Bluenose Justice True Tales Of Mischief Mayhem And Murder:

Bluenose Justice Dean Jobb,1993 Racism, Eh? Charmaine Nelson,Camille Antoinette Nelson,2004 Racism Eh is the first publication that examines racism within the broad Canadian context This anthology brings together some of the visionaries who are seeking to illuminate the topics of race and racism in Canada through the analysis of historical and contemporary issues which address race and racism as both material and psychic phenomena Fundamentally interdisciplinary in nature this text will be an invaluable resource for undergraduate and graduate students academics studying or practicing within the Humanities and the Social Sciences and anyone seeking information on what has been a little explored and poorly understood Canadian issue pub desc City of Order Michael Boudreau,2012-05-15 Interwar Halifax was a city in flux a place where citizens debated adopting new ideas and technologies but agreed on one thing modernity was corrupting public morality and unleashing untold social problems on their fair city To create a bulwark against further social dislocation citizens policy makers and officials modernized the city s machinery of order courts prisons and the police force and placed greater emphasis on crime control These tough on crime measures Boudreau argues did not resolve problems but rather singled out ethnic minorities working class men and female and juvenile offenders as problem figures in the eternal quest for order Black Ice George Robert Fosty,Darril Fosty,2007 The Colored Hockey League of the Maritimes was formed in 1895 in Halifax Nova Scotia Canada Comprised of the sons and the grandsons of runaway American slaves the league helped pioneer the sport of ice hockey changing this winter game from the primitive gentleman s past time of the Nineteenth Century to the to the modern fast moving game of today In an era when many believed Blacks could not endure cold possessed ankles too weak to effectively skate and lacked the intelligence for organized sport these men defied the established myths The Colored League was one of the most complex sports organizations ever created and was lead by Baptist ministers and church laymen Natural leaders and proponents of Black Pride these men represented a concept in sports never before seen Their rule book was The Bible Their game book the coded words and oral history derived from the experiences of American slavery and the Underground Railroad Their strategy the principles and teachings of American Black leader Booker T Washington the founder of the Tuskegee Institute and a believer in the concept of racial equality through racial separation Twenty five years before the Negro Baseball Leagues in the United States and twenty two years before the birth of the National Hockey League the Colored League would emerge as a premier force in Canadian hockey and supply the resilience necessary to preserve a unique culture which exists to this day Unfortunately their contributions were conveniently ignored or simply stolen as White teams and hockey officials influenced by the Black league copied elements of the Black style or sought to take self credit for Black hockey innovations Seven years of research has gone into this book This is the first book ever written on the Colored Hockey League of the Maritimes Directions Home George Elliott Clarke,2012-09-26 The latest work from pioneering scholar George Elliott Clarke Directions Home is the most comprehensive analysis of African Canadian texts and writers to date Building on the discoveries of his critically acclaimed Odysseys Home Clarke passionately analyses the beautiful complexities and haunting conundrums of this important body of literature Directions Home explores the trajectories and tendencies of African Canadian literature within the Canadian canon and the socio cultural traditions of the African Diaspora Clarke showcases the importance of little known texts including church histories and slave narratives and offers studies of autobiography crime and punishment jazz poetics and musical composition The collection also includes studies of significant contemporary writers such as George Boyd and Dionne Brand and trailblazing African Canadian intellectuals like A B Walker and Anna Minerva Henderson With its national bilingual and historical perspectives Directions Home is an essential guide to African Canadian literature George & Darril Fosty's

Black Ice George Robert Fosty, Darril Fosty, 2008 In 1895 The Colored Hockey League of the Maritimes was formed in Halifax Nova Scotia This was Twenty five years before the Negro Baseball Leagues in the United States and twenty two years before the birth of the National Hockey League The Colored League would emerge as a premier force in Canadian hockey and supply the resilience necessary to preserve a unique culture which exists to this day Unfortunately their contributions were conveniently ignored or simply stolen as white teams and hockey officials influenced by the black league copied elements of the black style or sought to take self credit for black hockey innovations Black Ice is the first written record of the Colored Hockey League in the Maritimes James Robinson Johnston Justin Marcus Johnston, 2005 James Robinson Johnston known as Lawyer Johnston to many is an important figure in Nova Scotian history not only was he the first Black graduate of Dalhousie University he was the first Black graduate of Dalhousie Law School as well This biography deals with Johnston's personal and professional life his role as a brilliant lawyer community man and husband It also deals with the sensitive issue of his death at the hands of his brother in law Harry Allen which caused a scandal when it occurred in March 1915 Author and descendant Justin Johnston looks at the associated impact the death and the killer's trial had on Nova Scotia's Black community both past and present At the pinnacle of his career Johnston was one of the best lawyers the province had ever seen Unfortunately the circumstances of Johnston's death have overshadowed the significance of his life causing this great man to be largely forgotten This story reclaims Johnston while examining the historical factors and racial climates that influenced this extraordinary man's life Justin Johnston weaves family lore with history and includes rare photographs of the lawyer his family and friends as well as personal correspondence and private papers from the family vaults Canadian Books in Print, 1997 Acadiensis, 1994 A Bibliography on Foreign and Comparative Law, 1955 Quill & Quire, 1993 International Books in Print, 1997 Night Justice Peter Edwards, 2004 February 2005 is the 125th anniversary of the Donnelly mass murder Night Justice is the first serious re evaluation of this crime and features previously unpublished material Late on the frigid night of February 4 1880 five members of the Donnelly family were slaughtered in their homes near Lucan a hamlet outside London Ontario The Toronto Globe called it the blackest crime that ever disgraced and shocked the Dominion The killers were a mob of neighbours a vigilante society incited by the local parish priest to take matters into their own hands Known as night justice this practice was all too common in small communities In fact the local police constable Michael Carroll was a leader of the vigilante murderers A brutal history of clan violence formed the backdrop for the murders and cover up Even with a witness who testified in open court an 11 year old boy who hid beneath a bed during the slaughter and other evidence pointing to the culprits only one man the police officer ever faced murder charges and he was acquitted Drawing on court transcripts archival searches material obtained through the Freedom of Information Act Peter Edwards tells a shocking tale with fresh revelations on the Donnelly family murder and trial
