Pazmiño, 2008-09-01 For almost twenty years Foundational Issues in Christian Education has been a key text for many Christian education courses Its perceptive analysis coupled with clear writing make it a resource without peer In the book Christian education expert Robert Pazmi o guides readers through a comprehensive discussion of the interdisciplinary foundations of Christian education calling all Christian educators to reevaluate the fundamentals of their discipline A careful exploration of foundations writes Pazmi o is essential before specifying principles and guidelines for practice This updated edition includes interaction with professional developments over the past ten years and appendixes that assess the impact of postmodernism as an educational philosophy In addition each chapter includes points to ponder for personal reflection or classroom use Education, Religion and Society Dennis Bates, Gloria Durka, Friedrich Schweitzer, 2006-06-28 Education Religion and Society celebrates the career of Professor John Hull a leading figure in the transformation of religious education in English and Welsh schools and co founder of the International Seminar on Religious Education and Values He has also made major contributions to the theology of disability and the theological critique of the money culture Leading international scholars join together to offer a critical appreciation of his contribution to religious education and practical theology and explore the continuing debate about the role of religious education in promoting international understanding intercultural education and human rights The contributors also deal with indoctrination racism and relationship in Christian religious issues and examine aspects of the theology of social exclusion and disability This unique book includes a complete list of John Hull's writings up to the beginning of 2005 providing both an excellent introduction to contemporary issues of religious education in the West and the most complete critical account yet of his work Teaching for Spiritual Growth Perry G. Downs, 1994 Teaching for Spiritual Growth is a textbook that explains what it means to be spiritually mature and how churches can help people achieve spiritual growth Christian Education Lawrence O. Richards, Larry Richards, 1988 This is a book that relentlessly pursues defining the goals of Christian education and then offers a plan in keeping with those goals So many books in the field assume the goals and simply describe the methods Not so Larry Richards His biblical and theological analysis conveys an excitement that makes Christian education a mission not just a responsibility And still his approach is eminently practical insightful and motivational Christian Education Michael J. Anthony, 2001-09-01 Building on the success of his 1992 collection Foundations of Ministry over 17 000 sold Michael Anthony offers Introducing Christian Education to fill the need in the C E curriculum for an introductory foundations textbook one that provides an overview and understanding of the broad range of subjects included in C E for college and seminary use Thirty one chapters are offered under the following sections 1 Foundations of C E 2 Developmental Perspectives of C E 3 Educational Implications of C E 4 Organization Administration and Leadership 5 C E Applied to the Family and 6 Specialized Ministries Contributors include Robert Pazmi o Jim Wilhoit Julie Gorman Klaus Issler and Ted Ward FROM THE FOREWORD BY LESTER C BLANK JR Introducing Christian Education will become a major resource text for church leaders and Christian education leaders who are professors of Christian education It will be a valuable resource in my personal library The desired outcome will be Psalm 78 72 He cared for them with a true heart and led them with skillful hands Children's Spirituality, Second Edition Kevin E. Lawson, Scottie May, 2019-06-13 The Society of Children's Spirituality Christian Perspectives launched in 2003 with its first conference held at Concordia University Chicago in River Forest Illinois An earlier edition of this book composed of chapters based on presentations from that conference was published in 2004 In 2018 a decision was made to revise this book from the inaugural conference updating some chapters and providing a new perspective on the ongoing work of the organization now called the Children's Spirituality Summit For example given the advances in what we are learning from brain research a chapter on this topic has been extensively updated What this revised volume provides is a collection of chapters offering theological perspectives social science research and insights on ministry practice about the spiritual lives of children how they relate to God how this relationship grows and what helps in promoting the spiritual formation and vitality of children in the home church and school This book offers twenty three chapters by professors graduate students social science researchers and ministry leaders from different denominational traditions addressing a wide range of issues in theory research and ministry practice with children This second edition offers much to learn from stimulate your thinking and improve your practice The Reliaious Education of Adults Leon McKenzie, R. Michael Harton, 2002 Increasingly adults do not see the church as a credible provider of quality religious education This revision by R Michael Harton of the classic work by Leon McKenzie addresses the foundational issues of what constitutes such an education for adults and how ministers and teachers can determine and understand the needs of learners It also offers ways to involve learners in the planning and execution of their own religious education A must read for ministers and seminarians who care about the religious education of adults Leon McKenzie is a retired professor of adult education at Indiana University where he also served as Director of Human Resource Development for Indiana University Hospital He received his Ed D in adult education from IU and has authored several books including Adult Education and the Burden of the Future and Adult Education and World View Construction He lives in Indianapolis R Michael Harton has authored several articles on local church adult education and contributed to A Church's Ministry to Adults and Handbook on Adult Religious Education A former congregational educator and seminary professor he now serves the Virginia Baptist Resource Center in Richmond Virginia and teaches adjunctively at the Baptist Theological Seminary at Richmond He received his Ed D in adult education and instructional systems technology from Indiana University Adult Education in the Church Roy B. Zuck, Gene A. Getz, 1970 Foundations for Christian Education Eleanor Ann Daniel, John William Wade, 1999 Here is an excellent resource for your Christian Education program Daniel and Wade discuss the foundations of an effective Christian Education program and tackle organizational and administrative issues involved with such a program You will also find age specific information for all ages of learners If you are a Christian Ed Director or a teacher who wants to better understand the elements of a C E program that will make a difference in the lives of the teachers and the students this Guiding Workers in Christian Education Frank Melbourne McKibben, 1953 is the book for you Principles and Practices of Christian Education Robert W. Pazmiño, 2002-04-29 Principles and Practices of Christian Education shows teachers how they can use two important principles that stand behind all evangelical practices to make their education program stand out from all the others in its nurture of students First evangelical Christian education recognizes the need for conversion personal and corporate transformation that reconnects people to their Creator Second evangelical Christian education strives for connection making contact with people as unique individuals who live in a particular society and who need to know more about scripture In this book Christian education students learn that the work for which they prepare is a partnership with God to transform people Their central task is worship but through it and other activities they lead others to faith commitment and transformation of communities
