Source Book of American Architecture G.E. Kidder Smith,2000-09 This comprehensive and insightful illustrated survey of 500 of America s most distinguished buildings provides a unique overview of the thousand year architectural development of the United States It examines our nation s architecture from its earliest days to the present ranging from cliff dwellings in Mesa Verde to Frank Lloyd Wright s Robie House in Chicago to James Ingo Freed s Holocaust Museum in Washington Indispensable in any library it also serves as a general introduction to American architecture or as a splendid guide for tourists

Sources and Methods in Histories of Colonialism Kirsty Reid,Fiona Paisley,2017-03-27 This book facilitates a deeper understanding of the challenges of working with a range of specific source genres within imperial and colonial archives Drawing material from a range of modern empires from the late 18th century to the present day chapters consider the ways in which newer ways of thinking about the past have challenged more traditional views of the archive provoking questions about what archives are and where their conceptual geographical and chronological boundaries lie Examining a wide selection of source material including government papers censuses petitions and case files this book will be essential reading for students of imperial and colonial history

The Routledge Companion to Art Deco Bridget Elliott,Michael Windover,2019-06-25 Scholarly interest in Art Deco has grown rapidly over the past fifty years spanning different academic disciplines This volume provides a guide to the current state of the field of Art Deco research by highlighting past accomplishments and promising new directions Chapters are presented in five sections based on key concepts migration public culture fashion politics and Art Deco s afterlife in heritage restoration and new media The book provides a range of perspectives on and approaches to these issues as well as to the concept of Art Deco itself It highlights the slipperiness of Art Deco yet points to its potential to shed new light on the complexities of modernity

Art Deco and Modernist Carpets Susan Day,2002-10 In 1927 the critic Rene Chavance identified carpet production as the most successful of the decorative arts in achieving the more visionary aims of the times Susan Day s book a work of original scholarship accompanied throughout by illustrations both of the carpets themselves and of contemporary interiors demonstrates that these Art Deco carpets have lost none of their decorative power A significant number of the carpets are shown precisely as they were meant to be seen within the rooms for which they were made The fruits of the remarkable Art Deco efflorescence throughout Europe form the first part of the book In the second the focus turns to the reaction against the artistes decorateurs by the champions of modernism In France the designs of Sonia Delaunay Eileen Gray and Jean Lurcat evoked collage and Cubism the Bauhaus and Scandinavia provided different influences The fashion for abstract and modernist rugs was further stimulated by limited editions of rugs woven from works by such artists as Picasso Klee and Miro while in the USA designers developed a style that was distinctly American This visual feast of appeal not only to carpet collectors and textile specialists but to anyone with an interest in 20th century design ranges from the supremely imaginative achievements of Paul Poiret s unique weaving studio the Ecole Martine to the Scandinavian folk traditions of Marta Maas Fjetterstrom the innovations of Frank Lloyd Wright and Donald Deskey in the USA and Gunta Stolzl s handwoven carpets in Germany The book s invaluable reference section includes detailed information on artists manufacturers and retailers their signatures and monograms and a glossary and bibliography Book Jacket

Books, Buildings and Social Engineering Alistair Black, Simon Pepper, Kaye Bagshaw, 2017-05-15 Public libraries have strangely never been the subject of an extensive design history Consequently this important and comprehensive book represents a ground breaking socio architectural study of pre 1939 public library buildings A surprisingly high proportion of these urban civic buildings remain intact and present an increasingly difficult architectural problem for many communities The book thus includes a study of what is happening to these historic libraries now and proposes that knowledge of their origins and early development can help build an understanding of how best to handle their future Guide to Basic Information Sources in the Visual Arts Gerd Muehsam,1978 How to get information about artists How to research a work of art Primary sources Reference sources and resources Art histories and introductions Periodicals Prehistoric art Ancient art Medieval art The renaissance and mannerism Baroque and Rococo Modern art Architecture Sculpture Painting techniques Drawing Prints Photography Commercial art The Americas Europe Oriental art Primitive art tribal art Methodologies and Technologies for Networked Enterprises Giuseppe Anastasi,Emilio Bellini,Di Nitto Elisabetta,Carlo Ghezzi,Letizia Tanca,Eugenio Zimeo,2012-07-30 The need for flexibility and globalization forces enterprises to decentralize their activities and continuously re structure their networks of relationships regarding both their productive supply chains and their design and innovation processes The goal of the ArtDeco project funded by the Italian Ministry of Education and Scientific Research under the FIRB program funding for basic research has been to address these issues by proposing solutions from three main perspectives the organizational perspective aimed at studying how companies work in a network and how their design processes can benefit from collaboration with other companies the informational perspective focusing on how to acquire relevant knowledge from unstructured information and processes and on how to organize and manage such knowledge and the infrastructural perspective focusing on understanding how self adaptive workflows and software systems can help in supporting the dynamic interconnection of enterprises The book contains a collection of papers offering an overview of the main results produced by the ArtDeco project It has been structured into the following four main parts organizational issues methodologies empirical contexts and policies software methodologies and technologies knowledge elicitation and management and management of peripheral devices It also includes a case study used throughout the book as a reference example
