Armenian Poetry Old And New A Bilingual Anthology:

Armenian poetry, old and new [armen.u.engl.] A bilingual anthology, 1979 The Armenian poetic tradition is rich in both language and spirit and this bilingual anthology presents the reader with the opportunity to enjoy in modern English a sampling of that richness Representative poems of sixteen centuries are chronologically arranged there are hymns from the classical period medieval mystical and love poems poems of war and agonized witness and poems of socialist realism The collection also includes the complete text of the Hovhanness Toumanian version of the folk epic David of Sassoun The Armenian text of each poem faces its translation so the book will be useful to the Armenian student and scholar alike But whether the reader speaks English or Armenian or both he will find here treasures of a varied and little known literature

Armenian Poetry Old and New Aram Tolegian, Armenian Poetry, Old and New Արամ Տոլեգյան, 1979 The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France, 2000 Translation has been a crucial process in world culture over the past two millennia and more In the English speaking cultures many of the most important texts are translations from Homer to Beckett the Bible to Freud Although recent years have seen a boom in translation studies there has been no comprehensive yet convenient guide to this essential element of literature in English Written by eminent scholars from many countries the Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation meets this need and will be essential reading for all students of English and comparative literature It highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the issues raised making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Korean from Swahili to Russian For some works e g Virgil s Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available The Guide is divided into two parts Part I contains substantial essays on theoretical questions a pioneering outline of the history of translation into English and discussions of the problems raised by specific types of text e g poetry oral literature The second much longer part consists of entries grouped by language of origin some are devoted to individual texts e g the Thousand and One Nights or writers e g Ibsen Proust but the majority offer a critical overview of a genre e g Chinese poetry Spanish Golden Age drama or of a national literature e g Hungarian Scottish Gaelic There is a selective bibliography for each entry and an index of authors and translators The Heritage of Armenian Literature Agop Jack Hacikyan, 2000 The second volume of The Heritage of Armenian Literature continues the highly acclaimed and monumental project of presenting Armenia s literary treasures to an English speaking audience Nowhere else can students and general readers easily find a comprehensive English language guide to these masterpieces complete with important background information and vivid accurate translations of key sample passages Volume 2 takes readers through the medieval period up to the eighteenth century As in the previous volume the editors here offer a wide and varied range of readings that encompasses the literary panorama of this ancient civilization They situate each work as extensively as possible within its theological historical and philosophical contexts while highlighting aspects that will be meaningful to readers in light of modern scholarship

The Heritage of Armenian Literature: From the oral tradition to the Golden Age Agop Jack Hacikyan, Gabriel Basmajian, Edward S. Franchuk, Nourhan Ouzounian, 2000 Armenian written literature originated almost 16 centuries ago with the invention of the Armenian alphabet This anthology translated into English takes a comprehensive approach to capturing the essence of the literature of the entire period covered

The Cinema of Sergei Parajanov James Steffen, 2013-10-31 Sergei Parajanov 1924 90 flouted the rules of both filmmaking and society in the Soviet Union and paid a heavy personal price An ethnic Armenian in the multicultural atmosphere of Tbilisi Georgia he was one of the most innovative directors of postwar Soviet cinema Parajanov succeeded in creating a small but marvelous body of work whose style embraces such diverse influences as folk art medieval miniature painting early cinema Russian and European art films surrealism and Armenian Georgian and Ukrainian cultural motifs The Cinema of Sergei Parajanov is the first English language book on the director's films and the most comprehensive study of his work James Steffen provides a detailed overview of Parajanov's artistic career his identity as an Armenian in Georgia and its impact on his aesthetics his early films in Ukraine his international breakthrough in 1964 with Shadows of Forgotten Ancestors his challenging 1969 masterpiece The Color of Pomegranates which was reedited against his wishes his unrealized projects in the 1970s and his eventual return to international prominence in the mid to late 1980s with The Legend of the Surami Fortress and Ashik Kerib Steffen also provides a rare behind the scenes view of the Soviet film censorship process and tells the dramatic story of Parajanov's conflicts with the authorities culminating in his 1973 77 arrest and imprisonment on charges related to homosexuality Ultimately the figure of Parajanov offers a fascinating case study in the complicated dynamics of power nationality politics ethnicity sexuality and culture in the republics of the former Soviet Union Outstanding Academic Title Choice Magazine

Islam, Nationalism, and 1000 Years of European Poetry David Aberbach, 2025-08-29 Islam Nationalism and 1000 Years of European Poetry considers the long history of Islam and European poetry and its central importance in the development of European culture David Aberbach offers a panoramic history of European poetry as it was affected by the centuries long conflict between Islam and Christianity from the early medieval Old French chanson de geste The Song of Roland set against the Muslim invasion of France in the eighth century to Fishta's The Highland Lute the early twentieth century Albanian epic of the struggle for independence from Ottoman rule achieved in 1912 Aberbach surveys some of the outstanding poetry set against Islamic conquests and domination particularly in Spain and the Balkans The book includes detailed comparisons between medieval and modern Arabic and Hebrew poetry closely linked in technique and subject matter but moving apart after 1789 A result of constant religious warfare in Europe was disillusionment with religion increasing focus on humanistic concerns and the evolution of a secular State separate from religion This captivating history of Islam and European poetry will be of great interest to any scholars of nationalism Jewish and Islamic Studies history comparative literature and cultural studies
