Art and Artists of Twentieth-century China Michael Sullivan,1996 This visually stunning book focuses on the rebirth of Chinese art in the twentieth century under the influence of Western art and culture Sullivan discusses artists and their work against China's background of oppression and relaxation despair and hope

Art and Artists of Twentieth-Century China Michael Sullivan,2023-12-22 This visually stunning book focuses on the rebirth of Chinese art in the twentieth century under the influence of Western art and culture Michael Sullivan recognized throughout the world as a leading scholar of Chinese art vividly documents the conflicting pulls of traditional and Western values on Chinese art and provides 364 illustrations in color and black and white to show the great range of artistic expression and the historical processes that occurred within various movements A substantial biographical index of twentieth century Chinese artists is a valuable addition to the text Sullivan discusses artists and their work against China's background of oppression and relaxation despair and hope He expertly conveys the diverse and at times bizarre intertwining of Chinese cultural history and art during this century Included are the intense debates between traditionalists and reformers the creation of the first schools and the birth of the idea shocking in ethnocentric China that art is a world language that obliterates all frontiers The scholarly traditions of classical Chinese painting the belated discovery of Western modernism the artistic upheaval under Communism and China's rethinking of the very nature of art all have a place in Sullivan's fascinating history Michael Sullivan has known many of the major figures in China's modern art movement of the 1930s and 1940s and has also gained the confidence of younger artists who rose to prominence following the 1979 Peking Spring This long awaited book richly documented and abundantly illustrated is a capstone to Sullivan's work and will be enthusiastically welcomed by art lovers everywhere

Subversive Strategies in Contemporary Chinese Art Mary Wiseman,Liu Yuedi,2011-03-21 What is art and what is its role in a China that is changing at a dizzying speed These questions lie at the heart of Chinese contemporary art Subversive Strategies paves the way for the rebirth of a Chinese aesthetics adequate to the art whose sheer energy and imaginative power is subverting the ideas through which western and Chinese critics think about art The first collection of essays by American and Chinese philosophers and art historians Subversive Strategies begins by showing how the art reflects current crises and is working them out through bodies gendered and political The essays raise the question of Chinese identity in a global world and note a blurring of the boundary between art and everyday life

Museum Representations of Maoist China Amy Jane Barnes, 2016-04-15 The collection interpretation and display of art from the People's Republic of China and particularly the art of the Cultural Revolution have been problematic for museums These objects challenge our perception of Chineseness and their style content and the means of their production question accepted notions of how we perceive art This book links art history museology and visual culture studies to examine how museums have attempted to reveal discuss and resolve some of these issues Amy Jane Barnes addresses a series of related issues associated with collection and display how museums deal with difficult and controversial subjects the role they play in mediating between the object and the audience the role of the Other in the creation of Self and national identities the nature role and function of art in society the museum as image maker the impact of communism and Maoism on the cultural history of the twentieth century and the appropriation of communist visual iconography This book will be of interest to researchers and students of museology visual and cultural studies as well as scholars of Chinese and revolutionary art

Chinese Art Maxwell K. Hearn, Judith G. Smith, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2001 China's entry into the modern era was shaped by unprecedented internal turmoil and external pressures which brought a forceful end to two millennia of imperial rule and cultural insularity The essays in this volume offer a variety of perspectives on the impact of the West on indigenous literature architecture painting and calligraphy during this period ca 1860-1980 This book is published in conjunction with the exhibition Nineteenth and Twentieth Century Chinese Paintings from the Robert H Ellsworth Collection in The Metropolitan Museum of Art held at the museum from 30th January-19th August 2001

Total Modernity and the Avant-Garde in Twentieth-Century Chinese Art Minglu Gao, 2011-04-29 A groundbreaking book that describes a distinctively Chinese avant-gardism and a modernity that unifies art politics and social life To the extent that Chinese contemporary art has become a global phenomenon it is largely through the groundbreaking exhibitions curated by Gao Minglu China Avant-Garde Beijing 1989 Inside Out New Chinese Art Asia Society New York 1998 and The Wall Reshaping Contemporary Chinese Art Albright Knox Art Gallery 2005 among them As the first Chinese writer to articulate a distinctively Chinese avant-gardism and modernity one not defined by Western chronology or formalism Gao Minglu is largely responsible for the visibility of Chinese art in the global art scene today Contemporary Chinese artists tend to navigate between extremes either embracing or rejecting a rich classical tradition Indeed for Chinese artists the term modernity refers not to a new epoch or aesthetic but to a new nation modernity inextricably connects politics to art It is this notion of total modernity that forms the foundation of the Chinese avant-garde aesthetic and of this book Gao examines the many ways Chinese artists engaged with this intrinsic total modernity including the 85 Movement political pop cynical realism apartment art maximalism and the museum age encompassing the emergence of local art museums and organizations as well as such major events as the Shanghai Biennial

He describes the inner logic of the Chinese context while locating the art within the framework of a worldwide avant garde. He vividly describes the Chinese avant garde's embrace of a modernity that unifies politics, aesthetics, and social life, blurring the boundaries between abstraction, conception, and representation. Lavishly illustrated with color images throughout, this book will be a touchstone for all considerations of Chinese contemporary art. New Histories of Art in the Global Postwar Era Flavia Frigeri, Kristian Handberg, 2021-03-24. This book maps key moments in the history of postwar art from a global perspective. The reader is introduced to a new globally oriented approach to art, artists, museums, and movements of the postwar era, 1945-70. Specifically, this book bridges the gap between historical artistic centers such as Paris and New York and peripheral loci. Through case studies, previously unknown networks, circulations, divides, and controversies are brought to light. From the development of Ethiopian modernism to the showcase of Brazilian modernity, this book provides readers with a new set of coordinates and a reassessment of well-trodden art historical narratives around modernism. This book will be of interest to scholars in art historiography, art history, exhibition, and curatorial studies, modern art, and globalization. Art History, Narratology, and Twentieth-Century Chinese Art Lian Duan, 2023-07-28. This study constructs a framework of narratology for art history and rewrites the development of twentieth-century Chinese art from a narratological perspective. Theoretically and methodologically oriented, this is a self-reflective meta-art history studying the art historical narratives while narrating the story of modern and contemporary Chinese art. Thus, this book explores the three layers of narrative within the narratological framework: the first-hand fabula, the secondary narration, and the tertiary narrativization. With this tertiary narrativization, the reader/author presents three types of narrative: the grand narrative of the central thesis of this book, the middle-range narrative of the chapter theses, and case analyses supporting these theses. The focus of this tertiary narrativization is the interaction between Western influence on Chinese art and the Chinese response to this influence. The central thesis is that this interaction conditioned and shaped the development of Chinese art at every historical turning point in the twentieth century. The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history, critical theory, Chinese studies, and cultural studies. The Making of a Modern Art World Pedit Pui Chan, 2017-03-06. The Making of A Modern Art World explores the artistic institutions and discursive practices prevailing in Republican Shanghai, aiming to reconstruct the operational logic and the stratified hierarchy of Shanghai's art world. Using guohua as the point of entry, this book interrogates the discourse both of guohua itself and the wider discourse of Chinese modernism in the visual arts. In the light of the sociological definition of art world, this book contextualizes guohua through focusing on the modes of production and consumption of painting in Shanghai, examining newly adopted modern artistic practices, namely art associations, periodicals, art colleges, exhibitions, and the art market. The Art of Modern China Julia F. Andrews, Kuiyi Shen, 2012-09-24. In the early twenty-first century, China occupies a place on center stage in the international art world. But what does it mean to be a Chinese artist in the modern age? This first comprehensive study of modern Chinese art history traces its evolution.

chronologically and thematically from the Age of Imperialism to the present day Julia Andrews and Kuiyi Shen pay particular attention to the dynamic tension between modernity and tradition as well as the interplay of global cosmopolitanism and cultural nationalism This lively accessible and beautifully illustrated text will serve and enlighten scholars students collectors and anyone with an interest in Asian art and artists Chinese Painting and Its Audiences Craig Clunas,2023-10-17 A history of the reception of Chinese painting from the sixteenth century to the present What is Chinese painting When did it begin And what are the different associations of this term in China and the West In Chinese Painting and Its Audiences which is based on the A W Mellon Lectures in the Fine Arts given at the National Gallery of Art leading art historian Craig Clunas draws from a wealth of artistic masterpieces and lesser known pictures some of them discussed here in English for the first time to show how Chinese painting has been understood by a range of audiences over five centuries from the Ming Dynasty to today Chinese Painting and Its Audiences demonstrates that viewers in China and beyond have irrevocably shaped this great artistic tradition Arguing that audiences within China were crucially important to the evolution of Chinese painting Clunas considers how Chinese artists have imagined the reception of their own work By examining paintings that depict people looking at paintings he introduces readers to ideal types of viewers the scholar the gentleman the merchant the nation and the people In discussing the changing audiences for Chinese art Clunas emphasizes that the diversity and quantity of images in Chinese culture make it impossible to generalize definitively about what constitutes Chinese painting Exploring the complex relationships between works of art and those who look at them Chinese Painting and Its Audiences sheds new light on how the concept of Chinese painting has been formed and reformed over hundreds of years Published in association with the Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts National Gallery of Art Washington DC Please note All images in this ebook are presented in black and white and have been reduced in size Rewriting Modernism Phyllis Teo,2016
