrant history and culture of Hispanics and Latinos in Virginia.

The Metropolis in Latin America, 1830-1930 Idurre Alonso, Maristella Casciato, 2021-08-17. This volume examines the unprecedented growth of several cities in Latin America from 1830 to 1930, observing how sociopolitical changes and upheavals created the conditions for the birth of the metropolis. In the century between 1830 and 1930, following independence from Spain and Portugal, major cities in Latin America experienced large-scale growth with the development of a new urban bourgeois elite interested in projects of modernization and rapid industrialization. At the same time, the lower classes were eradicated from old city districts and deported to the outskirts. The Metropolis in Latin America, 1830-1930 surveys this expansion, focusing on six capital cities: Havana, Mexico City, Rio de Janeiro, Buenos Aires, Santiago de Chile, and Lima, as it examines sociopolitical histories, town planning, art, and architecture, photography, and film in relation to the metropolis. Drawing from the Getty Research Institute's vast collection of books, prints, and photographs from this period, largely unpublished until now, this volume reveals the city's changes through urban panoramas, plans depicting new neighborhoods, and photographs of novel transportation systems, public amenities, civic spaces, and more. It illustrates the transformation of colonial cities into the monumental, modern metropolises that by the end of the 1920s provided fertile ground for the emergence of today's Latin American megapolises.
