Armchair Traveler:

The Armchair Traveler John Thorn, 1989 Gathers travel writings by Margaret Atwood Peter Benchley Heinrich Boll Bruce Chatwin Gerald Durrell Graham Greene Peter Matthiessen John McPhee and Paul Theroux Around the World: The Grand Tour in Photo Albums Barbara Levine, Kirsten Jensen, 2007-10-04 With snapshots passenger lists itineraries and postcards and from Cairo to Burma and back again authors Barbara Levine and Kirsten Jensen transport readers back to the dawn of world travel when the middle class toured the world for the first time Traveling in Place Bernd Stiegler, 2024-05-31 Armchair travel may seem like an oxymoron Doesn't travel require us to leave the house And yet anyone who has lost herself for hours in the descriptive pages of a novel or the absorbing images of a film knows the very real feeling of having explored and experienced a different place or time without ever leaving her seat No passport no currency no security screening required the luxury of armchair travel is accessible to us all In Traveling in Place Bernd Stiegler celebrates this convenient magical means of transport in all its many forms Organized into twenty one legs or short chapters Traveling in Place begins with a consideration of Xavier de Maistre's 1794 Voyage autour de ma chambre an account of the forty two day journey around his room Maistre undertook as a way to entertain himself while under house arrest Stiegler is fascinated by the notion of exploring the familiar as though it were completely new and strange He engages writers as diverse as Roussel Beckett Perec Robbe Grillet Cortázar Kierkegaard and Borges all of whom show how the everyday can be brilliantly transformed Like the best guidebooks Traveling in Place is more interested in the idea of travel as a state of mind than as a physical activity and Stiegler reflects on the different ways that traveling at home have manifested themselves in the modern era from literature and film to the virtual possibilities of the Internet blogs and contemporary art Reminiscent of the pictorial meditations of Sebald but possessed of the intellectual playfulness of Calvino Traveling in Place offers an entertaining and creative Baedeker to journeying at home THE TRAVEL WRITER'S GUIDE Dr. Shobha Ramaswamy, The Armchair Traveler John Thorn, David Reuther, 1988-01-01 Boys' Life, 1977-09 Boys' Life is the official youth magazine for the Boy Scouts of America Published since 1911 it contains a proven mix of news nature sports history fiction science comics and Scouting Ancestry magazine, 2002-09 Ancestry magazine focuses on genealogy for today's family historian with tips for using Ancestry.com advice from family history experts and success stories from genealogists across the globe Regular features include Found by Megan Smolenyak reader submitted heritage recipes Howard Wolinsky's tech driven NextGen feature articles a timeline how to tips for Family Tree Maker and insider insight to new tools and records at Ancestry.com Ancestry magazine is published 6 times yearly by Ancestry Inc parent company of Ancestry.com The Traveler's Tales Pasquale De Marco, 2025-04-26 In The Traveler's Tales Pasquale De Marco takes readers on an extraordinary journey around the globe weaving together personal anecdotes cultural insights and historical tidbits to create a tapestry of travel experiences that is both inspiring and informative From bustling city streets to tranquil mountain villages from ancient

Home on the Rails Amy G. Richter,2006-03-13 Recognizing the railroad s importance as both symbol and experience in Victorian America Amy G Richter follows women travelers onto trains and considers the consequences of their presence there For a time Richter argues nineteenth century Americans imagined the public realm as a chaotic and dangerous place full of potential where various groups came together collided and influenced one another for better or worse The example of the American railroad reveals how by the beginning of the twentieth century this image was replaced by one of a domesticated public realm a public space in which both women and men increasingly strove to make themselves at home Through efforts that ranged from the homey touches of railroad car decor to advertising images celebrating female travelers and legal cases sanctioning gender segregated spaces travelers and railroad companies transformed the railroad from a place of risk and almost unlimited social mixing into one in which white men and women alleviated the stress of unpleasant social contact Making themselves at home aboard the trains white men and women domesticated the railroad for themselves and paved the way for a racially segregated and class stratified public space that freed women from the home yet still preserved the railroad as a masculine domain
