Canadiana, 1991 Aboriginal Voices and the Politics of Representation in Canadian Introductory Sociology Textbooks John Steckley, 2003 The philosophical underpinnings of this textbook make it a most interesting read for scholars of Aboriginal Studies the social sciences humanities and cultural studies and humanistic curriculum development John Steckley's familiarity with and respect for the epistemology of the Huron Mohawk and Ojibwa peoples enlightens and enables his research In this book he provides a critical framework for assessing Aboriginal content in introductory sociology textbooks He defines what is missing from the seventy seven texts included in his study of the manifestation of cultural hegemony in Canadian sociology textbooks This critique is suitable for students and professors of sociology as Dr Steckley addresses the impact of the ellipses from the textbooks they have traditionally used Identity and Belonging B. Turner, 1996-09-01 Social Work Treatment Francis J. Turner, 2011-03-15 First published in 1974 Social Work Treatment remains the most popular and trusted compendium of theories available to social work students and practitioners It explores the full range of theoretical approaches that drive social work treatment and knowledge development from psychoanalysis to crisis intervention This treasure trove of practice knowledge equips professionals with a broad array of theoretical approaches each of which shine a spotlight on a different aspect of the human condition Emphasizing the importance of a broad based theoretical approach to practice it helps the reader avoid the pitfalls of becoming overly identified with a narrow focus that limits their understanding of clients and their contexts This sweeping overview of the field untangles the increasingly complex problems ideologies and value sets that define contemporary social work practice The result is an essential A to Z reference that charts the full range of theoretical approaches available to social workers regardless of their setting or specialty Perspectives on Racism and the Human Services Sector Carl E. James, 1996-01-01 Today's social services agencies are faced with the challenge of responding to the diverse needs and expectations of a growing multicultural population This volume examines race and racism in Canada from historical and contemporary perspectives and explores the extent to which these factors operate within social services systems related to immigration settlement the justice system health and education The contributors including practitioners educators and policy makers argue for specific changes in current approaches to service delivery and provide practical suggestions for services that make it possible for various communities to be served more effectively The collection also proposes an anti racism
