Bloomsbury At Home:

Bloomsbury at Home Pamela Todd, 2001 Fascination with the Bloomsbury set Virginia Woolf Leonard Woolf Vanessa Bell Duncan Grant Lytton Strachey Dora Carrington among others never ceases Bloomsbury at Home is the story of the friendship between a group of witty lively like minded highly talented individuals who came together during the first half of the twentieth century The book is divided by biography and geography into chapters centering on specific people and places for example Garsington the home of Lady Ottoline Morrell and Hogarth House in Richmond home to Virginia and Leonard Woolf and of course no book on the Bloomsbury set would be complete without mention of Vanessa Bell s home at Charleston Illustrated with a wide range of colour and black and white photographs memorabilia everything from menus to postcards portraits and paintings by members of the group Pamela Todd assembles a detailed account of how and where the Bloomsbury group grew up interacted and lived together during the first half of the twentieth century producing some of their finest work as well as evoking the richness of that extraordinary period in English art and literature Charleston Quentin Bell, Virginia Nicholson, 1997 Written by Bloomsbury painter Vanessa s Bell s son Quentin who grew up at Charleston in collaboration with his elder daughter this volume provides a detailed account of Charleston s transformation from dilapidated abandonment to an exquisitely decorated home in the high bohemian style The account of the house s transformation is blended with the story of the vibrant social life that the house sustained during the Bloomsbury years with the likes of Vanessa s sister Virginia Woolf and economist Maynard Keynes frequent sometimes lengthy visits Superb color photographs illustrate the domestic artistry which made the house so magical Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Home Is Somewhere Else Desider Furst, Lilian R. Furst, 2012-02-01 Following the Nazi annexation of Austria in March of 1938 Desider Furst his wife and his daughter suddenly found themselves hunted outlaws holders of a German passport branded with a red J for Jewish They escaped from Vienna and eventually settled in England where they spent the war years as enemy aliens In 1971 they emigrated once more this time voluntarily to the United States Home is Somewhere Else is a dual voice autobiographical narration by father and daughter recounting the family s displacements obstacles and repeated reversals The experiences documented here are typical of many Central Europeans whose lives were radically and painfully affected by the Nazis This book s originality lies in its narrative format and its revelation of what befell the lucky ones merely on the margins of the Holocaust Boyle's court and country guide, 1872 Arthur's Lady's Home Magazine, 1886 House & Garden, 1999 Arthur's Home Magazine, 1886 Charleston Farmhouse Kim Marsland, 2016 Never published before atmospheric photographs of Charleston House taken just after Duncan Grant died and before the farmhouse was restored and opened to the public A rare glimpse into the world of the Bloomsbury set The House at Riverton Kate Morton, 2008-04-22 From the author of 1 international bestseller The Forgotten Garden and New York Times bestseller Homecoming comes a gorgeous novel set in England between World War I and World War II Perfect for fans of Downton Abbey it is the story of an aristocratic family a house a mysterious death and a way of life that vanished forever told in flashback by a woman who witnessed it all and kept a secret for decades Grace Bradley went to work at Riverton House as a servant when she was just a girl before the First World War For years her life was inextricably tied up with the Hartford family most particularly the two daughters Hannah and Emmeline In the summer of 1924 at a glittering society party held at the house a young poet shot himself The only witnesses were Hannah and Emmeline and only they and Grace know the truth In 1999 when Grace is ninety eight years old and living out her last days in a nursing home she is visited by a young director who is making a film about the events of that summer She takes Grace back to Riverton House and reawakens her memories Told in flashback this is the story of Grace s youth during the last days of Edwardian aristocratic privilege shattered by war of the vibrant twenties and the changes she witnessed as an entire way of life vanished forever The novel is full of secrets some revealed others hidden forever reminiscent of the romantic suspense of Daphne du Maurier It is also a meditation on memory the devastation of war and a beautifully rendered window into a fascinating time in history Kate Morton s first novel originally published to critical acclaim in Australia and quickly becoming a 1 bestseller in England The House at Riverton is a vivid page turning novel of suspense and passion with characters and an ending readers won t soon forget

Tracing and Documenting Nazi Victims Past and Present Henning Borggräfe, Christian Höschler, Isabel Panek, 2020-06-08 After World War II tracing and documenting Nazi victims emerged against the background of millions of missing persons and early compensation proceedings This was a process in which the Allies international aid organizations and survivors themselves took part New archives documentation centers and tracing bureaus were founded amid the increasing Cold War divide They gathered documents on Nazi persecution and structured them in specialized collections to provide information on individual fates and their grave repercussions the loss of relatives the search for a new home physical or mental injuries existential problems social support and recognition but also continued exclusion or discrimination By doing so institutions involved in this work were inevitably confronted with contentious issues such as varying political mandates neutrality vs solidarity with those formerly persecuted data protection vs public interest and many more Over time tracing bureaus and archives changed methods and policies and even expanded their activities using historical documents for both research and public remembrance This is the first publication to explore this multifaceted history of tracing and documenting past and present

George Bell remains one of only a handful of twentieth century English bishops to possess a continuing international reputation for his involvement in political affairs His insistence that Christian faith required active participation in public life at home and abroad established an eminent and often provocative contribution to Christian ethics at large Bell s participation in the tragic history of the German resistance against Hitler has earned him an enduring place in the historiography of the Third Reich his February 1944 speech protesting against the obliteration bombing of Germany made in the House of Lords is still often considered one of the great prophetic speeches of the twentieth century Throughout his long career Bell became a leading light in the burgeoning ecumenical movement a supporter of refugees from dictatorships of all kinds a committed internationalist and a patron of the Arts This book draws together the work of leading international historians and theologians including Rowan Williams and makes an important contribution to a range of ongoing political ecumenical and international debates A woman of the world Frances Mabel Robinson,1890 The Charity Organisation Review
