Art Talk: Conversations with 12 Women Artists Cindy Nemser, 1975 Interviews with 12 important women artists reveal insights on art and feminism Feminists Who Changed America, 1963-1975 Barbara J. Love, 2006-09-22 Documents the key feminists who ignited the second wave women's movement This work tells the stories of more than two thousand individual women and a few notable men who together reignited the women's movement and made permanent changes to entrenched customs and laws Dictionary of Women Artists: Introductory surveys ; Artists, A-I Delia Gaze, 1997 First Published in 1997 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Concise Dictionary of Women Artists Delia Gaze, 2013-04-03 This book includes some 200 complete entries from the award winning Dictionary of Women Artists as well as a selection of introductory essays from the main volume A to Z of American Women in the Visual Arts Carol Kort, Liz Sonneborn, 2014-05-14 Presents biographical profiles of American women of achievement in the field of visual arts including birth and death dates major accomplishments and historical influence Hannah Wilke Tamara Schenkenberg, Donna Wingate, 2021 Eros and Oneness Tamara H Schenkenberg Elective Affinities Hannah Wilke's Ceramics in Context Glenn Adamson Needed Erase Her Don't Connie Butler Daughter Mother Catherine Opie Ha Ha Hannah Jeanine Oleson Cycling Through Gestures to Strike a Pose Nadia Myre Play and Care Hayv Kahraman Cindy Nemser and Hannah Wilke in Conversation 1975 Touching the Art Mattilda Bernstein Sycamore, 2023-11-07 Finalist for the Pacific Northwest Book Awards Finalist for the Washington State Book Awards A daringly observant memoir about intergenerational trauma fine art and compartmentalization from a returning Soft Skull author and Lambda Literary Award winner A mixture of memoir biography criticism and social history Touching the Art is queer icon and activist Mattilda Bernstein Sycamore's interrogation of the possibilities of artistic striving the limits of the middle class mindset the legacy of familial abandonment and what art can and cannot do Taking the form of a self directed research project Sycamore recounts the legacy of her fraught relationship with her late grandmother an abstract artist from Baltimore who encouraged Mattilda as a young artist then disparaged Mattilda's work as vulgar and a waste of talent once it became unapologetically queer As she sorts through her grandmother Gladys's paintings and handmade paperworks Sycamore examines the creative impulse itself In fragments evoking the movements of memory she searches for Gladys's place within the trajectories of midcentury modernism and Abstract Expressionism Jewish assimilation and white flight intergenerational trauma and class striving Sycamore writes Art is never just art it is a history of feeling a gap between sensations a safety valve an escape hatch a sudden shift in the body a clipboard full of flowers a welcome mat flipped over and back over and back welcome Refusing easy answers in search of an embodied truth Sycamore upends propriety to touch the art and feel everything that comes through The Art of the Sister Chapel Andrew Hottle, 2017-07-05 The Sister Chapel 1974-78 was an important collaborative installation that materialized at the height of the women's art movement Conceived as a nonhierarchical secular commemoration of female role models The

Sister Chapel consisted of an eighteen foot abstract ceiling that hung above a circular arrangement of eleven monumental canvases each depicting the standing figure of a heroic woman The choice of subject was left entirely to the creator of each work As a result the paintings formed a visually cohesive group without compromising the individuality of the artists Contemporary and historical women deities and conceptual figures were portrayed by distinguished New York painters Alice Neel May Stevens and Sylvia Sleigh as well as their accomplished but less prominent colleagues Among the role models depicted were Artemisia Gentileschi Frida Kahlo Betty Friedan Joan of Arc and a female incarnation of God Although last exhibited in 1980 The Sister Chapel has lingered in the minds of art historians who continue to note its significance as an exemplar of feminist collaboration Based on previously unpublished archival materials and featuring dozens of rarely seen works of art this comprehensive study details the fascinating history of The Sister Chapel its constituent paintings and its ambitious creators Machine in the Studio Caroline A. Jones,1996 Drawing on extensive interviews with artists and their assistants as well as close readings of artworks Jones explains that much of the major work of the 1960s was compelling precisely because it was mainstream central to the visual and economic culture of its time

Indigenization of Language in the African Francophone Novel Peter W. Vakunta,2011 Indigenization of Language in the African Francophone Novel A New Literary Canon discusses the question of indigenization in the African Francophone novel Analyzing the prose narratives of Nazi Boni Ahmadou Kourouma and Patrice Nganang this book contends that African literature written in European languages is primarily a creative translation process Recourse to European languages as a medium of expressing African imagination worldview and cultures in fictional writing poses problems of intelligibility Developed to express and reflect Western worldviews and sensibilities European languages are employed by African writers to convey messages that seem to be at variance with European imagination These writers find themselves writing in languages they wish to subvert through the technique of literary indigenization The significance of this study resides in its raising awareness to the hurdles that literary creativity in a polyglossic context may present to readers and translators This book provides answers to intriguing questions centering on the problematic of translation in contemporary African literature It is a contribution to current research aimed at unraveling the conundrum surrounding the language question in African Europhone fiction particularly the cultural functions of translation in literature Potential translation problems have to be addressed in order to make African literature written in European languages intelligible to global readership With the advent of globalization transcultural communication has become an activity of enormous importance to the international community It is a subject of great interest to translators linguists language instructors and literary theorists Implementing Differentiated Nursing Practice JoEllen Goertz Koerner,Kathryn Linda Karpiuk,1994 Nursing
