Blood Affair:

One People, One Blood Don Seeman, 2009 Today along with those Ethiopians who have been recognized as Jews by the State of Israel many who are called Feres Mura the descendants of Ethiopian Jews who have now reasserted their Jewish identity still await full acceptance in Israel Since the 1990s they have sought homecoming through Israel's Law of Return but have been met with reticence and suspicion on a variety of fronts This book documents this tenuous relationship and the challenges facing the Feres Mura Ethiopian Jewish Immigrants in Israel Tanya Schwarz, 2016-03-23 This is an ethnographic study of Ethiopian Jews or Beta Israel a few years after their migration from rural Ethiopia to urban Israel For the Beta Israel the most significant issue is not as is commonly assumed adaptation to modern society but rather belonging in their new homeland and the loss of control they are experiencing over their lives and those of their children Ethiopian Jewish immigrants resist those aspects of the dominant society which they dislike they reject normative Jewish practices and uphold Beta Israel religious and cultural ones ideologically counteract disparaging Israeli attitudes develop strong ethnic bonds and engage in overt forms of resistance The difficulties of the present are also overcome by creating a perfect past and an ideal future in what the author calls the homeland postponed all Jews will be united in a colour blind world of material plenty and purity A Blood Affair Jan Roberts, 1991 Multiculturalism in Israel Adia Mendelson-Maoz, 2015-03-15 By analyzing its position within the struggles for recognition and reception of different national and ethnic cultural groups this book offers a bold new picture of Israeli literature Through comparative discussion of the literatures of Palestinian citizens of Israel of Mizrahim of migrants from the former Soviet Union and of Ethiopian Israelis the author demonstrates an unexpected richness and diversity in the Israeli literary scene a reality very different from the monocultural image that Zionism aspired to create Drawing on a wide body of social and literary theory Mendelson Maoz compares and contrasts the literatures of the four communities she profiles In her discussion of the literature of the Palestinian citizens of Israel she presents the question of language and translation and she provides three case studies of particular authors and their reception Her study of Mizrahi literature adopts a chronological approach starting in the 1950s and proceeding toward contemporary Mizrahi writing while discussing questions of authenticity and self determination The discussion of Israeli literature written by immigrants from the former Soviet Union focuses both on authors who write Israeli literature in Russian and of Russian immigrants writing in Hebrew The final section of the book provides a valuable new discussion of the work of Ethiopian Israeli writers a group whose contributions have seldom been previously acknowledged The picture that emerges from this groundbreaking book replaces the traditional homogeneous historical narrative of Israeli literature with a diversity of voices a multiplicity of origins and a wide range of different perspectives In doing so it will provoke researchers in a wide range of cultural fields to look at the rich traditions that underlie it in new and fresh ways Suicide and Agency Ludek Broz, Daniel Münster, 2016-04-01 Suicide and Agency offers an original and timely challenge to existing ways of understanding suicide Through the use of rich and detailed case studies the authors assembled in this volume explore how interplay of self harm suicide personhood and agency varies markedly across site Greenland Siberia India Palestine and Mexico and setting self run leprosy colony suicide bomb attack cash crop farming middle class mothering Rather than starting from a set definition of suicide they empirically engage suicide fields the wider domains of practices and of sense making out of which realized imaginary or disputed suicides emerge By drawing on ethnographic methods and approaches a new comparative angle to understanding suicide beyond mainstream Western bio medical and classical sociological conceptions of the act as an individual or social pathology is opened up The book explores a number of ontological assumptions about the role of free will power good and evil personhood and intentionality in both popular and expert explanations of suicide Suicide and Agency offers a substantial and ground breaking contribution to the emerging field of the anthropology of suicide It will appeal to a range of scholars and students including those in anthropology sociology social psychology cultural studies suicidology and social studies of death and dying

French Fiction in the Mitterrand Years Colin Davis, Elizabeth Fallaize, 2000 The authors examine some of the most popular and some of the most challenging of texts that emerged during Francois Mitterrand s presidency They relate these texts to the dominant literary and cultural trends of the period

It's Better If You Don't Know Raissa Batra, 2024-01-06 This is a unique collection of writings where every piece is a crafted form of art in its own right Penned by a young author Raissa It s Better If You Don t Know offers a compelling journey into the depths of the human experience Through the medium of short stories Raissa navigates the intricate landscapes of loneliness heartbreak loss and grief unravelling the raw and tender emotions that make us human But amidst the shadows is a glimmer of hope and redemption a catharsis that promises to relate deeply with anyone who turns these pages With an acute sense of the abstract Raissa s writing resonates with readers inviting them to explore the vivid tapestry of her innermost thoughts

The Generosity of the Dead Graciela Nowenstein, 2016-03-09 There has been a general assumption in the international debate surrounding organ procurement that Presumed Consent opting out systems produce better results than Express Consent opting in systems This study uses the French case to challenge this widely held assumption and argues that the French presumed consent systems coexist with patterns of behaviour that in practice do not mobilize the law It explores four key areas to current research in socio legal studies focussing on the state and nature of social solidarity social engineering and the changing nature of the citizen state relations state intervention in the event of death and discretion in use of corpses and recent modifications of the status of medical professionals as figures of authority and agents of state policy Using material based on interviews with medical professionals this title will be a valuable resource for researchers academics policy makers and practitioners with an interest in this complex and topical subject

Global Law: A Triple Challenge Mireille Delmas-Marty, 2021-09-13 The author addresses the question of whether globalization of law is possible in a world full of tensions due to an increase in economic inequality and the rise of national and regional differences She discusses whether it is reasonable or imaginable to have an organized set of norms when the helter skelter proliferation of norms and the displacement of landmarks create instead the impression of normative disorder She then explores whether the globalization of law is ethically desirable when none of our international institutions are currently able to guarantee respect for democratic values Originally published in French under the title Trois Defis Pour Un Droit Mondial Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint Index Medicus, 2004 Vols for 1963 include as pt 2 of the Jan issue Medical subject headings Story-Based Inquiry: A Manual for Investigative Journalists Mark Lee Hunter, gratuit, Unesco, 2011 Investigative Journalism means the unveiling of matters that are concealed either deliberately by someone in a position of power or accidentally behind a chaotic mass of facts and circumstances and the analysis and exposure of all relevant facts to the public In this way investigative journalism crucially contributes to freedom of expression and freedom of information which are at the heart of UNESCO's mandate The role media can play as a watchdog is indispensable for democracy and it is for this reason that UNESCO fully supports initiatives to strengthen investigative journalism throughout the world I believe this publication makes a significant contribution to promoting investigative journalism and I hope it will be a valuable resource for journalists and media professionals as well as for journalism trainers and educators J. nis K. rklin Assistant Director General for Communication and Information UNESCO Preface page 1

ETERNAL THOUGHTS 11 Huu Khanh, 2025-08-08 ETERNAL THOUGHTS 11 Bai Xiaochun was slightly startled but very quickly put on a solemn appearance carrying a murderous qi cold eyes his body jumped up and turned into a rainbow straight into the air appearing in front of the Han Yan Ancestor along with eight other people lined up in a horizontal line The appearance of the Night Sect did not make all the Blood Qi Sect disciples feel astonished As if for the Elder Han Yan to choose him everyone felt that it was inevitable No one even spoke up to discuss anything from this point it can also be seen that in the Blood Qi Tong the name Wen Ma has already become famous making everyone from the bottom of their hearts have recognized the identity of the Nightshade and have recognized his true strength The more he recognized that he was Tianqiao Regulating Medicines in Europe John Abraham, Graham Lewis, 2014-04-04 This Book explains and investigates how medicines are controlled in Europe especially the EU Based on penetrating documentary and interview research with the pharmaceutical industry regulators and consumer organisations it provides the first major critical examination of the new Europeanised systems of medicine regulation The authors argue that the drive to produce and approve more drugs more quickly for a single European market dominates other considerations such as improvements in democratic accountability the independence of regulators and scientific expertise from commercial interests and drug safety testing and surveillance Shades of Indignation Paul Jankowski, 2008 Corruption is far from disappearing yet now it inspires resignation rather than indignation and as such it has lost its power to scandalize Jankowski claims that such transformations tell a tale The state that once aspired to pre-eminence as the sole magnet of loyalty touchstone of probity and guarantor of right has yielded significant ground to the individual who is now more likely to elevate his own dignity and cry scandal on his own behalf Jacket AIDS Bibliography, 1994-10 Jacques Ellul and the Technological Society in the 21st Century Helena M. Jerónimo, José Luís García, Carl Mitcham, 2013-07-08 This volume rethinks the work of Jacques Ellul 1912 1994 on the centenary of his birth by presenting an overview of the current debates based on Ellul's insights As one of the most significant twentieth century thinkers about technology Ellul was among the first thinkers to realize the importance of topics such as globalization terrorism communication technologies and ecology and study them from a technological perspective The book is divided into three sections The first discusses Ellul's diagnosis of modern society and addresses the reception of his work on the technological society the notion of efficiency the process of symbolization de symbolization and ecology The second analyzes communicational and cultural problems as well as threats and trends in early twenty first century societies Many of the issues Ellul saw as crucial such as energy propaganda applied life sciences and communication continue to be so In fact they have grown exponentially on a global scale producing new forms of risk Essays in the final section examine the duality of reason and revelation They pursue an understanding of Ellul in terms of the depth of experience and the traditions of human knowledge which is to say on the one hand the experience of the human being as contained in the rationalist sociological and philosophical traditions On the other hand there are the transcendent roots of human existence as well as revealed knowledge in the mystical and religious traditions The meeting of these two traditions enables us to look at Ellul's work as a whole but above all it opens up a space for examining religious life in the technological society The World Is Not for Sale Jose Bove, Francois Dufour, 2002-10-17 Recounts the dramatic events of their famous demonstration against McDonald's and examines the issues behind the resulting campaign A New History of London, etc George REEVES, 1764 Perjury and Pardon, Volume II Jacques Derrida, 2023-05-10 An exploration of the political dimensions of forgiveness and repentance from Jacques Derrida Perjury and Pardon is a two year seminar series given by Jacques Derrida at the cole des hautes études en sciences sociales in Paris during the late 1990s In these sessions Derrida focuses on the philosophical ethical juridical and political stakes of the concept of responsibility His primary goal is to develop what he calls a problematic of lying by studying diverse forms of betrayal infidelity denial false testimony perjury unkept promises desecration sacrilege and blasphemy This volume covers the seminar's second year when Derrida explores the political dimensions of forgiveness and repentance Over eight sessions he discusses Hegel Augustine Levinas Arendt and Benjamin as well as Bill Clinton's impeachment and Nelson Mandela and Desmond Tutu's testimonies before the Truth and Reconciliation Commission The seminars conclude with an extended reading of Henri Thomas's 1964 novel Le Parjure Democracy in Times of Pandemic Miguel Poiarés Maduro, Paul W. Kahn, 2020-11-12 Examines the most important democratic challenges of today using the Covid 19 pandemic as a case study
