the focus here is on the commonalities in the aesthetic that make an Ibo recognize a Kikuyu and a Jamaican recognize a Chewa and an African American recognize a Sotho The deep structure manifest in African cultures in the diaspora is proof of the aesthetic continuity The debate continues over the exact nature of African aesthetics and in this volume scholars and teachers in the fields of African and African American studies approach the subject from a broad range of disciplines Dance music art theatre and literature are examined in order fully to appreciate and delineate what the specific qualities and aspects of an African aesthetic might be Additionally theoretical concepts and issues are discussed in order to define more clearly what is meant by an African aesthetic The term African here applies to all Africans both continental and diasporan and encompasses historically used terms such as Negro Black and Afro American This thoughtful and thought provoking volume will be a valuable addition to the readings of scholars and students in fields ranging from African studies to general philosophy and cultural studies Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004
