Marshall, 2017-07-05 Sculpture and the Museum is the first in depth examination of the varying roles and meanings assigned to sculpture in museums and galleries during the modern period from neo classical to contemporary art practice It considers a rich array of curatorial strategies and settings in order to examine the many reasons why sculpture has enjoyed a position of such considerable importance and complexity within the institutional framework of the museum and how changes to the museum have altered in turn the ways that we perceive the sculpture within it In particular the contributors consider the complex issue of how best to display sculpture across different periods and according to varying curatorial philosophies Sculptors discussed include Canova Rodin Henry Moore Flaxman and contemporary artists such as Rebecca Horn Rachel Whiteread Mark Dion and Olafur Eliasson with a variety of museums in America Canada and Europe presented as case studies Underlying all of these discussions is a concern to chart the critical importance of the acquisition placement and display of sculpture in museums and to explore the importance of sculptures as a forum for the expression of programmatic statements of power prestige and the museum s own sense of itself in relation to its audiences and its broader institutional aspirations

Italian Forgers Carol Helstosky, 2024-05-15 Italian Forgers takes an unorthodox approach to the fascinating topic of art forgery focusing not on art forgery per se but on the major forgery scandals that shifted the Italian art market in response to constant and often intense demand for Italian objects By focusing on power dynamics that both precipitated forgery scandals and forged Italian cultural identities this book connects the debates and discussions about three well known Italian forgers Giovanni Bastianini Icilio Joni and Alceo Dossena to anchor and investigate the mechanics of the Italian art market from unification through the fascist era Carol Helstosky examines foreign accounts of transactions and Italian writings about the art market The actions and words of Italian dealers illustrate how the Italian art and antiquities market was an undeniably modern industry on par with tourism in terms of its contribution to the Italian economy and to understandings of Italian identity These accounts also reveal how dealers artists go between guides and restorers worked to not only meet the intense demand for Italian products but also to develop highly sophisticated business practices to maintain financial stability and respond to shifts in demand consciously but not always conscientiously Italian Forgers weaves a compelling narrative about the history of Italian identity forgery and the value of the past As a result Helstosky brings historical perspective to the study of art forgery and art fraud She reveals how historical circumstances and structural imbalances of cultural power shaped the market for art and antiquities and amplified incidents of art deception and forgery scandals
