Blueback A Fable For All Ages:

Blueback Tim Winton, 1997 An ecological novel on a boy who protects a fish from property developers and rapacious fishermen The boy who lives on a bay in Australia befriends the fish a blue grouper while diving for abalone his family's trade By the author of The Riders Popular Appeal Lesley Hawkes, Vivienne Muller, Sharyn Pearce, 2013-11-18 Now is an opportune moment to consider the shifts in youth and popular culture that are signalled by texts that are being read and viewed by young people In a world seemingly compromised by climate change political and religious upheavals and economic irresponsibility and at a time of fundamental social change young people are devouring fictional texts that focus on the edges of identity the points of transition and rupture and the assumption of new and hybrid identities This book draws on a range of international texts to address these issues and to examine the ways in which key popular genres in the contemporary market for young people are being re defined and re positioned in the light of urgent questions about the environment identity one's place in the world and the fragile nature of the world itself The key questions are What are the shifts and changes in youth culture that are identified by the market and by what young people read and view How do these texts negotiate the addressing of significant questions relating to the world today Why are these texts so popular with young people What are the most popular genres in contemporary best sellers and films Do these texts have a global appeal and if so why These overarching themes and ideas are presented as a collection of inter related essays exploring a rich variety of forms and styles from graphic novels to urban realism from fantasy to dystopian writing from epic narratives to television musicals The subjects and themes discussed here reveal the quite remarkable diversity of issues that arise in youth fiction and the variety of fictional forms in which they are explored Once seen as not as important as adult fiction this book clearly demonstrates that youth fiction and the popular appeal of this fiction is complex durable and far reaching in its scope

Blueback : a Contemporary Fable , 1997 Blueback details the life of Abel Jackson a diver and later marine biologist from when he was 10 years old into his adult life The title of the book originates from a fish Abel meets while diving in the bay near his house a giant blue groper Abel and his mother Dora name it Blueback and they repeatedly visit it as it spends its life on the reef there Abel lives with Blueback through many hard times including protecting him from a poacher Abel grows up to become a marine biologist as a result of his passion for the sea and love of Blueback

Sand In Our Souls Leone Huntsman, 2013-05-09 Images of the beach pervade Australian popular culture However the deeper significance of the experience of the beach and its influence on Australian culture generally have not yet been seriously explored How why and when did the beach become part of the Australian way of life In Sand in our Souls Leone Huntsman describes the forces and pressures that encouraged or impeded Australians enjoyment of sand and surf from early enjoyment of bathing through nearly a century of repressive restrictions to freedom won in the face of drawn out opposition The ways in which artists writers film makers and the advertising industry have depicted the beach are examined for the light they throw on the beach

s significance She traces the development of a distinctively Australian way of being at the beach suggesting that the beach experience has been absorbed into our emerging culture and continues to shape it in subtle ways Huntsman s provocative arguments will stimulate debate on the concept of national identity appropriate for a new Australian century and promote a deeper understanding of an aspect of life in Australia that is cherished by many of those who live here Murray Paul Sinclair,2013-05-24 The Murray River is in crisis and faces an uncertain future In this evocative book Paul Sinclair explores the reasons why the river has become degraded and what these changes have meant to Australians This in depth study of the Murray River examines the changing cultural meanings of the river the practical forgetfulness which has eroded the Aboriginal presence the triumphant narratives in which a supposedly empty land is made purposeful by the life giving powers of the Murray the passion to make the river s flow predictable and to replace primitive forces with a domesticated and balanced landscape The focus is on shifts and changes Sinclair describes the brief heyday of the riverboats and their transformation into a tourist attraction the decline of the mighty Murray cod and the rise of the European carp and the changing fortunes of the river towns He demonstrates that progress is often a myth and that ecological degradation always has cultural costs This is an innovative cultural and environmental history about landscape and fish memory and concepts imagination and desire Through a complex interweaving of history analysis poetry art and individuals recollections Paul Sinclair has created an original and subtly conceived work offering imaginative space to think about land and water in new ways Fishermen farmers tourists environmentalists lovers of the Australian landscape all these people will want to read this beautifully written book It will be an essential resource for those directly involved in the future of the Murray River contributing to the larger debate about Australia s threatened environment Australian Writers, 1975-2000 Selina Samuels,2006 Essays on the literary historiography of Australia provide an overview of prominent and influential Australian writers of the literary and cultural movements from 1975 to 2000 A period marked by strong female voices and concern to represent the female experience Discusses the wide stylistic sweep of the Australian writers of this period the diversity of poetry dramatists who wrote scripts for movies and television and traditional genres such as fiction and drama The Economist ,2000 Who's who in Australia 2008 ,2007 A biographic reference to notable people in Australia Entrants are drawn from all areas of Australian life including the arts politics education medicine defence business diplomatic service and recipients of honours and awards Dining Out with Mr Lunch Murray Waldren,1999 A collection of interviews with a variety of writers who talk about themselves life and the creative process Writers interviewed include Oliver Sacks J P Donleavy and Roald Dahl Waldren is a writer for The Australian newspaper Distributed by ISBS Annotation c Book News Inc Portland OR International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications,2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature TheInternational Who s Who of Authors and Writersoffers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and
