Dinges,2019-11-15 The author of more than twenty books and a revered contributor to numerous national publications Charles Bowden 1945 2014 used his keen storyteller s eye to reveal both the dark underbelly and the glorious determination of humanity particularly in the borderlands between the United States and Mexico In America s Most Alarming Writer key figures in his life including his editors collaborators and other writers deliver a literary wake of the man who inspired them throughout his forty year career Part revelation part critical assessment the fifty essays in this collection span Bowden s rise as an investigative journalist through his years as a singular voice of unflinching honesty about natural history climate change globalization drugs and violence As the Chicago Tribune noted Bowden wrote with the intensity of Joan Didion the voracious hunger of Henry Miller the feral intelligence and irony of Hunter Thompson and the wit and outrage of Edward Abbey An evocative complement to The Charles Bowden Reader the essays and photographs in this homage brilliantly capture the spirit of a great writer with a quintessentially American vision Bowden is the best writer you ve n ever read      Writing on the Edge Tom Miller,2003 Gathers essays poems song lyrics and short stories about the U S Mexico borderland with contributions by many famous literary figures

Desert Duty Bill Broyles,Mark Haynes,2010-09-24 Nineteen active duty and retired US Border Patrol agents share stories of working at one of the most dangerous border crossing stations While politicians and pundits endlessly debate immigration policy US Border Patrol agents put their lives on the line to enforce immigration law In a day s work agents may catch a load of narcotics apprehend groups of people entering the country illegally and intercept a potential terrorist Their days often include rescuing aliens from death by thirst or murder by border bandits preventing neighborhood assaults and burglaries and administering first aid to accident victims and may involve delivering an untimely baby or helping stranded motorists As Bill Broyles and Mark Haynes sum it up Border Patrol is a hero job one that too often goes unrecognized by the public Desert Duty puts a human face on the Border Patrol It features interviews with nineteen active duty and retired agents who have worked at the Wellton Arizona station that watches over what is arguably the most perilous crossing along the border a sparsely populated region of the Sonoran Desert with little water and summer temperatures that routinely top 110 F The agents candidly discuss the rewards and frustrations of holding the line against illegal immigrants smugglers and other criminals while often having to help the very people they are trying to thwart when they get into trouble in the desert As one agent explains The thrill is tracking em up before they die It s a rough ol way to go run outta water in this desert      North Africa and the desert : Scenes and moods George Edward Woodberry,2023-07-11 In North Africa and the Desert Scenes and Moods George Edward Woodberry masterfully captures the ethereal beauty and complex atmospheres of North Africa s diverse landscapes Employing a rich descriptive literary style Woodberry paints vivid scenes of desert vistas ancient towns and the interplay of light and shadow across the sand This work not only immerses the reader in the physicality of the environment but also explores the emotional and psychological nuances evoked by the settings reflecting the broader literary context of travel writing and Romanticism in the 19th century George Edward Woodberry was an esteemed poet critic and lecturer whose travels in North Africa profoundly shaped his worldview and literary vision His background in literature and appreciation for nature s sublime beauty inspired him to document the landscapes and cultures of the region seeking to bridge the gap between the observer and the observed Woodberry s deep sensitivity to the moods of nature and his keen intellect shine through his writings providing both firsthand observations and philosophical reflections on the human experience within the natural world For those captivated by travel literature atmospheric poetry or the intricacies of human emotions intertwined with nature North Africa and the Desert is an essential read Woodberry s lyrical prose invites readers to traverse the sun drenched sands and experience the evocative landscapes impact on the spirit This book serves not only as a travelogue but as a timeless meditation on the relationship between humanity and the natural world making it a valuable addition to any literary collection

The Game of Ten P. Tanner, 2022-09-28 A Note to the Reader The Universes can travel as they wish They can appear to be whatever they please Many are beautiful and carry great light But there are some who question the balance of neutrality This behavior causes ripples changes in stability Frightful things are born of unbalanced givers Games are made for fun But by whose definition By whose set of rules and to what end What is fun for one may not be fun for another What is considered fair can vary by perception There is a Game greater than any other a Game with rules that contradict and change as they please A Game with glitches and cheaters and more death than can be described This Game is driven by jealousy and hatred and fear and is never ending Unfortunately in a Game like this there is no such thing as fun Where do Humans belong in this Game you may wonder what part do they play
