Thomas Nast, Political Cartoonist John Chalmers Vinson, 2014-04-01 If it is true that the pen is mightier than the sword and that one picture is worth a thousand words Thomas Nast must certainly rank as one of the most influential personalities in nineteenth century American history His pen dipped in satire aroused an apathetic disinterested and uninformed public to indignation and action more than once The most notable Nast campaign and probably the one best recorded today was directed against New York City's Tammany Hall and its boss William Marcy Tweed Boss Tweed and his ring so feared the power of Nast and his drawings that they once offered him a bribe of 500 000 Six presidents of the United States received and gratefully accepted Nast's support during their candidacies and administrations Two of these Abraham Lincoln and Ulysses Grant credited Nast with more than mere support During the Civil War Lincoln called Nast his best recruiting sergeant and after the war Grant then a general wrote that Nast had done as much as any one man to preserve the Union and bring the war to an end Throughout his career the cartoonist remained an ardent champion of Grant who after his election in 1868 attributed his victory to the sword of Sheridan and the pencil of Thomas Nast Nast's work is still familiar today It was Nast who popularized the modern concepts of Santa Claus and Uncle Sam and who created such symbols as the Democratic donkey the Republican elephant and the Tammany tiger With more than 150 examples of Nast's work Thomas Nast Political Cartoonist recreates the life and pattern of artistic development of the man who made the political cartoon a respected and powerful journalistic form

Popular Modernisms Bruce A. Barber, 2024-07-26 Popular Modernisms examines a process that has occurred throughout the history of art one that accelerated with the social effects of the industrial revolution the development of capitalism and the inception of modern social relations It argues that the shocks of modernist art encouraged the production of visual satires parodies ironies and pastiches and that in the company of other forms of text or performance based criticism these were the means by which those in marginal or subordinate social positions could exercise their displeasure and opposition to the ruling ideas and dominant classes of the day Expressing feelings ranging from mild discomfort to pure rage this criticism enabled social subordinates to contest or resist the dominance of high culture over low in terms eloquently described by Antonio Gramsci as the hegemony of the dominant centre culture over its margins The focus upon graphic satires cartoons and comics of modern art attempts to provide some practical explication of the symbolic contest of power as this process represents the struggle to achieve and maintain cultural hegemony A further aim in this book is to investigate the symbolic contestation of cultural meanings in social terms and thereby enrich our understanding of classed society There are I believe many social and political confluences that intersect within the symbolic construction and interpretation of culture This contest of power can be read as ideological conflict between various dominant and subordinate groups classes and class

Commercial Art and Cartooning Eric Christian Matthews, 1925

A Modern Miscellany Paul Bevan, 2015-11-02 In A Modern Miscellany Shanghai Cartoon Artists Shao Xunmei's Circle and the Travels of Jack Chen 1926

1938 Paul Bevan explores how the cartoon manhua emerged from its place in the Chinese modern art world to become a propaganda tool in the hands of left wing artists. The artists involved in what was largely a transcultural phenomenon were an eclectic group working in the areas of fashion and commercial art and design. The book demonstrates that during the build up to all out war the cartoon was not only important in the sphere of Shanghai popular culture in the eyes of the publishers and readers of pictorial magazines but that it occupied a central place in the primary discourse of Chinese modern art history.
