Library,1960 The Art of Teaching Art Deborah A. Rockman,2000-11-09 Often the finest artists do not make the best teachers Many frustrated college students of art know this all too well as they suffer through unstructured classes with inexperienced teachers or graduate student instructors In these situations it is easy to blame the teachers But the problem is largely institutional most students graduating with MFAs from art schools receive little if any instruction in teaching art If you find yourself in this predicament as teacher or student this book is for you The first book to provide a comprehensive guide for teaching college level art The Art of Teaching Art is the culmination of respected artist and instructor Deborah Rockman's two decades of teaching experience Believing that drawing is the backbone of all of the visual arts she begins with a complete explanation of drawing concepts that apply to any subject matter e.g composition sighting processes scaling techniques and methods for linear and tonal development She then illustrates these concepts with step by step methods that easily translate to classroom exercises Next she applies the drawing principles to every artist's most important and challenging subject the human figure After an extended section on understanding and teaching perspective that explores illusionistic form and space the focus of the book shifts to the studio classroom itself and the essential elements that go into making an effective learning environment and curriculum From preparing materials lists and syllabi to setting up still lifes handling difficult classroom situations critiquing and grading student artworks and shooting slides of student artworks she leaves no stone unturned Library Catalog of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.). Library,1960 Chinese Modern Design Thinking Cao Xiao'ou,2024-10-29 This book studies the development of modern and contemporary design art in China since 1978 Starting with the design enlightenment and closely following the evolution of the visual and material forms in three levels of individual group and country since the reform and opening up the book comprehensively and meticulously describes and analyzes the social particularity of the changes of Chinese design art in this period and makes corresponding evaluations on its success and failure The author believes that Chinese modern design thinking has arisen from the problems displayed in the phenomena and events of Chinese modern design Therefore with nine chapters organized in chronological order and unfolded layer by layer by focusing on the relevant topics of design thinking the book has sorted out the academic contentions important events phenomena details of Chinese design in this period by placing design in the background of great history and has searched discovered and summarized the key problems of Chinese design in each stage and analyzed the causes and consequences and has specially studied on the gains and losses of important phenomena and theoretical problems and correspondingly made theoretical comments Therefore it is a book comprehensively presenting the overall look of the development of Chinese modern design thinking history This book has a grand structure and detailed content The author and her research objects always coexist in the same context and the writing style is fresh the argument is reasonable and the pictures and texts complement each other so the book has both academic depth and readability
