Brebbia, A. Martinez Boquera, 2016-12-28 This book contains papers presented at the 1st International Conference on Islamic Heritage Architecture and Art The papers deal with the design of many types of buildings in Islamic countries and the influence that these structural forms have had in non Islamic countries Coverage will also include construction materials There is much to learn from past experiences to arrive at solutions that are environmentally sound and sustainable in the long term As conventional energy resources become scarce the Islamic design heritage can offer invaluable lessons on how to deal with difficult and extreme environments in an efficient manner Traditional architecture and urban environment in most Islamic countries is now being eroded by overemphasis on global type of architecture and city planning Consequently many regions are losing their identity The Conference will aim to review these developments in the light of what the classical Islamic urban designs and architectures have to offer modern society There will also be coverage of conservation techniques appropriate to the materials and structural forms used The papers in this book cover such topics as Architectural conservation Architectural heritage Architecture in Malaysia and Indonesia Climate adaptability Conservation and restoration Historical aspects Houses and gardens Islamic art and globalisation Mosques and minarets Ottoman Istanbul Schools The African Coast The Islamic urban environment The Mediterranean region The use of light Vernacular architecture Wood and wooden roofs The contents will be of interest to all researchers practitioners and government employees actively involved with Islamic Heritage Architecture

Construction Matters Stefan Holzer, Silke Langenberg, Clemens Knobling, Orkun Kasap, 2025-03-04

Construction History Construction Heritage Recent Construction Historiography Industrialization Engineering Sciences Building Materials Building Actors Construction History is still a fairly new and small but quickly evolving field The current trends in Construction History are well reflected in the papers of the present conference Construction History has strong roots in the historiography of the 19th century and the evolution of industrialization but the focus of our research field has meanwhile shifted notably to include more recent and also more distant histories as well This is reflected in these conference proceedings where 65 out of 148 contributed papers deal with the built heritage or building actors of the 20th or 21st century The conference also mirrors the wide spectrum of documentary and analytical approaches comprised within the discipline of Construction History Papers dealing with the technical and functional analysis of specific buildings or building types are complemented by other studies focusing on the lives and formation of building actors from laborers to architects and engineers from economical aspects to social and political implications on legal aspects and the strong ties between the history of construction and the history of engineering sciences The conference integrates perfectly into the daily work at the Institute for Preservation and Construction History at ETH Zurich Its two chairs the Chair for Building Archaeology and Construction History and the Chair for Construction Heritage and Preservation endeavor to cover the entire field and to bridge the gaps between the different approaches methodologies and disciplines between various centuries as well as technologies learning together and from each other The proceedings of 8ICCH give a representative picture of the state of the art in the field and will serve as a reference point for future studies

Arqueología e historia en la colonia española de Floridablanca, Patagonia, siglo XVIII María Ximena Senatore, 2007-01-01

El libro Arqueología e Historia en la Colonia Española de Floridablanca expone ilusiones y utopías subyacentes al proyecto de poblamiento español de la Costa Patagónica de fines del siglo XVIII. En sus páginas se presentan nuevas miradas a la colonia de efímera existencia 1780-1784 y se invita a redescubrir sus restos materiales localizados en las cercanías de Puerto San Julián, Provincia de Santa Cruz, Argentina. Fue escrito con el propósito de dar a conocer los primeros pasos en el estudio del sitio arqueológico y ofrecer una perspectiva particular en el análisis de documentos históricos inéditos. La autora discute los mecanismos mediante los cuales una realidad social específica fue construida explorando la relación entre la creación de determinadas condiciones materiales y la estructuración de las relaciones sociales. Sus ideas articulan las narrativas y las materialidades que hoy conforman Floridablanca. Concluye su libro proponiendo a Floridablanca como escenario en el que se ensayó un modelo novedoso de sociedad inspirado en los discursos ilustrados. Asistió a Floridablanca en el mapa de los múltiples itinerarios de la modernidad.

Colonial and Postcolonial Change in Mesoamerica Rani T. Alexander, Susan Kepecs, 2018-11-01 This book offers a new account of human interaction and culture change for Mesoamerica that connects the present to the past Social histories that assess the cultural upheavals between the Spanish invasion of Mesoamerica and the ethnographic present overlook the archaeological record with its unique capacity to link local practices to global processes To fill this gap the authors weigh the material manifestations of the colonial and postcolonial trajectory in light of local regional and global historical processes that have unfolded over the last five hundred years Research on a suite of issues economic history production of commodities agrarian change resistance religious shifts and sociocultural identity demonstrates that the often shocking patterns observed today are historically contingent and culturally mediated and therefore explainable This book belongs to a new wave of scholarship that renders the past immediately relevant to the present which Alexander and Kepecs see as one of archaeology s most crucial goals
