Islam and Christianity in Medieval Anatolia A.C.S. Peacock, Bruno De Nicola, 2016-03-09 Islam and Christianity in Medieval Anatolia offers a comparative approach to understanding the spread of Islam and Muslim culture in medieval Anatolia It aims to reassess work in the field since the 1971 classic by Speros Vryonis The Decline of Hellenism in Asia Minor and the Process of Islamization which treats the process of transformation from a Byzantinist perspective Since then research has offered insights into individual aspects of Christian Muslim relations but no overview has appeared Moreover very few scholars of Islamic studies have examined the problem meaning evidence in Arabic Persian and Turkish has been somewhat neglected at the expense of Christian sources and too little attention has been given to material culture The essays in this volume examine the interaction between Christianity and Islam in medieval Anatolia through three distinct angles opening with a substantial introduction by the editors to explain both the research background and the historical problem making the work accessible to scholars from other fields The first group of essays examines the Christian experience of living under Muslim rule comparing their experiences in several of the major Islamic states of Anatolia between the eleventh and fifteenth centuries especially the Seljuks and the Ottomans The second set of essays examines encounters between Christianity and Islam in art and intellectual life They highlight the ways in which some traditions were shared across confessional divides suggesting the existence of a common artistic and hence cultural vocabulary The final section focusses on the process of Islamisation above all as seen from the Arabic Persian and Turkish textual evidence with special attention to the role of Sufism

The Karabakh Conflict Between Armenia and Azerbaijan M. Hakan Yavuz, Michael M. Gunter, 2022-11-29 This book focuses on Post Soviet ethnic conflicts and Russia's involvement in them In light of its significant importance for general ethnic conflict specifically the post Soviet Caucasus along with the most recent war just fought over the area from September November 2020 this book appropriately argues that it is time to reconsider Karabakh This project deals with the historical social and political aspects of the Karabakh issue regarding its origins development and the current status of the conflict subsequent to the war in the autumn of 2020 Thus the main themes will stress these points as well as the importance of the Karabakh issue for the future by considering its precedents and implications for other secessionist wars This book also explores how such wars begin and end the international legal precedents of self determination versus territorial integrity its implications for post Soviet developments and conflicts and the latest successful weapons developments lessons from the recent war involving drones among others such as Azerbaijan's rich oil reserves

History of the Caucasus Christoph Baumer, 2023-10-05 A landscape of high mountains and narrow valleys stretching from the Black to the Caspian Seas the Caucasus region has been home to human populations for nearly 2 million years In this richly illustrated 2 volume series historian and explorer Christoph Baumer tells the story of the region's history through to the present day It is a story of encounters between many different peoples from Scythians Turkic and Mongol peoples of the East to Greeks and Romans from the West from Indo European tribes from the West as well as the East and to Arabs and Iranians from the South It is a story of rival claims by Empires and nations and of how the region has become home to more than 50 languages that can be heard within its borders to this very day This first volume charts the period from the emergence of the earliest human populations in the region the first known human populations outside Africa to the Seljuk conquests of 1050AD Along the way the book charts the development of Neolithic Iron and Bronze Age cultures the first recognizable Caucasian state and the arrival of a succession of the great transnational Empires from the Greeks the Romans and the Armenian to competing
