Blood and Belief David Biale, 2007-10-23 Blood contains extraordinary symbolic power in both Judaism and Christianity as the blood of sacrifice of Jesus of the Jewish martyrs of menstruation and more Yet though they share the same literary cultural and religious origins on the question of blood the two religions have followed quite different trajectories For instance while Judaism rejects the eating or drinking of blood Christianity mandates its symbolic consumption as a central sacrament How did these two traditions both originating in the Hebrew Bible s cult of blood sacrifices veer off in such different directions With his characteristic wit and erudition David Biale traces the continuing changing and often clashing roles of blood as both symbol and substance through the entire sweep of Jewish and Christian history from Biblical times to the present
