Atlantic beaches from Cascais to Estoril Searching for Presence Robert W. Greene, 2022-04-11 Yves Bonnefoy's writings have won him praise not only from readers and critics of French poetry but also thanks to translations into many other languages from readers and critics of poetry far beyond the francophone world. Indeed, Bonnefoy may be the most admired poet to have emerged in France since World War II. Yet his art criticism, dazzling in its scope, possibly as original as his poetry, is yet to receive the attention it deserves. Searching for Presence: Yves Bonnefoy's Writings on Art undertakes to fill that lacuna. Elusive, skirting the ineffable, the notion of presence has haunted Bonnefoy for decades. Central to the notion for the poet is the fleeting experience of mutuality between self and other, of lightning transaction in a transient world of a shared mortal destiny; hence a plenitude within finitude. In an age when so many of his contemporaries seem to view any form of art as wallpaper spanning a void, Bonnefoy's faith in presence is all the more welcome. Focusing on his art criticism, the aspect of the poet's oeuvre in which the notion of presence is the most salient, this study tries to do justice to that fidelity. The Europa International Foundation Directory 2022 Europa Publications, 2022-07-21 Now in its 31st edition, the Europa International Foundation Directory 2022 provides an unparalleled guide to the foundations, trusts, charitable and grantmaking NGOs, and other similar not-for-profit organizations of the world. It provides a comprehensive picture of third-sector activity on a global scale. Users will find names and contact details for some 2,690 institutions worldwide. This new edition has been revised and expanded to include the most comprehensive and up-to-date information on this growing sector. Indexes allow the reader to find organizations by area of activity, including conservation and the environment, science and technology, education and social welfare, and geographical region of operations, e.g., South America, Central America, and the Caribbean, Australasia, Western Europe, and North America. Contents include: A comprehensive directory section organized by country or territory; Details of coordinating bodies and of foundations, trusts, and non-profit organizations; A full index of organizations and indexes by main activity and by geographical area of activity. Abstract Crossings María Amalia García, 2019-07-16 Toward the middle of the 1950s, abstract art became a dominant trend in the Latin American cultural scene. Many artists incorporated elements of abstraction into their rigorous artistic vocabularies, while at the same time the representation of geometric lines and structures filtered into everyday life, appearing in textiles, posters, murals, and landscapes. The translation of a field-changing Spanish language book, Abstract Crossings, analyzes the relationship between, on the one hand, the emergence of abstract proposals in avant-garde groups and, on the other, the institutionalization and newfound hegemony of abstract poetics as part of Latin America's imaginary of modernization. A profusion of mid-century artistic institutional exchanges between Argentina and Brazil makes a study of the trajectories of abstraction in these two countries particularly valuable. Examining the work of artists such as Max Bill, Lygia Clark, Waldemar Cordeiro, and Tom's Maldonado, author María Amalia García rewrites the artistic history of the period and proposes a novel reading of the cultural dialogue between Argentina and Brazil. This is the first book in the new Studies on Latin American Art series, supported by a gift from the art Who were their predecessors In this book the author traces the roots of Participatory Art from Duchamp Mondrian and Moholy Nagy via less well known artists like Lygia Clark and Charlotte Posenenske as well as via better known artists like Joseph Beuys and yvind Fahlstrm to contemporary artists showing an interest in participation like Olafur Eliasson and Antony Gormley Participation is the most important thing that has happened in art Gormley said in 2009 What then is Participatory Art After around 40 years of practice the author tries to distill the essential principles in 10 suggestions for a Manifesto Most central is its focus on the unfolding creative moment itself and on the creativity of the spectator René Char dans le miroir des eaux Ève Duperray, Didier Alexandre, 2008 Bibliographie D'histoire de L'art , 1996
