served at India House and became Assistant Military Secretary he was privy to all the Colonial correspondence and Mint invoices giving him an incomparable insider's knowledge. The important facts and figures relating to the early Indian and Afghanistan campaign medals within this work have been used by authors and compilers. Commencing with the famous Elizabethan Amada medals of 1588 the listing of the early awards is quite staggering in its scope with obverse and reverse of these rare pieces superbly illustrated. Some 115 illustrations of awards prior to 1800 are set out with a most informative text which often includes warrants, decrees and citations. Also detailed are other gallantry and service rewards such as Jewels, Chains, Swords, Badges and Presentation Scarves. The texts setting out the Napoleonic period Gold Crosses, Gold Medals and their ornate battle bars are accompanied by Official letters and decrees. The Duke of Wellington's magnificent enamelled double chain Gold Collar and Cross awarded for the peninsular and Waterloo is shown in a full colour plate. The text and illustrations of campaign awards for Maida, the Peninsular War, Waterloo, Ceylon, Manila, Java, Burma, Afghanistan, Scinde and other Indian battles are often accompanied with their respective despatches. Issuance figures for some awards are confirmed from British and Indian Mint records. East India Company citations give an insight into some rewards; for instance a named Subadar is noted as being awarded a gold medal and a grant of land for his gallant service at Agra. All the Victorian awards up to 1897 are encompassed, i.e. Gallantry, Campaign and Service awards; many medals are illustrated with their range of multiple campaign bars. Also detailed are Long and Meritorious Service medals. The F.O. Foreign Service medals, all type reverses are shown. Miss Nightingale's Jewel, Best Shot medals for British Army, Indian Army, Bengal Arm, Indian Volunteers, Arctic medals are detailed together with a listing of the ships involved. The work also embraces many associated awards including Davison's Nile and Boulton's Trafalgar medals. The Magdala Medal, four types illustrated. The Pollock Medals, National Rifle Association medals, Recipients of City of London Swords of Honour and East India Company presentation swords. A section names military and naval service dogs that have been awarded medals. The information within these two volumes will reward and expand the knowledge of even the most informed medal enthusiast. No medal library can afford to be without this premier work of reference.

Triquet's Cross John MacFarlane, 2009-09. In Triquet's Cross John MacFarlane tells the story of Paul Triquet, a French Canadian soldier who was awarded the Victoria Cross for bravery in the battle for Casa Berardi during the Second World War.

The British Army, 1783-1815 Kevin Linch, 2024-04-30. The British army between 1783 and 1815, the army that fought in the French Revolutionary and Napoleonic wars, has received severe criticism and sometimes exaggerated praise from contemporaries and historians alike and a balanced and perceptive reassessment of it as an institution and a fighting force is overdue. That is why this carefully considered new study by Kevin Linch is of such value. He brings together fresh perspectives on the army in one of its most tumultuous and famous eras, exploring the global range of its deployment, the varieties of soldiering it had to undertake, its close ties to the political and social situation of the time and its complex relationship with British society and culture. In the face of huge demands on its manpower and direct military threats to the British Isles and territories across the globe the army had to adapt As Kevin Linch demonstrates some changes were significant while others were in the end minor or temporary In the process he challenges the Road to Waterloo narrative of the army s steady progress from the nadir of the 1780s and early 1790s to its strong performances throughout the Peninsular War and its triumph at the Battle of Waterloo His reassessment shows an army that was just good enough to cope with the demanding campaigns it undertook Air University Periodical Index ,1958 Olympiad Champs General Knowledge Class 8 with Past Olympiad Questions 2nd Edition Disha Experts,2020-05-19 The Roman Army, 31 BC - AD 337 Brian Campbell,2006-05-23 The Roman army is remarkable for its detailed organisation and professional structure It not only extended and protected Rome s territorial empire which was the basis of Western civilisation but also maintained the political power of the emperors The army was an integral part of the society and life of the empire and illustrated many aspects of Roman government This sourcebook presents literary and epigraphic material papyri and coins which illustrate the life of the army from recruitment and in the field to peacetime and the community It is designed as a basic tool for students of the Roman army and Roman history in general War College Journal ,2005
