Bailey, 2009 The Walter and Leonore Annenberg Collection of Impressionist and Post Impressionist paintings watercolors and drawings constitutes one of the most remarkable groupings of avant garde works of art from the mid 19th to the early 20th century ever given to The Metropolitan Museum of Art A revised and expanded edition of the 1989 publication Masterpieces of Impressionism and Post Impressionism The Annenberg Collection this volume presents more than fifty masterworks by such luminaries as Manet Degas Morisot Renoir Monet Cezanne Gauguin Van Gogh Picasso and Matisse accompanied by elucidating texts and a wealth of comparative illustrations From publisher Cézanne to Van Gogh Anne Distel, Susan Alyson Stein, Grand Palais (Paris, France), Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Van Gogh Museum, Amsterdam, 1999 The fascinating story of Dr Paul Gachet's collection of works of art by artists such as Cezanne Van Gogh and Monet Van Gogh in Arles Vincent van Gogh, Ronald Pickvance, 1984 A collection of paintings and drawings produced by Vincent van Gogh while living in the South of France is accompanied by discussions of this period of his life and work GoogleBooks Vincent Van Gogh Adam G. Klein, 2006-08-15 Dutch Postimpressionist Vincent van Gogh became famous for his use of color distinctive brushstrokes and thick paint in his paintings of peasant life nature scenes landscapes and self portraits This biography discusses Van Gogh's childhood education missionary work early struggles with perspective and proportion influence of artists Camille Corot and Jean Francois Millet introduction to oil painting support from his brother Theo time in Arles with artist Paul Gauguin influence of Japanese prints and travels through Belgium England and France Sidebars a glossary an index and a phonetics section accompany easy to read text and full color reproductions of Van Gogh's artwork including Portrait of the Artist Without His Beard Vincent's Bedroom in Arles The Potato Eaters Starry Night and The Red Vineyard Vincent's Vision Vincent Van Gogh, 2020-02-23 In Vincent van Gogh's art career the five year span from 1886 1890 marked the high point and end point providing unparalleled paintings from a troubled genius It was to be an age of post Impressionistic color form and wonderment that the art world discovered only after the master's death Along with other Post Impressionists such as Gauguin Cezanne and Seurat he shared a disdain for strictly portraying the natural world His own technique for presenting an expressive version of Impressionism a technique that could connect the viewer with emotion however was unique In particular his swirls in sky water and land remind astronomers of mathematically observed space dust movement it reminds physicists of measurable fractal relationships and hydrologists of the natural turbulence of water Psychologists note that the artist claimed to have painted such pictures only when in a psychotic state while some believe such depictions were his artistic transcription of a bout of epilepsy or some other disorder Whatever the reason even if they were calculated variations in color intensity and image twinkle they seem to bring out forms of emotionality and vibrancy in his art that reveal a turbulent search for grace

The Oxford History of Western Art Martin Kemp, 2000 The Oxford History of Western Art is the new authority on the development of visual culture in the West over the last 2700 years from the classical period to the end of the twentieth century OHWA is an innovative and challenging reappraisal of how the history of art can be presented and understood None of the currently available general histories of art offers the wealth of perspectives and cross media references of this book Through a carefully devised modular structure readers are given insights not only into how and why works of art were created but also how works in different media relate to each other across time Here uniquely is not the simple linear story of art but a rich series of stories told from varying viewpoints The founding principle of the book has been to use carefully selected groupings of pictures to give readers a sense of the visual texture of the various periods and episodes covered The 167 illustration groups supported by explanatory text and picture captions create a sequence of visual tours not merely a procession of individually great works viewed in isolation but juxtapositions of significant images that powerfully convey a sense of the visual environments in which works of art need to be viewed in order to be understood and appreciated The aim throughout has been to make the shape and nature of these visual presentations a stimulating and rewarding experience allowing readers to become active participants in the process of interpretation and synthesis Another key feature of the narrative is the re definition of traditional period boundaries Rather than relying on conventional labels such as Medieval Renaissance Baroque etc five major phases of significant historical change are established that unlock longer and more meaningful continuities The art of classical antiquity from c 600 BC to the fall of Rome in AD 410 The establishment of visual culture in Europe from 410 to 1527 the sack of papal Rome European visual regimes from 1527 to 1770 The era of revolutions 1770 to 1914 Modernism and after 1914 to 2000 This new framework shows how the major religious and secular functions of art have been forged sustained transformed revived and revolutionized over the ages how the institutions of Church and State have consistently aspired to make art in their own image and how the rise of art history itself has come to provide the dominant conceptual framework within which artists create patrons patronize collectors collect galleries exhibit dealers deal and art historians write The text has been written by a team of 50 specialist authors working under the direction of Professor Martin Kemp one of the UK's most distinguished art historians Whilst bringing their own expertise and vision to their sections each author was also asked to relate their text to a number of unifying themes and issues including written evidence physical contexts patronage viewing and reception techniques gender and racial issues centres and peripheries media and condition the notion of art and current presentations Though the coverage of topics focuses on European notions of art and their transplantation and transformation in North America space is also given to cross fertilizations with other traditions including the art of Latin America the Soviet Union India Africa and Afro Caribbean Australia and Canada Professor Kemp and his team similarly deal generously with the applied arts and reproductive media such as photography and prints The result is a vibrant vigorous and revolutionary account of Western art serving both as an inspirational introduction for the general reader and an authoritative source of reference and guidance for students
