Armed Struggle And Democracy The Case Of South Africa Discubion Paper :

Armed Struggle and Democracy Martin Legassick, 2002 The impact of the concept s of armed struggle for the notion s of democracy in South ern Africa is the focus of this paper Originally submitted to a conference on Re Conceptualising Democracy and Liberation in Southern Africa held in Windhoek Namibia during July 2002 it argues from the point of departure of the personal involvement of the author in the issues raised The author was part of a group which criticised the strategy of armed struggle in the ANC With this paper he inspires a debate which can claim relevance for current issues of democracy in South Africa and the Southern African region more generally Given the degree of personal involvement of its author this analysis is contemporary history based on personal insights and provides arguments for a necessary discussion

The Road to Democracy in South Africa: 1970-1980 South African Democracy Education Trust, 2004 v 3 The third volume in the series examines the role of anti apartheid movements around the world The global anti apartheid movement was very successful in creating awareness of the liberation struggle in South Africa and in contributing to the downfall of the apartheid government This volume in 2 parts brings together analyses which in the main are written by activist scholars with deep roots in the movements and organizations they are writing about Re-examining Liberation in Namibia Henning Melber, 2003 From 1960 SWAPO of Nami bia led the organised and later armed struggle for indepen dence In late 1989 the libera tion movement was finally elected to power under United Nations supervision as the legitimate government When the Republic of Namibia was proclaimed on 21 March 1990 the long and bitter struggle for sovereignty came to an end This volume takes stock of emerging trends in the country s political culture since independence The contributions mainly by authors from Namibia and Southern Africa who supported the anti colonial movements critically explore the achieve ments and shortcomings that have been part of liberation in Namibia Henning Melber was Director of the Namibian Economic Policy Research Unit NEPRU in Windhoek between 1992 and 2000 and has been Research Director at The Nordic Africa Institute since then He coordinates the research project on Liberation and Democracy in Southern Africa of which this volume is part Umkhonto We Sizwe Janet Cherry, 2011 Umkhonto weSizwe was arguably the last of the great liberation movements of the 20th century but it never got to match triumphant into Pretoria A small communist trained group of revolutionaries committed to the seizure of power they found their principals engaged in negotiated settlement with the enemy and were disbanded soon after The history of MK is one of paradox and contradiction of successes and failures In this pocket guide which draws widely on the pesonal experiences of MK soldiers Janet Cherry offers a new and nuanced account of Umkhonto She presents in broad outline the various stages in MK s thirty year history considers the difficult strategic and moral problems the army faced and argues that its operations are likely to be remembered as a just war conducted with considerable restraint External Mission Stephen Ellis, 2022-07-15 External Mission helped me understand better how the phenomenon of Jacob Zuma and his main legacy state capture became possible MAX DU PREEZ After the ANC was banned by the apartheid government in 1960 many of its leaders and members were forced to leave the country During the next three decades it had to operate in exile and underground Yet the real history of this period remains shrouded in mystery Some events such as the Rhodesian campaign of 1967 1968 and the Kabwe conference of 1985 are well known but lesser known are the intense factional struggles within the organisation recurring pro democracy protests and the creation of a security apparatus that inspired widespread fear Some networks within the exiled ANC became heavily involved in corruption even colluding with elements of the apartheid security police and secret services External Mission aims to provide a full account of the ANC s years in exile penetrating the secrecy the organisation erected around itself and testing the myths that emerged from that period It is based on an exceptionally wide range of sources including the ANC s own archives and foreign archives such as those in East Germany where the movement s security personnel were trained Incisive and revealing External Mission is key to understanding South Africa today

Redistribution by Growth des ANC ist ins Stocken geraten Landscape of Memory Sabine Marschall,2009-12-14 Under the aegis of the post apartheid government much emphasis has been placed on the transformation and democratisation of the heritage sector in South Africa since 1994 The emergent new landscape of memory relies heavily on commemorative monuments memorials and statues aimed at reconciliation nation building and the creation of a shared public history But not everyone identifies with these new symbolic markers and their associated interpretation of the past Drawing on a number of theoretical perspectives this book critically investigates the flourishing monument phenomenon in South Africa the political discourses that fuel it its impact on identity formation its potential benefits and most importantly its ambivalences and contradictions Reflections on War Thean Potgieter,Ian Liebenberg,2012-10-01 Reflections on War is a comprehensive and objective investigation into the problems of war The book explores the crucial link between theory strategy and objectives in war taking all the evidence and theory into account and should be of interest to military practitioners specialists in defence studies and others interested in military history Also notable about the work is its ability to draw insights together from international legal theory management sciences history sociology and the political economy of war showing due respect for the moral complexities involved in waging war Discussion Paper ,1987 The Namibian War of Independence, 1966-1989 Richard Dale,2014-10-21 The decolonization of Namibia was delayed from 1966 to 1989 the period of the war of independence pitting the Namibian nationalists against the South African minority ruled regime This book describes the diplomatic economic and military campaigns of the Namibian and South African belligerents and draws a comparison with several other decolonization wars Using data from parliamentary debates the aftermath is examined of the Namibian war and the newly independent nation The book provides a basis for further investigation of the decolonization process The African National Congress and the Regeneration of Political Power Susan Booysen,2011-11-11 The African National Congress is light years beyond the liberation movement of old It remains a juggernaut but its control and dominance are no longer watertight The ANC lives the contradictions of weaknesses cracks and factions while retaining its colossal status As a party movement it draws on its liberation credentials and extracts immense power from its deep anchorage in South Africa s people It is immersed in electoral politics that marks the state of its overwhelming power cyclically As government the ANC is the object of protest but not protest designed to bring the ruling party to its knees The ANC is in command of the state yet fails to definitively counter the deficits that make South Africa s democracy seem so diluted Its incredulous and thus far trusting supporters condemn but only rarely punish deployees who do not pass through the eye of the needle The ANC and the Regeneration of Political Power unpacks these contradictions It focuses on four faces of the ANC s political power the organisation the people political parties and elections and policy and government and explores how the ANC has acted since 1994 to continuously regenerate its power By 2011 12 the power configurations around the ANC were converging to a conjuncture holding vexing uncertainties This book presents insights into how South African politics in many ways synonymous with the politics of the ANC is likely to unfold in years and possibly decades to come

Political and economic drivers of Sudan's armed conflict: Implications for the agri-food system Abushama, Hala, Resnick, Danielle, Siddig, Khalid, Kirui, Oliver K., 2023-10-27 This study assesses the political economy of the conflict between the Sudan Armed Forces SAF and the Rapid Support Forces RSF that brought out in April 2023 resulting in massive violence displacement and threats to food security Based on a series of key informant interviews and other secondary materials this study identifies that the primary underlying driver of the conflict relates to the rise of competition between the SAF and RSF over productive resources including within the agri food system This scenario has been facilitated by a longstanding lack of scrutiny accountability and transparency over the distribution of economic rents and commercial holdings between the two factions Additionally the capture of rents from different industries and resources has been a key contributor to the geographic expansion of the conflict As the conflict continues to rage between the two groups and their associates it continues to impose considerable impacts on different actors within the agri food system posing significant challenges to the planting season and crop production introducing blockades of trade routes and a near cessation of agro processing We discuss these aspects of the ensuing conflict in view of the uncertainty about political and economic developments and propose policy recommendations for rebuilding Sudan s agri food system holistically under different scenarios
