Blonds Prefer Gentlemen:

But Do Blondes Prefer Gentlemen? Anthony Burgess,1986 Gentlemen Prefer Blondes Anita Loos,1967 Blondes Prefer Gentlemen An Amateur,1926 "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes" Anita Loos,1925 Lorelei Lee is just a little girl from Little Rock who takes the world by storm to teach its gentlemen that kissing your hand may make you feel very very good but a diamond and safire bracelet lasts forever Anita Loos first published the diaries of the gold digging blonde in the flapper days of 1925 forging a new archetype for the modern world Gentlemen Prefer Blondes follows Lorelei and her best friend Dorothy from Hollywood to Manhattan to Paris and London pursued by eager suitors all the while In the Central of Europe with a new diamond tiara in her handbag Lorelei meets a traveling American millionaire who just might be the one She retires her diary but not for long because as she writes in the opening pages of But Gentlemen Marry Brunettes it is bright ideas that keep the home fires burning and prevent a divorce from taking all of the bloom off Romance Gentlemen Prefer Blondes and its brunette sequel are present here in one volume containing the original Ralph Barton illustrations and a penetrating introduction by feminist humor maven Regina Barreca Jacket Marriage Seen through Proverbs and Anti-Proverbs Anna T. Litovkina,Wolfgang Mieder,2019-11-04 This book explores various aspects of marriage and the ways it is viewed and conceptualized in the body of Anglo American anti proverbs or proverb transformations It also depicts those who contribute to the institution of marriage that is husbands and wives and analyses their nature qualities attributes and behaviours as revealed through such anti proverbs In addition the text investigates those who remain single and do not belong to the institution of marriage but contribute to the institution of marriage It will appeal to a wide range of readers from the casually interested general reader to the paremiologist paremiographer lexicographer and anthropologist But Do Blondes Prefer Gentlemen? Anthony Burgess,1990-10-01 Blondes Prefer Gentlemen, Etc. [A Parody of "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes" by Anita Loos.] Melita Noose,Anita LOOS,1926 The Marx Brothers as Social Critics Martin A. Gardner,2009-10-21 The Marx Brothers films are packed with slapstick and obvious jokes gags puns pratfalls and mimicry But beneath the laughs is a serious and biting condemnation of American culture This book examines historical events political practices economic conditions manners and customs literary subjects and popular entertainment as satirized in the films and considers the ways in which the films were relevant in their era and remain so today A Dictionary of Literary Devices Bernard Marie Dupriez,1991-01-01 Comprising some 4000 terms defined and illustrated Gradus calls upon the resources of linguistics poetics semiotics socio criticism rhetoric pragmatics combining them in ways which enable readers quickly to comprehend the codes and conventions which together make up literarity Women, Celebrity, and Literary Culture between the Wars Faye Hammill,2009-12-03 As mass media burgeoned in the years between the first and second world wars so did another phenomenon celebrity Beginning in Hollywood with the studio orchestrated transformation of uncredited actors into brand name stars celebrity also spread to writers whose personal appearances and private lives came to fascinate readers as much as their work Women Celebrity and Literary Culture between the Wars profiles seven American Canadian and British women writers Dorothy Parker Anita Loos Mae West L M Montgomery Margaret Kennedy Stella Gibbons and E M Delafield who achieved literary celebrity in the 1920s and 1930s and whose work remains popular even today Faye Hammill investigates how the fame and commercial success of these writers as well as their gender affected the literary reception of their work She explores how women writers sought to fashion their own celebrity images through various kinds of public performance and how the media appropriated these writers for particular cultural discourses She also reassesses the relationship between celebrity culture and literary culture demonstrating how the commercial success of these writers caused literary elites to denigrate their writing as middlebrow despite the fact that their work often challenged middle class ideals of marriage home and family and complicated class categories and lines of social discrimination The first comparative study of North American and British literary celebrity Women Celebrity and Literary Culture between the Wars offers a nuanced appreciation of the middlebrow in relation to modernism and popular culture

Hair and Scalp Care the Natural Way - Naturally curing baldness, hair loss & other hair problems Dueep Jyot Singh, John Davidson, 2017-11-13

Table of Contents Introduction Baldness Stimulation of the Scalp Talking about Dyeing Main Reasons for Hair Fall Traditional Shampoos Pressure Therapy Dandruff Coconut Oil Remedy Conclusion Author Bio Publisher Introduction No this is not a bad hair day I am just stressed out It could have been a bad hair day hair not being managed properly flying all over your face and all over the place tumbling down from out of a snood or even out of a French braid or piled it high up on your head and stuck the creative artistry with jeweled pins and so on People having long hair may suffer from this problem and that is why in the 20s and 30s women decided to have their head shingled and bobbed where once upon a time in Victorian times long hair was considered to be the mark of feminine beauty This hair was then supported with artificial ringlets pads Tufts and even women wore toupees These additional adornments and fixtures to the hair were called rats Nowadays most of us wash our hair nearly every day depending on its length but in Victorian times that was done only once every eight days with a rinse made up of egg yolks beaten in warm water and rubbed over the hair This was then washed with lukewarm water to make the hair shiny But what about the scalp you may ask They did not bother much about cleaning the scalp as long as the hair was squeaky clean And then when they suffered from dandruff and others scalp related diseases they cleaned the scalp with orris root powder applied at night and then brushed out the next morning They also used pomades and even some unguents made up of bear grease phew what a pong But then I guess when everybody in the vicinity is smelling of bear grease the nose gets accustomed to it Nevertheless for our amusement here is the famous Mrs Beeton s recipe for pomade published in 1861 Here you did not use the fat taken from a poor unfortunate brown bear Russian for choice I am not joking What fools these vain mortals be Anyway this pomade was made by pound of lard equally pong making to our oh so sensitive 21st century noses scent of choice and two Penny worths of castor oil The lard was unsalted It was beaten up the castor oil was added to it during the beating process with the help of a kitchen knife and few drops of your preferred scent This pomade was then put into porcelain or glass pots and then covered well so that it did not turn rancid
