Betancourt,2015-12-31 The Temple University Aegean Symposium was an annual event from 1976 until 1985 sponsored by the Department of Art History at Temple University in Philadelphia PA Each year the symposium focused on a specific theme in Aegean Bronze Age art and archaeology This book is a collection of the 10 volumes of articles that were published Aside from incorporating errata the articles are unchanged from the original publications A new Preface and page numbering system are included in this compendium World Archaeoprmatology Bernardo Urbani,Dionisios Youlatos,Andrzej T. Antczak,2022-08-18

Archaeoprimatology intertwines archaeology and primatology to understand the ancient liminal relationships between humans and nonhuman primates. During the last decade, novel studies have boosted this discipline. This edited volume is the first compendium of archaeoprimatological studies ever produced. Written by a culturally diverse group of scholars with multiple theoretical views and methodological perspectives, it includes new zooarchaeological examinations and material culture evaluations as well as innovative uses of oral and written sources. Themes discussed comprise the survey of past primates as pets, symbolic mediators, prey, iconographic references, or living commodities. The book covers different regions of the world from the Americas to Asia, along with studies from Africa and Europe. Temporally, the chapters explore the human-nonhuman primate interface from deep in time to more recent historical times, examining both extinct and extant primate taxa. This anthology of archaeoprimatological studies will be of interest to archaeologists, primatologists, anthropologists, art historians, paleontologists, conservationists, zoologists, historical ecologists, philologists, and ethnobiologists. Mahale Chimpanzees Michio Nakamura, Kazuhiko Hosaka, Noriko Itoh, Koichiro Zamma, 2015-09-10. A major contribution to great ape research covering every aspect of the Mahale Mountain Chimpanzee Project to offer new unique insights. Current Research in Egyptology 2014 Massimiliano S. Pinarello, Justin Yoo, Jason Lundock, Carl Walsh, 2015-04-17. Presents the latest research in Egyptology on the theme of Ancient Egypt in a Global World. This selection of 23 papers from the 15th annual Current Research in Egyptology symposium addresses the interregional and interdisciplinary theme of Ancient Egypt in a Global World. This theme works on a number of levels, highlighting the current global nature of Egyptological research and it places ancient Egypt in the wider ancient world. The first section presents the results of recent excavations, including in the western Valley of the Kings and analysis of the structures, construction techniques, food production and consumption remains at Tell Timai, Thmuis in the Delta. Part II focuses on the cross-cultural theme with papers including discussions on the presence in India of terracotta figurines from Roman Egypt, the ancient Egyptian influence of Aegean lion-headed divinities, Libyan influence in New Kingdom and Third Intermediate Period Egyptian administration, and the identification of ancient Egyptian finds from the British countryside reported to the Portable Antiquities Scheme. The third part of the book includes current research undertaken across the world of Egyptology, including analysis of late Roman crocodile mummies, though non-invasive radiographic imaging techniques and the study of infant jar burials in ancient Egypt and Sudan to identify differences in regional socio-economic contexts and the interaction between people and local resources. The editors of this volume are all PhD candidates at University College and King's College London. Etruscan Civilization Sybille Haynes, 2000. This comprehensive survey of Etruscan civilization from its origin in the Villanovan Iron Age in the ninth century B.C. to its absorption by Rome in the first century B.C. combines well-known aspects of the Etruscan world with new discoveries and fresh insights into the role of women in Etruscan society. In addition, the Etruscans are contrasted to the Greeks whom they often emulated and to the Romans who at once admired and disdained them. The result is a compelling and complete picture of a people and a culture This in depth examination of Etruria examines how differing access to mineral wealth trade routes and agricultural land led to distinct regional variations Heavily illustrated with ancient Etruscan art and cultural objects the text is organized both chronologically and thematically interweaving archaeological evidence analysis of social structure descriptions of trade and burial customs and an examination of pottery and works of art A Companion to the Etruscans Sinclair Bell,Alexandra A. Carpino,2016-02-23 This new collection presents a rich selection of innovative scholarship on the Etruscans a vibrant independent people whose distinct civilization flourished in central Italy for most of the first millennium BCE and whose artistic social and cultural traditions helped shape the ancient Mediterranean European and Classical worlds Includes contributions from an international cast of both established and emerging scholars Offers fresh perspectives on Etruscan art and culture including analysis of the most up to date research and archaeological discoveries Reassesses and evaluates traditional topics like architecture wall painting ceramics and sculpture as well as new ones such as textile archaeology while also addressing themes that have yet to be thoroughly investigated in the scholarship such as the obesus etruscus the function and use of jewelry at different life stages Greek and Roman topoi about the Etruscans the Etruscans reception of ponderation and more Counters the claim that the Etruscans were culturally inferior to the Greeks and Romans by emphasizing fields where the Etruscans were either technological or artistic pioneers and by reframing similarities in style and iconography as examples of Etruscan agency and reception rather than as a deficit of local creativity
