Reframing Modernism: Painting from Southeast Asia, Europe and Beyond Low Sze Wee,Horikawa Lisa,Phoebe Scott,2016-03-31 What is modernism in Southeast Asia What is modern art as embodied in the paintings of Southeast Asia These questions and more are answered in Reframing Modernism Painting from Southeast Asia Europe and Beyond published in conjunction with the exhibition of the same name Featuring 217 works in full colour by 51 Southeast Asian and European artists from the Centre Pompidou and National Gallery Singapore as well as other Southeast Asian collections in the region and beyond this catalogue tells the compelling story of modernism as it developed across continents and reveals artists powerful and sometimes surprising responses to modernity A Regional Contemporary C. be understood without locating it in the context of the larger framework of Indonesian society and culture and the whole force of history. The essays in this book accept Yuliman's challenge to analyse the intellectual sociopolitical and historical landscape that Indonesia's artists inhabited from the 1930s into the first decades of the new millennium including their responses to the COVID 19 pandemic. The inclusion of one of Yuliman's most influential essays translated into English for the first time offers those outside Indonesia an insight into a formative period in the generation of new art knowledge in Indonesia. The volume also features essays by T. K. Sabapathy, Jim Supangkat, Alia Swastika, Wulan Dirgantoro and FX Harsono as well as the three editors Elly Kent, Virginia Hooker and Caroline Turner. The book's contributors present recent research on issues rarely addressed in English language texts on Indonesian art including the inspirations and achievements of women artists despite social and political barriers, Islam inspired art, artistic ideologies, the intergenerational effects of trauma and the impacts of geopolitical change and global art worlds that emerged in the 1990s. The Epilogue introduces speculations from contemporary practitioners on what the future might hold for artists in Indonesia. Extensively illustrated, Living Art contributes to the acknowledgement and analysis of the diversity of Indonesia's contemporary art and offers new insights into Indonesian art history as well as the contemporary art histories of Southeast Asia and Asia more generally.

Race and Multiculturalism in Malaysia and Singapore Daniel P.S. Goh, Matilda Gabrielpillai, Philip Holden, Gaik Cheng Khoo, 2009-06-12. This book explores race and multiculturalism in Malaysia and Singapore from a range of different disciplinary perspectives showing how race and multiculturalism are represented, how multiculturalism works out in practice and how attitudes towards race and multiculturalism and multicultural practices have developed over time. Going beyond existing studies which concentrate on the politics and public aspects of multiculturalism, this book burrows deeper into the cultural underpinnings of multicultural politics relating the subject to the theoretical angles of cultural studies and post colonial theory and discussing a range of empirical examples drawn from extensive original research covering diverse practices such as films, weblogs, music, subcultures, art policy, discourse, textbooks, novels, poetry which demonstrate overall how the identity politics of race and intercultural interaction are being shaped today. It concentrates on two key Asian countries particularly noted for their relatively successful record in managing ethnic differences at a time when many fast developing Asian countries increasingly have to come to terms with cultural pluralism and migrant diversity.
