Arrow Of God:

Arrow of God Chinua Achebe, 1986 Set in the Ibo heartland of eastern Nigeria one of Africa's best known writers describes the conflict between old and new in its most poignant aspect the personal struggle between father and son

Arrow of God Chinua Achebe, 2013-04-25 Ezeulu headstrong chief priest of the god Ulu is worshipped by the six villages of Umuaro But he is beginning to find his authority increasingly under threat from his rivals in the tribe from those in the white government and even from his own family Yet he still feels he must be untouchable surely he is an arrow in the bow of his God Armed with this belief he is prepared to lead his people even if it means destruction and annihilation Yet the people will not be so easily dominated Spare and powerful Arrow of God is an unforgettable portrayal of the loss of faith and the struggle between tradition and change Continuing the epic saga of the community in Things Fall Apart it is the second volume of Achebe's African trilogy and is followed by No Longer at Ease

Approaches to the African Novel Charles E. Nnolim, 2010 This Third Edition of Approaches to the African Novel is a child of necessity Because of the unfortunate death of the publisher of Saros International who issued the First Edition and high demand this third enlarged edition has become imperative Three new essays all previously published are added two expectedly on Achebe the father of the African novel and one on Mongp Beti's Mission to Kala which was partially anthologised in Contemporary Literary Criticism Volume 27 1984 Achebe's Things Fall Apart as an Igbo national epic has evoked a spate of reactions from critics of African literature especially the troika Chinweizu et al in Toward the Decolonization of African Literature It was also anthologised in Modern Black Literature edited by S Okechukwu Menu 1971 The essay on Arrow of God whose structure and meaning has been largely avoided by other critics is included here for further airing For gender balance as the previous volume contained no essays on women writers an essay on Flora Nwapa has been added Since the novels discussed in this volume exclusively are on the African literature south of the Sahara the last essay on Peter Abrahams comes in to round out this collection of essays with a study of a south African writer for geographical balance

Arrow of God Chinua Achebe, 1969 The Arrow of a Second Chance Maritza Oliveras, 2023-05-03 Maritza is a single mother of one beautiful girl She struggled most of her life with mental health issues caused by physical emotional and sexual abuse Throughout her journey she faced betrayals abandonments bullying homelessness grief through failed relationships loss of jobs and family members She was led by all her emotional pain causing her to lose her identity As she came into her darkest valley she discovered an arrow that led her to repentance and surrendered her heart to Jesus Facing her truth was painful but long overdue It was a liberating experience for the truth has set her free and now walking in a healing journey shining her light of hope to the world What once was dressed in darkness now is light What once was dressed in pain and loss of hope it's now her strength of redemption For all those who come from the same place of darkness she hopes to be the compass that leads them to God so they can find the salvation love grace mercy liberation healing and redemption they have longed to find

Chinua Achebe's Arrow of God Yolande Cantu,1985

Arrow of God Chinua Achebe,1964 In the Igbo villages of Umuaro in Eastern Nigeria in 1921 Ezeulu old and dignified Chief Priest of the god Ulu finds that his authority as spiritual leader is strengthened when a war which he has tried to prevent between Umuaro and a neighboring community is stopped by the British District Officer Feeling compelled to respect the knowledge and power of the white man Ezeulu sends one of his young sons to learn Christianity so that he will know the secret of such strength But this brings the conflict between old ways and new to a head as the boy in an excess of freshly inspired Christian enthusiasm tries to kill a royal python a creature most sacred in the religious traditions of Umuaro After this Ezeulu s opposition to the authority of the white man becomes more pronounced but his noble obstinacy although it achieves a temporary victory over Captain Winterbottom brings tragedy in the end This moving story captures the atmosphere of African village life the beautiful proverb laden language of the Igbo and their strangely formal customs of worship and hospitality From publisher description
