

The background of the book cover is a painting. It depicts a wide, flat landscape under a vast, hazy sky. The sky transitions from a deep blue at the top to a pale, dusty blue and then to a soft, hazy pinkish-brown near the horizon. The ground is a flat, golden-brown color, suggesting a desert or a dry, open plain. In the far distance, there are faint, low mountains or hills. The overall mood is one of vastness and solitude.

Space and Time in Artistic Practice and Aesthetics Sarah Lippert, 2024-08-22 When the Enlightenment thinker Gotthold Ephraim Lessing wrote his treatise Laocoon An Essay on the Limits of Painting and Poetry in 1766 he outlined the strengths and weaknesses of each art Painting was assigned to the realm of space poetry to the realm of time Space and Time in Artistic Practice and Aesthetics explores how artists since the eighteenth century up to the present day have grappled with the consequences of Lessing's theory and those that it spawned As the book reveals many artists have been and continue to be influenced by Lessing like theories which have percolated into the art education and art criticism Artists from Jean Raoux to Willem de Kooning and Frances Bacon and art critics such as Clement Greenberg have felt the weight of Lessing's theories in their modes of creation whether consciously or not Should we sound the death knell for the theories of Lessing and his kind Or will conceptions of temporality spatiality and artistic competition continue to unfold This book the first to consider how Lessing's writings connect to visual art's production brings these questions to the fore Ilya Kabakov Il'ia Iosifovich Kabakov, Matthias Haldemann, 2010 The book has always played a pivotal role in the work of Ilya Kabakov Initially successful as an illustrator of children's books in the Soviet Union the book was the impetus for his visual artistic activity The book has remained Kabakov's constant companion On the one hand it is used to present new projects On the other it is the medium used to document these projects once they have been realised The book accompanies Kabakov's visual work but that is not its only purpose it has always also been crucial in terms of the visual art itself As always with Kabakov there is no distinction between artistic practice and discourse This applies also to this catalogue raisonné which turns out to be a paradoxical construction it is both an academic work and an artist's book English and German text Annual
