Blindness What It Is What It Does And How To Live:

Blindness: what it Is, what it Does, and how to Live with it Thomas J. Carroll,1961 Dramatizing Blindness Devon Healey,2021-08-31 Dramatizing Blindness Disability Studies as Critical Creative Narrative engages with the cultural meanings and movements of blindness This book addresses how blindness is lived in particular contexts in offices of ophthalmology and psychiatry in classrooms of higher education in accessibility service offices on the street and at home Taking the form of a play written in five acts the narrative dramatizes how the main character s blindness is conceived of in the world and in the self Each act includes an analysis where blind studies is explored in relation to disability studies This work reveals the performative enactment of blindness that is lived in the public as well as in the private corners of the self demonstrating how blindness is a form of perception Devon Healey s work orients to blindness as a necessary and creative feature of the sensorium and shows how blindness is a form of perception The Mystery of the Eye and the Shadow of Blindness Rod Michalko,1998-01-01 Unravels the ways that blind persons come to understand and live their lives It shows that blindness is a life worth living and that blind persons must grapple with the question of what kind of blind person they choose to be Self-esteem and Adjusting with Blindness Dean W. Tuttle,Naomi R. Tuttle,2004 This new and expanded Third Edition analyzes blindness within the context of two overlapping theoretical constructs the development of self esteem and the process of adjusting to social and or physical trauma The book is divided into four sections The first section provides an overview of blindness and the essential background for subsequent discussions Section II explores the general theoretical model for the development of self esteem common to all persons and analyzes the impact that blindness imposes upon this model Section III explores the process of coping with social and physical traumas or crises Section IV is addressed primarily to members of the blind person s support team and provides suggestions for creating a climate for optimum development Factors that may influence the adjustment process descriptions of external and internal sources of self esteem activities for stimulating affective growth and guidelines for professionals who work with the blind are included Personal impacts and psychosocial implications of blindness are discussed in depth and illustrated with biographical and autobiographical statements by more than 50 blind men and women This book will serve as an excellent review and refresher for experienced practitioners and administrators working in the field of blindness Professionals in education social work vocational counseling rehabilitation recreation therapy ophthalmology and optometry will find this comprehensive resource to be an invaluable addition to their libraries Color Blind 101 HowExpert,Kim Springer,2019-11-27 Are you color blind Do you struggle with everyday color decisions that affect your home work relationships and self esteem Maybe it seems like no one else understands your plight or perhaps you are ready to shirk this unfair disadvantage in life I understand This book is written for you the color blind person who knows what it is like to be the only person who cannot identify a colorful number in a small circle However you are not alone Not only do I endure this hardship hundreds of millions of people worldwide live with our misunderstood somewhat rare genetic condition Although your situation may seem bleak if you are facing discrimination disappointment or displacement due to your condition this book is written as a helpful guide and uplifting reminder that color blindness does not have the final say you do Do you feel like you have been living life without the playbook Or perhaps you have not considered how your color blindness manifests in your life Is there a friend family member neighbor or teacher who would benefit from understanding color blindness This How To book addresses color blind individuals and everyone who crosses their paths with uplifting quick and entertaining tips to help navigate and comprehend the color blind life With firsthand accounts and colloquial knowhow I have written this book so anyone can understand the basics of color blindness from how it is inherited to its effects on everyday life Plus the color blind individual or caretaker thereof will appreciate the applicable tips such as how to shop and cook for the color blind How did I end up with a freezer full of purpleberries Why didn't my bridal shower outfit match Is it okay that I ask my kids for fashion advice If you can relate to these questions or I have piqued your curiosity read and laugh along with me as we celebrate and commiserate with the wonderful world of the color blind About the Expert With blue eyes and brown hair your color blind author Kimberly Springer lives in the suburbs of Pittsburgh with her hazel eyed husband green eyed oldest son brown eyed middle son and blue eyed little girl Her tri colored purebred Basset Hound provides the perfect sidekick for calm days of writing piano playing and cooking Despite her obvious inability to view every Fall color Autumn remains Kim's favorite season due to the smoky air from fires sundry warm beverages scratchy hayrides and flavorful Thanksgiving feasts On a more professional note Kim hails from a diverse background of experience You could describe her as quite the Philly Phanatic born and raised just outside the city of brotherly love Remaining loyal to her state she attended The Pennsylvania State University in State College to study secondary education specializing in English communications and journalism As a Freshman Kim wrote for the far reaching Daily Collegian as a Senior reporter followed by a stint as a Health and Wellness journalist After serving as a community leader through school and church appointed positions Kim continued her travels west with an appointment to teach in the suburbs of Pittsburgh There she met her husband of 10 years and graduated magna cum laude Wielding both a teaching and marriage certificate Kim entered the married and working world at a young age As an educator she has taught grades 7-12 in a variety of school settings including the acclaimed Lincoln Park Performing Arts Charter School in Midland PA Nowadays she devotes her time to her family home church piano students and online writing She believes in the power of everyday communication and education through online forums community gatherings and outreach activities to enhance the lives of all peoples Be on the lookout for more items from Kim as she hopes to continue to inform and entertain through the wonderful world of online literature

Overcoming Spiritual Blindness James P. Gills, 2012-06-28 All too often our modern society lacks both sight and insight resulting from a refusal to see the reality of creation Such lack of recognition and appreciation for the Creator is spiritual blindness Yet the fruits and evidence of His love and wisdom are clearly demonstrated everywhere we look Author Dr James Gills a world renowned ophthalmologist with a deep love of the Bible writes about spiritual blindness with stunning clarity and relevance This book illustrates a powerful biblical theme often repeated throughout the Scriptures the analogy between the physical and the spiritual realms regarding blindness and sight From Isaiah s vision of a day when God s Messiah would be a light for the Gentiles to open eyes that are blind to the fulfillment of the prophecy when Paul was sent to the Gentiles to open their eyes and turn them from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God Overcoming Spiritual Blindness emphasizes the power and work of the Holy Spirit What the surgeon does for cataracts that hinder sight in the physical eye the Holy Spirit does for the cataracts of the heart Overcoming Spiritual Blindness exposes obstructions to spiritual sight that cloud the lens of the soul Such cataracts include pride misguided concepts of money preoccupation with work distorted views of sex and a critical spirit The description of the cataract of bitterness and an unforgiving spirit gives such powerful insight that the reader must gain a new perspective of total forgiveness The list of spiritual cataracts is vast and painfully relevant highlighting the need for spiritual surgery to those who do not realize they are blind The Neuroscience of Everyday Life Winnie Dunn,Timothy J. Wolf,Lorie Gage Richards,Dawn M.

Nilsen,2025-01-22 By weaving vignettes and case studies throughout this fascinating and original textbook provides an accessible primer not only on the key principles of neuroscience but crucially how they may manifest in the everyday lives of people with neurological conditions Each chapter begins with the story of a person or family including a description of what they want to do in their everyday life before presenting the neuroscientific principles that underlie this person s situation Rather than a technical book about neuroanatomy physiology or pathology the spotlight is on understanding the way that neurological differences impact a person s life Through focusing on a particular condition each chapter highlights a different aspect of the nervous system and what happens when things change A wide range of topics are covered from conditions such as Parkinson s dementia MS and autism to conditions resulting from traumatic events such as spinal cord injuries stroke and chronic pain The goal of the book is to trace a thread from neuroscience to how the nervous system affects active participation in daily activities This approach gives students and professionals a thorough and informed grounding to support problem solving in practice improving evidence based assessment interventions and outcomes Following current evidence based teaching practices this text emphasizes engaged teaching learning methods throughout each chapter to encourage students own active discovery This ground breaking text will be essential reading for any health science students as well as professionals in practice

London Labour and the London Poor Henry Mayhew,2009-01-01 Assembled from a series of newspaper articles first published in the newspaper Morning Chronicle throughout the 1840s this exhaustively researched richly detailed survey of the teeming street denizens of London is a work both of groundbreaking sociology and salacious voyeurism In an 1850 review of the survey just prior to its initial book publication William Makepeace Thackeray called it tale of terror and wonder offering a picture of human life so wonderful so awful so piteous and pathetic so exciting and terrible that readers of romances own they never read anything like to it Delving into the world of the London street folk the buyers and sellers of goods performers artisans laborers and others this extraordinary work inspired the socially conscious fiction of Charles Dickens in the 19th century as well as the urban fantasy of Neil Gaiman in the late 20th Volume I explores the lives of the wandering tribes costermongers sellers of fish fruits and vegetables sellers of books and stationery sellers of manufactured goods women and children on the streets and more English journalist HENRY MAYHEW 1812 1887 was a founder and editor of the satirical magazine Punch

Living with Low Vision and Blindness John M. Crandell, Lee W. Robinson, 2007 This book summarizes the findings in the fields of general education and psychology as they relate to vision loss It is concerned primarily with providing understanding of the many elements that must be considered before a successful rehabilitative and or an educational program can be developed This type of understanding is illustrated in the book by examples drawn from experience that the authors have directly observed Theoretical factors are described that must be considered in the development of a suitable program for a person with specific strengths and weaknesses Discussions are also included that relate to the meaning and implications of self concept and self esteem in the overall adjustment of individuals with vision loss Also psychological and sociological theories are evaluated of OC the blindOCO as described in writings such as KimOCO's The Community of the Blind and ScottOCO's The Making of a Blind Man in terms of their relevance of life adjustment Weaknesses are identified in the research bases in this field and propose specific research activities that could help alleviate problems Another focus is on provision of explanations of the origin development influence and modification of public attitudes toward blindness and the influence of these attitudes on the adjustment of individuals with blindness It will be of interest not only to educators and rehabilitation specialists in the field of work for the blind but also to psychologists social workers educators and therapists

A Minimally Good Life Nicole Hassoun, 2024-07-12 What do we owe to each other simply out of respect or concern for our common humanity What can we claim The United Nations Sustainable Development Goals and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights as well as many states constitutions embody competing answers to these questions Different accounts of what we owe to others out of concern for our common humanity ground divergent accounts of the basic minimum just societies and the international community must help people secure A Minimally Good Life argues that concern for our common humanity requires helping others live minimally good lives when doing so does not require sacrificing our own ability to live well enough This it suggests provides a unified answer to the question of what we must give to and can demand from others as a basic minimum More precisely Nicole Hassoun argues that people must obtain the things that let them secure the relationships pleasures knowledge appreciation worthwhile activities and other things that a reasonable and caring person free from coercion and constraint would set as a minimal standard of justifiable aspiration That is as reasonable caring free people we should put ourselves into each other's shoes and think about what we need to live well enough as each person Hassoun makes this case by engaging with the main competitors in the literature those that offer different accounts of the basic minimum and the limits of our obligations She then defends a new way of helping people in present and future generations reach the sufficiency threshold and of responding to apparent tragedy when helping everyone seems impossible International Health, Education, and Labor Programs United States.
