Franciscans at Prayer Timothy Johnson, 2007-04-30 Medieval Franciscans prayed in hermitages and churches on the road and in the piazza with song and silence The unique stories of these men and women as their engaging texts stunning architecture and breath taking artwork suggest are narratives of souls enfolded in their respective worlds of the leprosarium university or itinerant preaching The essays in this book foster a nuanced perspective on Franciscan beliefs and spiritual practices by resisting the temptation to reduce their myriad accounts of prayer to an exclusive univocal spirituality By displaying the breadth and depth of these medieval Franciscans at prayer these essays challenge contemporary readers to look anew at this cloud of witnesses from the past who both lay and religious promoted a diversity of spiritual expression that found a familial focus in their mutual passion for the divine and the world they shared
