This broad title of novel sustainable alternatives can be split into three subtopics: novel raw material alternatives, novel process alternative, and novel alternative approaches. This volume is dedicated to dealing with novel sustainable raw material alternatives for the textiles and fashion industry.

Science and Civilisation in China, Part 9, Textile Technology: Spinning and Reeling Joseph Needham, Dieter Kuhn, 1988-06-09 This study, the first of two parts, gives a comprehensive account of Chinese textiles and textile technology and deals with the evolution of bast fibre spinning and silk reeling in the history of China. These operations are the basic techniques in the production of yarn and thread, pre-requisite to weaving, and any study of Chinese textile technology must start with the raw material obtained from fibre plants such as hemp, ramie, jute, cotton, etc. and silk reeled off from cocoons of the domestic silkworm. The time span covered runs from the Neolithic to the nineteenth century. Archaeological and pictorial evidence, the bulk of it hitherto unpublished in the West, is brought together with Chinese textual sources which are extensively translated and interpreted to illustrate Chinese achievements in this field. Professor Kuhn's study reveals the way in which Chinese textile technological inventiveness has influenced textile production in other regions of the world and in medieval Europe. It explains how textile technology reached its high point between the tenth and thirteenth centuries and attempts to indicate the reasons for its subsequent relative decline. The development of the textile industry in Europe was a key factor in the rise of capitalism. In the case of China, after Sung times, textile technology and the organisation of textile labour may help indicate why such a development did not take place in China.

French Art Deco Jared Goss, 2014-09-30 Art Deco: the term conjures up jewels by Van Cleef such as Cubism and Fauvism and a taste for the exotic, all of which converged in exceptionally luxurious and innovative objects. While the practice of Art Deco ended with the Second World War, interest in it has not only endured to the present day but has grown steadily. Based on the Metropolitan Museum's renowned collection, French Art Deco presents more than eighty masterpieces by forty-two designers. Examples include Serravallo's furniture from the 1925 Exposition, Dufy's Cubist-inspired textiles, Dunand's lacquered bedroom suite, Dupas's monumental glass wall panels from the SS Normandie, and Fouquet's spectacular dress ornament in the shape of a Chinese mask. Jared Goss's engaging text includes a discussion of each object together with a biography of the designer who created it and is enlivened by generous quotations from writings of the period. The extensive introduction provides historical context and explores the origins and aesthetic of Art Deco. With its rich text and sumptuous photographs, this is not only one of the rare books on French Art Deco in English but an object d'art in its own right.

Primitivism and Twentieth-century Art Jack D. Flam, Miriam Deutch, 2003 This is a much needed important collection a goldmine of sources for scholars and students The texts articulate the key Primitivist aesthetic discourses of the period offering crucial insight into the complex and always changing nexus between culture politics and representation Because of the breadth of the materials covered and the controversies they raise this anthology is one of the all too rare volumes that not only will provide reference materials for years to come but also will feature centrally in classroom discussions Suzanne Preston Blier author of African Vodun Art Psychology and Power For almost a century art historians have fretted about the notion of primitivism in the arts This comprehensive in both senses of the word anthology is a peerless source of the history of responses to works categorized as primitive In its range the book touches upon all the troubling questions formal anthropological political historical that have bedeviled the study of the arts of Oceania Africa and North and South America and provides the grounds at last for intelligent pursuit of keener distinctions I regard this book as a superb contribution to the study of Modern art in fact indispensable Dore Ashton author of Noguchi East and West An extraordinarily useful and complete collection of primary documents many translated for the first time into English and almost all unlikely to be encountered elsewhere without serious effort Its five sections each with a lively and scholarly introduction reveal the diverse views of artists and writers on primitive art from Matisse Picasso and Fry to many far less known and sometimes surprising figures The book also uncovers the politics and aesthetics of the major museum exhibitions that gained acceptance for art that had been both reviled and mythologized Recent texts included are all germane This book will be invaluable for any college course on the topic Shelly Errington author of The Death of Authentic Primitive Art and Other Tales of Progress An exceptionally valuable anthology of seventy documents most heretofore unavailable in English on the ongoing controversies surrounding Primitivism and Modern art Insightfully chosen and annotated the collection is brilliantly introduced by Jack Flam s essay on the historical progression contexts and cultural complexities of more than one hundred years ideas about Primitivism Rich timely illuminating Herbert M Cole author of Icons Ideals and Power in the Art of Africa Documentation of Nordic Art / Documentation de l'art des pays nordiques Charlotte Hanner, 2013-02-07 The International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions IFLA is the leading international body representing the interests of library and information services and their users It is the global voice of the information profession The series IFLA Publications deals with many of the means through which libraries information centres and information professionals worldwide can formulate their goals exert their influence as a group protect their interests and find solutions to global problems Iconic Costumes Ulla Mannering, 2016-11-30 This richly illustrated book presents a selection of the rich and varied iconographic material from the Scandinavian Late Iron Age AD 400 1050 depicting clothed human figures from an archaeological textile and clothing perspective The source material consists of five object categories gold foils gold bracteates helmet plaques jewelry and textile tapestries and comprises over 1000 different images of male and female costumes which are then systematically examined in conjunction with our present knowledge of archaeological textiles. In particular, the study explores the question of whether the selected images complement the archaeological clothing sources through a new analytical tool which enables us to compare and contrast the object categories in regard to material, function, chronology, context, and interpretation. The tool is used to record and analyze the numerous details of the iconographic costumes and to facilitate a clear and easy description. This deliberate use of explicit costume shapes enhances our interpretation and understanding of the Late Iron Age clothing tradition. Thus, the majority of the costumes depicted are identified in the Scandinavian archaeological textile record, demonstrating that the depictions are a reliable source of research for both iconographical costume and archaeological clothing. The book contributes with new information on social, regional, and chronological differences in clothing traditions from ca AD 400 to the Viking Age.
