Arms and Daggers in the Heart of Africa Peter Anyang' Nyong'o, 1993 State Collapse and Post-conflict Development in Africa Abdullah A. Mohamoud, 2006 Mohamoud's work considers the underlying causes for the breakdown of the state across both time and space. Time is considered across the triple history: the pre colonial, colonial and post colonial processes. Space is used in the sense of taking the whole of Somalia as a unit of analysis. This approach enables the discovery of different structural crises over a period of time and examines these cumulative effects on the current upheavals in Somalia. Among the approaches, State Collapse and Post Conflict Development in Africa covers the constraints in the harsh material environment, the subsistence pastoral mode of existence, the colonial intervention and the subsequent division of the land into five parts. Cold War geopolitics, decades of armed struggles and the post colonial crisis of governance. Dr Abdulla Awil Mohamoud runs SAHAN, an academic research and consultancy agency which conducts policy oriented research and fact finding missions abroad, mainly in Africa, undertakes evaluation and monitoring activities, provides training and offers advisory services on integration and multi cultural issues. He holds an MA degree from Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi and earned his PhD at the University of Amsterdam. Mohamoud has served regularly as an election observer in UN, EU, Council of Europe and OSCE missions to conflict and war torn societies in East Timor, Kosovo, Nigeria, Serbia and Zimbabwe.

Early Warning and Conflict Management in the Horn of Africa Cirú Mwaûra, Susanne Schmeidl, 2002. The Horn of Africa has come to be defined by the frequency and intensity of its violent conflicts. Yet whereas in other regions conflict prevention stresses formal top down inter governmental structures, in the Horn of Africa an alternative conflict management regime that seeks to build on local capacity and is based on inclusive and collaborative decision making has emerged. This publication outlines the two year process of CEWARN's and IGAD's development. Africa and the International System Christopher S. Clapham, 1996-09-12. Paying for the state The Politics of Post-War Demobilisation and Reintegration in Nigeria Olukunle Ojeleye, 2016-02-24. With an increasing international interest in post civil war demobilisation and reintegration, especially in Africa, Ojeleye presents a well timed body of knowledge on the Nigerian civil war. Moreover, this book provides an in depth study of the modalities and processes of the demobilisation and reintegration exercises carried out at the end of the Nigerian civil war and assesses their implications for national politics in the West African nation. The author identifies the political, socio economic and cultural background to the Nigerian civil war and discusses the central theme of demobilisation, disarmament and reintegration (DDR) in Nigeria against the backdrop of the policy of the country's post war reconstruction, reconciliation and rehabilitation exercise, the 3Rs. Though the central theme is Nigeria, it compares the demobilisation and reintegration exercise in Nigeria with other attempts in Sub Sahara Africa by highlighting the important deviations and drawing some conclusions on the Nigerian experience. It also touches on issues relating to international involvement and intervention in civil wars and the roles of the African Union, the Commonwealth of Nations and the United Nations Africa After the Cold War Adebayo Oyeade, Abiodun Alao, 1998 Although it is widely recognised that Africa's security problems are acute it has never been a subject of much intellectual inquiry This lack of scholarly discourse on the many dimensions of the problems of African security is the major consideration of this book The approach to the questions of security differ markedly from the traditional approach that gives primacy to the threat of military aggression as sole factor in state security A departure must be made from this dominant preoccupation in a new global order that has seen profound changes

The Road to the Two Sudans Souad Ali,Richard Lobban,2014-03-17 Parallel with the previous volume of conference papers in 2008 Sudan's Wars and Peace Agreements most of these selected and thematic articles were originally presented as papers at the 31st meeting of the Sudan Studies Association SSA at Arizona State University in 2012 Since that time the Comprehensive Peace Agreement of 2005 provided for the self determination referendum of 2011 that resulted in the independence of the new Republic of South Sudan The previous book presaged this present volume as the perhaps inevitable outcome of endless conflicts with no serious effort to make unity attractive As this book goes to press the new Republic of South Sudan is itself wracked with violent conflict The hopes to build a new democratic and civil society in the south from the many inherited problems have now devolved to dysfunction itself Reading this book will realistically help in understanding these Roads taken The editors and authors have created a multi faceted account which reveals the complex foundations of these conflicts between north and south and recently within the south itself While Khartoum struggles onward with the Islamist project regional conflicts and grave economic problems Juba stumbles with corruption armed rebellion and a grave humanitarian crisis The half full glass of dreams of social and economic development supported by oil revenue has been replaced by a glass half empty with new varieties of political dysfunction in which both nations have grave problems in security and economic stability in a generally troubled regional neighborhood

Ethnicity Kills? E. Braathen,M. Bøås,G. Saether,2000-02-11 The book examines among other issues the emergence of civil war as a result of political struggles The construction of Africa as the other has meant that factors commonly used to explain war elsewhere have been neglected in SubSaharan Africa The political power struggle which evolved around the state is at the forefront of the analysis of civil war and societal conflict
