Representing Place Edward S. Casey, 2002-01-01 You are here a map declares but of course you are not any more than you truly occupy the vantage point into which a landscape painting puts you How maps and paintings figure and reconfigure space as well as our place in it is the subject of Edward S Casey s study an exploration of how we portray the world and its many places Casey s discussion ranges widely from Northern Sung landscape painting to nineteenth century American and British landscape painting and photography from prehistoric petroglyphs and medieval portolan charts to seventeenth century Dutch cartography and land survey maps of the American frontier From these culturally and historically diverse forays a theory of representation emerges Casey proposes that the representation of place in visual works be judged in terms not of resemblance but of reconnecting with an earth and world that are not the mere content of mind or language a reconnection that calls for the embodiment and implacement of the human subject

Book jacket Zoom in on Political Maps , 2017-12-15 Where does Illinois end and Indiana begin How do you know you are not entering Kentucky or Missouri instead This informative look at political maps helps readers understand the symbols used for understanding political maps including political borders and national and state capitals Election maps and agricultural maps will also be explored as students analyze them for the information they provide A follow up activity leads students to make their own election map and write questions about it

Rethinking the Power of Maps Denis Wood, 2010-04-16 A contemporary follow up to the groundbreaking Power of Maps this book takes a fresh look at what maps do whose interests they serve and how they can be used in surprising creative and radical ways Denis Wood describes how cartography facilitated the rise of the modern state and how maps continue to embody and project the interests of their creators He demystifies the hidden assumptions of mapmaking and explores the promises and limitations of diverse counter mapping practices today Thought provoking illustrations include U S Geological Survey maps electoral and transportation maps and numerous examples of critical cartography participatory GIS and map art
