Corbin, 2011-12 Art rocks Yet art isn't just about finding the perfect place in your home for that great painting or sculpture Art is a thrilling all consuming drop dead joyride and it exists for the everyday person Picking up where his multi award winning memoir The Art of Everyday Joe A Collector's Journal leaves off join collector and author Michael K Corbin in Art For The People A Collector's Journal the third installment of his unique series It's a heartbreaking hilarious and meandering trip through the world of contemporary art and life Corbin shows us that art shouldn't be merely beautiful but it's also about social movement and political engagement Art is the language of cities nations and world culture Dozens of full color illustrations from Corbin's own collection and beyond are included Buckle up for another breathless spectacular journey Art in Cornwall Michael Bird, 2012 A lively and authoritative introduction to the history of art in Cornwall from Turner to the present day Themes include Cornwall in the Romantic vision of landscape the Victorian development of mythical Cornwall as a tourist destination the search for rustic authenticity and the early art colonies in Newlyn and St Ives Cornwall's Critical Issues in Public Art Harriet Senie, 2014-07-15 In this groundbreaking anthology twenty two artists architects historians critics curators and philosophers explore the role of public art in creating a national identity contending that each work can only be understood by analyzing the context in which it is commissioned built and received They emphasize the historical continuum between traditional works such as Mount Rushmore the Washington Monument and the New York Public Library lions in addition to contemporary memorials such as the Vietnam Veterans Memorial and the Names Project AIDS Quilt They discuss the influence of patronage on form and content isolate the factors that precipitate controversy and show how public art overtly and covertly conveys civic values and national culture Complete with an updated introduction Critical Issues in Public Art shows how monuments murals memorials and sculptures in public places are complex cultural achievements that must speak to increasingly diverse groups Art on the Beach Marco Papazzoni, 2000 A collection of most beautiful images from the bathing stations on the Italian Romagna coast line The creative tapestry of color which makes this the most famous seaside holiday resort in Europe Modernism at the Beach

Hannah Freed-Thall, 2023-03-07 Winner 2024 MSA Book Prize Modernist Studies Association At the beach bodies converge with the elements and strange treasures come to light Departing from the conventional association of modernism with the city this book makes a case for the coastal zone as a surprisingly generative setting for twentieth century literature and art An unruly and elusive confluence of human and more than human forces the seashore is also a space of performance a stage for loosely scripted improvisatory forms of embodiment and togetherness The beach Hannah Freed Thall argues was to the modernist imagination what mountains were to Romanticism a space not merely of anthropogenic conquest but of vital elemental and creaturely connection With an eye to the peripheries of capitalist leisure Freed Thall recasts familiar seaside practices including tide pooling beachcombing gambling and sunbathing as radical experiments in perception and sociability Close readings of works by Marcel Proust Virginia Woolf Claude McKay Samuel Beckett Rachel Carson and Gordon Matta Clark among others explore the modernist beach as a queer refuge a precarious commons a scene of collective exhaustion and endurance and a visionary threshold at the end of the world Interweaving environmental humanities queer and feminist theory and cultural history Modernism at the Beach offers new ways of understanding twentieth century literature and its relation to ecological thought
