strength in a literature often left at the canon's edge Focused in part of the red decade of the 1930s Revolutionary Memory revitalizes biographical criticism for writers on the margin and shows us for the first time how progressive poets fused their work into a powerful chorus of political voices Richly detailed and beautifully illustrated with period engravings and woodcuts Revolutionary Memory brings that chorus dramatically to life and set a cultural agenda for future work Hot Music, Ragmentation, and the Bluing of American Literature Steven C. Tracy, 2015-06 Hot Music Ragmentation and the Bluing of American Literature examines the diverse ways in which African American hot music influenced American culture particularly literature in early twentieth century America Steven C Tracy provides a history of the fusion of African and European elements that formed African American hot music and considers how terms like ragtime jazz and blues developed their own particular meanings for American music and society He draws from the fields of literature literary criticism cultural anthropology American studies and folklore to demonstrate how blues as a musical and poetic form has been a critical influence on American literature from dust jacket Cyclopedia of World Authors II Frank Northen Magill, 1989 The Great Machines Robert Hedin, 1996 Here for the first time is a feast for anyone who has ever been beguiled by the trains that formerly thrummed through the landscapes of our lives This entertaining and evocative anthology presents the amazing variety of poems and songs written about the American railroad in the last century and a half Comprised of selections from both oral and written traditions the volume celebrates the historical and cultural significance of this marvel of engineering skills Hedin's anthology allows all readers from the most avid railroad buff to anyone who has fond memories of train travel to enjoy the romance of trains Poetry Harriet Monroe, 1986 The Continuum Encyclopedia of American Literature Steven R.
