Radical Pedagogies Beatriz Colomina, Ignacio G. Galán, Evangelos Kotsioris, Anna-Maria Meister, 2022-05-31 Experiments in architectural education in the post World War II era that challenged and transformed architectural discourse and practice In the decades after World War II new forms of learning transformed architectural education These radical experiments sought to upend disciplinary foundations and conventional assumptions about the nature of architecture as much as they challenged modernist and colonial norms decentered building imagined new roles for the architect and envisioned participatory forms of practice Although many of the experimental programs were subsequently abandoned terminated or assimilated they nevertheless helped shape and in some sense define architectural discourse and practice This book explores and documents these radical pedagogies and efforts to defy architecture's status quo The experiments include the adaptation of Bauhaus pedagogy as a means of unlearning under the conditions of decolonization in Africa a movement to design for everybody including the disabled by architecture students and faculty at the University of California Berkeley the founding of a support network for women interested in the built environment regardless of their academic backgrounds and a design studio in the USSR that offered an alternative to the widespread functionalist approach in Soviet design Viewed through their dissolution and afterlife as well as through their founding stories these projects from the last century raise provocative questions about architecture's role in the new century

Which Proximity in Design Education? Rita Assoreira Almendra, 2025-01-30 This book explores various pedagogical viewpoints and dialectical positions within the field of design education and the concept of proximity it has established with industries and manufacturing Which Proximity in Design Education frames a wide range of approaches in design studios on undergraduate graduate and postgraduate levels and their capacity to render meaningful and novel attitudes and actions beyond the classroom The urgent call for resilience in the way we lead our lives has brought our global boundaries and social tensions to the forefront of the conversation and there is a generation of students fully aware of our collective responsibility in this decisive decade As such educators need to rapidly adapt to new tools and ways of teaching design whilst also being challenged on how to educate the designer for the pressing tasks of the near future It presents optimistic solutions for how education can support renovated mindsets and efforts towards common goals This book contains distinct visions of the world and its problems relating to proximity in design education As such the chapters present diversified solutions to these issues which will be of interest to teachers and researchers working in design education

F.C.I. Siza Luis Muñoz, Carlos Seoane, Álvaro Siza, 2002 Dissident Cartographies José Miguel G. Cortés, 2008 The contemporary city in Spain and Latin America and the ensemble of social cultural and personal relationships are the reference points for this project The new city that converts itself into a metropolis unites millions of people through economic social and cultural integration This publication reflects on the new city through works by international contemporary artists including Antoni Abad Carmela Garca Hanna Collins Mario Navarro Alexander Apostol Minerva Cuevas Carlos Garaioa Grupo de Arte Callejero and Itziar Okariz Architecture for Spain's Recovered Democracy Manuel López Segura, 2023-03-30 Historical studies on the involvement of architecture in twentieth century politics have overlooked its contribution to building Spain's democracy This pioneering book seeks to fill that void Between the late 1970s and early 1990s Spain founded representative institutions launched its welfare state and devolved autonomy to its regions The study brings forth the architectural incarnation of that threefold program as it deployed in the Valencian Country a Catalan speaking region on Spain's Mediterranean shores There social democratic authorities mobilized architects planners and graphic artists to devise a newly open public sphere and to recover a local identity that Franco's dictatorship had repressed for decades The research follows the impetus of reform and its contradictions through urban projects designs for cultural amenities and the renovation of governmental and professional bodies Architecture for Spain's Recovered Democracy contributes to current debates on nationalism and the arts the environments of democratic socialism and postmodernism and neoliberalism As a result it widens our understanding of how peripheral regions may yield egalitarian architectures of resistance This book is written for students and researchers in architecture and planning art history spatial politics and Hispanic studies as well as for a general readership interested in inclusive politics in the built environment Neo-Avant-Garde, 2016-08-01 The neo avant garde of the 1950s 60s and 70s is due for a thoroughgoing reassessment This collection of essays represents the first full scale

attempt to deal with the concept from an interdisciplinary standpoint A number of essays in this book concentrate on fine art particularly painting and sculpture thereby adding significantly to the growing art historical literature in the field but a number of the contributions also focus on poetry performance theatre film architecture and music Given that there are also major essays here dealing with geographical blindspots in current neo avant garde studies with thematic issues such as art s entanglement with gender mass culture and politics with key neo avant garde publications and with the purely theoretical problems attaching to the theorisation of the topic this collection offers a multi dimensional approach to the subject which is noticeably lacking elsewhere Taken together these essays represent a consolidated attempt at re thinking the cultural logic of the immediate post World War II period
